State's School Teachers Call For $1,000 Boost In Annual Salary

Minimum Pay Of $3,600 Recommended

Harrisburg (AP) — Pennsylvania's organized school teachers roared approval yesterday of a plan to ask the 1955 General Assembly for a $1,000 a year salary increase.

More than 700 delegates attending the annual convention of the Pennsylvania State Education Assn. also approved unanimously a recommended minimum starting salary of $3,600 with annual raises to reach $8,200.

Both recommendations were submitted at the association's business session which passed a string of resolutions headed by one reaffirming support of a statewide broad-based tax such as the retail sales tax.

The salary increase motions, submitted by William Miller, of Burgettstown, Washington County, were given to the PSEA legislative committee for further consideration.

The committee, a continuing group, will decide whether to approve the recommendations or reduce the requested salary increases and will report next year.

Some 700 official delegates elected Norman C. Brillhart, Reading, president for the coming year. He succeeds Thomas E. Carson, North Allegheny schools, Allegheny County.

In an address, Dr. Francis B. Haas, state superintendent of public instruction, cited the continuing rise in costs of education and the increasing need for teachers as the population grows.

New school facilities to take care of the increasing number of youth will require an additional 1¾ billion dollars by the year 1960, Haas estimated.

"By 1960 our public schools must have a total of 17,190 additional classrooms over the number in 1950," he pointed out.

And the school population by that year, he estimated, will be 2,071,000, an increase of 321,966.

Miller, in presenting his recommendation of increased teachers' salaries, said that because of present salary scales, school teaching "does not attract a sufficient number of properly trained, qualified persons."

"We must re-evaluate our salary schedule in terms of present economic conditions," he said.

The salary recommendations were based on a program approved by the National Education Assn. and local associations.

The present starting minimum salary for teachers in Pennsylvania is $2,400. Through yearly increases this can go up to $4,800 for teachers with a master's degree.

Nation Assured Of 'Powerful' Military Force

Washington (AP) — Secretary of Defense Wilson yesterday underlined his policy of strength through economy in a report to President Eisenhower describing U. S. military forces as the most powerful this country ever assembled "short of war."

The report, required by law, is the first formal accounting of stewardship by Wilson and his new defense team. Eisenhower will forward it to Congress.

Although concerned primarily with the first half of 1953, it also dealt with developments stemming from the "new look" at U. S. strategy and requirements that Wilson ordered his military chiefs to undertake.

It places heavy emphasis upon air power, new weapons, including atomic, and reductions in manpower without weakening America's fighting strength.

Price Of Tea Rises In Britain

London (AP) — The price of tea—Britain's national drink—went up yesterday, but housewives got some good news in reports butter will come off ration in the spring.

Butter is still the scarcest food in this country, which is looking forward to an end of rationing after 14 years.

Tea went up four pence (five cents) to an average of five shillings four pence (75 cents) a pound.

Most Captives Dead

Bonn, Germany, (AP)—A German Red Cross executive said last night that the bulk of an estimated 1,270,000 German soldiers captured by the Russians in World War II "are no longer alive."

Supplies Rushed To Town Hit By Water Shortage

Bedford, (AP) — Emergency water supply equipment ordered here by Gov. John S. Fine to relieve a serious water shortage arrived late last night and volunteer workers unloaded three big trucks.

Dale Murphy, civilian defense coordinator from Harrisburg, issued a call for volunteer workers to begin laying an eight-inch pipe line this morning. The work is scheduled for completion tonight.

Fine ordered the equipment sent to Bedford and the Somerset State Hospital at Somerset following receipt of reports that the 82 million gallon Bedford reservoir was nearly dry and that Somerset Hospital has a supply for only two or three days.

Strong Winds May Hamper Firefighters

Los Angeles (AP)—Tired firefighters, gaining in their battle against flames threatening famed Mt. Wilson Observatory and nearby multi-million dollar television installations, heard an ominous Weather Bureau forecast yesterday.

Winds 25 to 35 m.p.h. and even stronger gusts were anticipated by early today. A slackening of winds yesterday greatly aided the firefighters.

A federal Forest Service spokesman said headway had been made during the day but "we are fearful because of the wind forecast."

Fingers of flame reached over the crest of Mt. Wilson to within 200 yards of observatory buildings yesterday before being beaten back by crews.

Homes in foothills communities of the San Gabriel Mountains, east of the Mt. Wilson section of the fire, are believed to be out of danger. The blaze, with a 12-mile perimeter, has blackened 10,000 acres. It started three days ago.

A second fire in the same range, 20 miles to the east near Mt. Baldy, probably will be controlled during the night after burning more than 3,000 acres.

Mercury Skids Below Zero

By The Associated Press

A numbing year's end cold wave—worst of the Winter—hit the northern fringes of the Midwest yesterday sending the mercury skidding below zero.

Afternoon temperatures plummeted as the cold wave surged across the border from Canada. The U. S. Weather Bureau in Chicago warned that overnight temperatures would dip to as much as 35 below in northern Minnesota.

Cold wave warnings were issued for the entire Midwest and as far south as Kentucky, westward to Colorado and eastward to Ohio.

The cold air was spreading southeastward on icy winds up to 30 miles an hour. Temperatures as low as 10 above were expected today as far south as the Ohio River.

Devils Lake and Grand Forks, N. D., had afternoon temperatures of -19. International Falls, Minn., had a -15 reading and Bemidji, Minn., -10.

New Polio Cases

Pittsburgh, (AP)—The city Health Dept. reported yesterday two new polio cases in southwestern Pennsylvania, making the total 435 for this record-high year.

Jury Indicts Shoulders For Perjury

Kansas City (AP)—Louis Shoulders, who played a hero's role when he caught the kidnap-killers of little Bobby Greenlease, yesterday was indicted by a federal grand jury for perjury.

The jury declared Shoulders, former St. Louis police lieutenant, lied when he told his story of the arrest and recovery of $300,000 of the record $600,000 ransom.

Judge Richard Duncan, set bond at $10,000. In St. Louis, a woman who answered the phone soon after the indictment was returned, said Shoulders was not at home. The U.S. marshal's office in St. Louis said it had not yet received word of the indictment.

Shoulders and Patrolman Elmer Dolan, who also was indicted for perjury two weeks ago, arrested Carl Austin Hall, 34, the money-mad kidnap killer last Oct. 6. This was eight days after Hall, and his drunken, divorced sweetheart, Mrs. Bonnie Heady, had seized the six-year-old son of a Kansas City millionaire, and shot him to death in a Kansas wheat field. Hall and Mrs. Heady were convicted and put to death, side by side, in the Missouri penitentiary gas chamber Dec. 18.

But both insisted they knew nothing of the disappearance of the missing half of the ransom. Hall said he had more than $590,000 with him in his hotel room when Shoulders and Dolan arrested him. Only minutes before the lethal gas snuffed out his life, Hall told federal officers he could give them no further clue to the missing money.

Shoulders and Dolan both appeared before the grand jury that indicted Hall and Mrs. Heady. They said they took the suitcases containing the money to the police station promptly, and intact. Other persons testified they saw no suitcases or money brought into the police station at the time Hall was brought in and booked.

It was this testimony on which yesterday's indictment was based. The 12-page indictment said this in its key paragraph:

"The testimony of Louis Shoulders, as he then and there well knew and believed, was untrue and false in that the suitcases containing the ransom money were not taken into the police station at the time and in the manner alleged in the testimony of Shoulders."

This same story brought about Shoulder's resignation from the St. Louis police department. A police board started an investigation of the arrest last October. Shoulders resigned in anger after testifying before the board. He said his reputation as a police officer had been destroyed. He had told the board that he brought Hall and the money to the Newstead station, booked Hall, and then left for about an hour while he took his automobile to the home of his landlady, Miss June George.

Other testimony, from policemen and visitors in the station, said they saw no suitcases brought in with Hall or prior to the Shoulders departure and return.

Twins Weigh Exactly Same

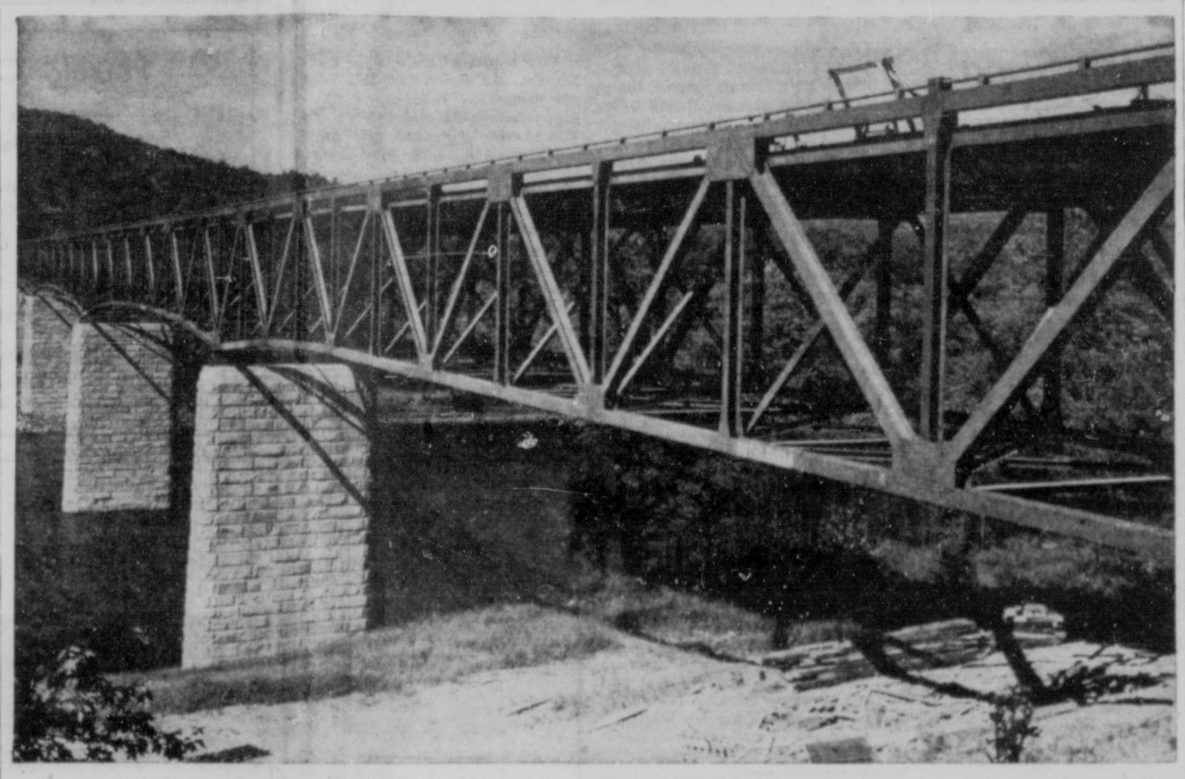
San Gabriel, Calif., (AP)—A medical rarity—birth of twins whose weight is exactly the same—was disclosed yesterday.

Doctors at San Gabriel Valley Hospital said the 2-day-old daughters of Mrs. Sally Gibbs, 19, both weighed 3 pounds 15 ounces at birth.

Almost invariably, the doctors said, one twin outweighs the other. One, who asked that his name be withheld, said such an event "will not occur again in this generation."



THIS MILFORD-MONTAGUE toll bridge will be dedicated today amid congratulatory speeches by officials of both Pennsylvania and New Jersey, and members of the Delaware River Toll Bridge Commission. At the same time, a Milford attorney will be up at Scranton asking the Federal court to issue an injunction against closing or tearing down of the old free bridge by the toll bridge commission. The action is in the same pattern as that instituted by citizens trying to halt demolition of the free bridge at Delaware, farther down-river. Story on Page 3.

2 Americans Released By Soviets

Berlin, (AP)—A little weary but in fairly good health, two Americans came back to the free West yesterday after years in Soviet prison camps. They immediately wanted to know who won the 1953 World Series and other news.

Russian authorities released Pvt. Homer H. Cox, 33, of Oklahoma City, Okla., and Leland Towers, 28, a merchant seaman from San Francisco, at their East Berlin headquarters. The action came after months of negotiations by the U. S. State Department.

U. S. Army officers brought the pair, unshaven and otherwise in need of barbering, to the American sector. There they were taken in tow by intelligence agents who made it clear neither would be available for any public statement or photographs until their cases are thoroughly investigated.

Cox, a military policeman assigned to West Berlin, disappeared Sept. 22, 1949. Believed arrested by the Russians in their sector of the city, he has been carried on the rolls as absent without official leave.

Towers fell into Russian hands in Finland in 1951 while on shore leave from his ship.

Bankruptcy Papers Filed By White, Stage Producer

Los Angeles (AP) — Theatrical producer George White, whose "Scandals" were leading Broadway shows, yesterday filed a petition in bankruptcy.

He listed obligations of $100,780 and assets of only $1,410 in the Federal Court action. He said his 1953 income was $14,880.

This is the second time White has filed a bankruptcy petition here. In June of 1941 he was adjudicated bankrupt with claims of $115,000 against him and no assets.

White said he is employed by the Versailles Restaurant in New York City where his current show is appearing.

Ike Supports Plan To Give Work To Labor Surplus Areas

Augusta, Ga., (AP)—President Eisenhower threw his support yesterday behind a manpower policy of channeling more government defense contracts into areas "where there has been a large amount of unemployment."

The President expressed "full agreement" with the federal policy which the Office of Defense Mobilization later said in Washington it announced last Nov. 4.

At that time the ODM named 17 large and 22 smaller metropolitan areas as localities of chronic labor surplus.

Washington officials said the President's action evidently was intended to notify the government purchasing agencies of full White House backing for the program.

From his home in Charleston, S. C., Sen. Maybank (D-SC) said in a statement that the President, in his new defense contracts policy has "turned his back on his campaign promises of states' rights, more freedom for private business and greater economies in the government."

During the Truman administration, Maybank and some other Southerners waged a fight against a policy of special preference to areas of unemployment in the award of defense contracts—the principle of the policy Eisenhower endorsed yesterday.

Textile manufacturers in the South expressed concern that the preference policy under the Truman administration would mean their losing business to New England mills.

Complainant In Theft Case Held On Support Count

Chippewa Falls, Wis., (AP) — A Milwaukee man may have forgotten something when he stopped at the Chippewa County sheriff's office to report theft of his car, but Sheriff Elmer Paquette didn't.

He booked Walter M. Seidelman, 39, for nonsupport of his wife, who lives here. Seidelman was fined $540 in county court Monday.

Humphrey Sees High Level Of Business

New York, (AP)—Treasury Secretary George Humphrey says he looks for a continued high level of business activity in 1954.

He said in an interview:

"This does not mean that there may not be adjustments in some particular lines, but there is every reason why the total economic activity should continue very high."

To a question of whether the decline in defense spending might lead to a depression, Humphrey told Newsweek magazine:

"Neither American business nor American labor needs war to be prosperous. Our populaton is increasing by thousands of newborn each day. The needs and wants of Americans are increasing just as swiftly . . .

"As the threat of aggression recedes, our huge expenditures for defense can decline. But this doesn't mean that we are headed for a depression."

Third Of Roads Need Replacing, Schmidt Reports

Harrisburg, (AP)—More than one-third of Pennsylvania's 41,000-mile highway system is in need of replacement, Highways Secretary E. L. Schmidt said yesterday.

Despite record high expenditures for highway improvements in post-war years, he said, 11,700 miles of road are more than 20 years old—or beyond the normal life span of a pavement surface.

"A real heavy Winter, with frosts and a quick breakup in the Spring will endanger these and other aging highway surfaces when they must accommodate the increasing weight and volume of commercial traffic," he said.

Magsaysay Takes Oath Of Office

Manila, Wednesday (AP) — Ramon Magsaysay, blacksmith's son who rode his vigorous fight against Communists and program of land for the landless to the Philippine presidency, told his people on taking office today that "for this young and vigorous nation of ours, nothing is really impossible."

Magsaysay in his inaugural address called for strong ties with the United States, strengthened relations with Asian nations and "a common program of honest, efficient and constructive government."

To Curtail Tours

Washington, (AP)—The Army announced yesterday that the active duty tours of some 6,000 non-regular junior officers will be curtailed next year.

French Pour Troops Into Indochina

Hanoi, Indochina (AP) — The French poured troops into central Indochina yesterday to reinforce a counter offiensive already opened by warplanes against the Vietminh rebels who split the country in two.

The French concentrated at the Laotian air base of Seno, about 40 miles south of the lines that Communist-led battalions sliced westward across Laos from old bases on the seacoast of neighboring Viet Nam to Thialand's Mekong River frontier during Christmas week.

French men massed at Seno with survivors of French Union garrisons withdrawn or overrun during the lightning offensive. To the north lies the ruins of Thakhek, a town of 10,000 the French regarded as a trap and abandoned to the Vietminh.

Twenty miles to the southwest lies Savannakhet, a Mekong River port to which French civilians of Thakhek have been evacuated.

Rail Strike Averted For Two Months

Augusta, Ga. (AP) — President Eisenhower acted yesterday to stave off a nationwide strike of more than a million railroad workers who are members of 15 non-operating unions.

The President created a three-man emergency board, which has the effect of averting a strike for 60 days.

An Eisenhower aide said members of the board will be named in a few days.

Under the railway labor law, once an emergency board is created there can be no strike for a two-month period. During the first half of the period the board will hold hearings and recommend settlement terms.

The second 30 days is reserved for union-management negotiations based on the board's findings.

Dulles Hints Retaliation By U. S. Forces

By John Scali

Washington (AP) — Secretary of State Dulles hinted broadly yesterday American air and naval power might strike at the China mainland if Red Chinese troops openly intervene in Indochina or resume the war in Korea.

He gave this warning at a news conference while at the same time minimizing the military importance of a new Communist thrust across the narrow waist of Indochina.

Dulles' remarks reinforced a similar warning he issued in a speech before an American Legion convention in St. Louis last Sept. 2.

At that time, the secretary said any new Red aggression would cause grave consequences "which might not be confined to Indochina" and which would strip the Communists of their "privileged sanctuary" in Manchuria.

In recalling this warning yesterday, Dulles specifically noted the growing American Navy and Air Force in the Far East as possible weapons of retaliation.

Any renewal of hostilities in Korea or a Chinese Communist attack in Indochina, he said, would bring an American reaction "not necessarily confined to the particular area the Communist choose to make the theater of their new aggression."

Instead of trying to meet any new aggression "merely by land power of our own on Asia," he said, "there would be more reliance on American sea and air power which would give us a greater choice."

The secretary expressed complete confidence in the ability of French and loyal Indochinese forces to counter the latest Vietminh Communist attack in the kingdom of Laos.

He maintained that this Red gain has been very greatly exaggerated in the American press. He said the Communist advance to the border of neighboring Thailand in one sector does not pose a present threat to that country. Neither, he said, does it appreciably upset French plans for eventual victory.

Dulles stressed that President Eisenhower's decision to withdraw two American divisions from Korea will not lessen American military might in the area.

He conceded that in terms of number of foot soldiers it would mean a decrease, but implied that new weapons which would be sent to this area would actually increase American fire power and capacity to retaliate.

Forces which remain, he said, will feature highly mobile air and naval units which can discharge all commitments and responsibilities the United States has undertaken in this critical Far East region.

Rhee Urges Allies To End Peace Talks With Reds

Seoul, (AP)—President Syngman Rhee in a New Year's message yesterday called on the Allies to end talks "fore-doomed to be fruitless" with the Communists and "rise with us . . . for the last great battle to annihilate the Red forces."

The message to the South Korean people renewed the 79-year-old President's pledge to reunite Korea "just as soon as we possibly can."

Rhee declared that in his opinion the failure of preliminary talks to arrange a Korean peace conference "was final."

"If the United States continues to maintain its present strong stand," he said, "we shall never have to wait another three or four months in an attempt to prepare for a political peace conference that is foredoomed to be fruitless."

Some Atomic Data Exchanged

Washington (AP) — Sen. Hickenlooper (R-Ia) disclosed yesterday that the United States already is exchanging some secret atomic information on "materials processing" with friendly nations.

The exchange has dealt with atomic isotopes, he said. Some isotopes, or twin forms of certain elements, are used for medical treatment and scientific experiments. Industrial uses of atomic energy were not included in the exchange because of restrictions in the law, he said.

Universal Pension Outlined

Washington, (AP) — Chairman Carl T. Curtis (R-Neb) of a House subcommittee yesterday proposed a sweeping overhaul of the social security system to provide pensons immediately for almost all retired persons over 65.

His program, proposing the most sweeping changes in years, would be financed by extending the social security tax to cover almost all workers under 65, and to all types of income.

He would raise the minimum social security payment from the present $25 monthly to $45, and ease retirement tests so that workers could make up to $1,000 annually and still draw their pensions.

This almost universal pension plan calls for abolishing the present federal program of direct welfare grants to the needy aged. States and local governments could continue welfare grants.

Curtis outlined his program in a statement and a subsequent interview.

He estimated his proposal would add more than 3½ billion dollars to the cost of Old Age and Survivors' Insurance (OASI) next year, making the total $6,670,000,000.

He predicted it would bring in revenue of about $7,300,000,000, thus adding a net of about 630 million next year to the present 19 billion dollar social security trust fund. He would let the social security tax rate jump from 1½ per cent to 2 per cent of wages up to $3,600 annually, as scheduled next Friday.

Curtis heads a special subcommittee of the House Ways and Means Committee which has been investigating the present social security system for months.

It was learned he presented his new program to President Eisenhower and Republican congressional leaders in White House conferences two weeks ago. He also has briefed Chairman Daniel A. Reed (R-NY) of the full Ways and Means Committee.

All the leaders were said to be noncommittal so far, although the administration was not expected to go along with his plan to abolish direct federal payments to the needy aged and bring recipients under the OASI trust fund program.

Men Plead Innocent In Thefts

Portland—Two young men charged with breaking two dime machines at the Bear Stop near here on Dec. 22 entered not guilty pleas before Justice of the Peace Clifford Sebring Monday night and were committed to Northampton County Prison to await court action.

The pair, William VanScoten, 24, and Warren E. Dickinson, 23, both of Blairstown, RD 1, N. J., was arrested by Police Chief Jesse Felker and arraigned before Sebring, then committed to prison.

According to Felker the men allegedly broke open two telescope viewing machines and emptied the contents, $86.70 in dimes.

Chief Felker was summoned about 3 a.m. by Ivan Fisher, caretaker for the Summer refreshment stand owned by Alfred Cox. The police chief said he found the dimes in coat pockets of the two men on an inspection of their car immediately after reaching the scene.

Pocono Union Sunday School Gives Program

Henryville: One of the largest congregations in years filled Pocono Union Church to witness the annual Sunday School Christmas entertainment.

This year's program was presented with only the Christmas tree lights for illumination. The program opened with congregational singing, scripture reading by the pastor, Rev. C. F. Spangenberg and a song by the children. Mrs. Lettie Wood, soprano and Mrs. Ethel Baumann, alto, accompanied by Mrs. Arthur Post sang a duet.

Recitations were by Bobby Post, Priscilla Baumann, Frankie Strunk, Brenda Post, Bonnie Strunk, Jimmy Post, Jackie Stewart, Doris Miller, Patsy Stettler, Shirley Strunk, Carol Spangenberg, Nadia Gromadin, Carol Stewart, Tommy Strunk, Harrison Stewart and Cathy Stettler.

Glen and Billy Bisbing sang a duet, accompanied by their mother, Mrs. Glen Bisbing Sr. A piano solo was played by Jean Spangenberg and a duet was sung by the Misses Anna May Hartshorn and Betty Smith. The children sang several numbers with the church choir augmenting the program by singing seven selections. Mrs. Arthur Post accompanied the choir.

Mrs. Richard Post, assistant superintendent was program reader and Mrs. Paul Barry, superintendent, coached the children and made the closing remarks. Benediction was by the pastor who extended an invitation to attend services at the church.

Gifts of candy, popcorn balls and oranges were distributed by Richard Post and Paul Barry to all children present as gifts from the Sunday School. Exchange gifts followed the program. Mr. and Mrs. Russell Barry donated the Christmas tree to the Sunday School.

Two Babies Baptized At Bartonsville

Bartonsville—The sacrament of baptism was administered by Rev. John B. Bergstresser to two infants at St. John's Lutheran Church here Sunday afternoon.

First to be received into the baptized membership of the church was Lana Kay Beehler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Beehler, of Tannersville. Sponsors were the parents and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Frantz, maternal uncle and aunt of the child who was born at the Monroe County General Hospital on Oct. 14. She is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Beehler of here and Mr. and Mrs. Claude Metzgar, of Analomink.

Also baptized was John Paul Klingel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Klingel, of Tannersville. Sponsors were the parents and Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Doll, maternal uncle and aunt of the child who was born at the General Hospital on Sept. 27. He is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Doll, of Tannersville and Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Klingel, of East Stroudsburg.

Both children are the fifth generation of their respective families to become members of the church.

BOTTOMS UP!
A Last Drink — A Last Drive

The party's over—Bottoms Up! Let's get going!

For thousands of men and women—children and pedestrians, too—that has been the beginning of the end. On the highway at night, where the road curved and the hazy driver drove straight ahead, there was another "Bottoms Up!" and the end of the last drive.

It's hard to convince a person who has had a few drinks that he shouldn't drive. Alcoholic stimulation engenders a false confidence in his ability. In reality, his reactions have slowed down, his perception and judgment lowered—driving alertness gone. In a later stage the road blurs, lights blind as he fights drowsiness, loses control.

Seldom is he endangering his life alone. He is also endangering the lives of those traveling with him and others on the streets and highways. In 35 states 166,179 drivers lost their licenses in 1952 for drinking and driving. Thirty-five per cent of all revocations are brought against drinking drivers.

If you have been drinking, either let someone else drive, leave your car and call a taxi, or stay where you are until your senses clear. Stay off the road!

Don't kid yourself into a "Bottoms Up" drive—it can be fatal!

Injunction Sought To Keep Toll-Free Milford Bridge Open

New Span Opening Set For Noon

Milford— An injunction against closing the present free bridge across the river will be sought in Scranton Federal court today.

At the same time, officials of both Pennsylvania, New Jersey, and the Delaware River Toll Bridge Commission, will formally open the new toll bridge connecting Milford with Montague, N. J.

Milford Attorney Sidney Krawitz said he will file the petition with two local citizens as plaintiffs and the toll bridge commission as defendent.

Scranton attorney, working with Krawitz, will be Esdras Howell.

Krawitz said he also will file an injunction action with the State court in Harrisburg next week.

If it turns out that the Federal Court does not recognize the suit, the State court action will still stand, Krawitz explained. If the Federal case is recognized, both suits are good.

The action will be filed in the name of Donald Cole, Montague, N. J., and Robert Blood, Milford, Krawitz said.

Blood operates a bathing beach on the river, a tourist home, a truck farm, and a small refreshment stand. Cole runs a service station.

The men will contend that their business will be seriously damaged if the present free bridge is closed and demolished. That's what toll bridge commission plans call for.

There are many other local residents beside Cole and Blood who will be adversely affected, said Krawitz. As an example he referred to men working for the Pickatinny Arensal in New Jersey, and for the Select Risks Insurance Co. of Branchville, N. J.

The Milford attorney said he expected to have a reply to his petition sometime Thursday.

One of the chief arguments advanced by Krawitz is like that used by attorneys representing the citizens' groups around Delaware, farther downstream. They are trying to keep the old, free Delaware bridge open too, and have obtained a preliminary injunction.

The argument is that the commission does not have the legal right to close the free bridge, according to terms of an Act of 1913.

Residents are reported complaining that the eventual dismantling of the bridge built in 1890 will interfere with traffic during the summer resort season. Removal of the bridge also will necessitate toll travel based on five cents-a-trip commutation rates across the new 1,150-foot Milford-Montague bridge.

Regular through traffic rates established by the commission last month call for payment of 25 cents for passenger cars and other smaller vehicles, up to $1 for heavy trucks. Commutation books good for one year will be placed on sale today for $1, each book containing 20 tickets.

Today's ceremony will occur at noon in the middle of the $2 million two-lane bridge with Alexander R. Miller, commission chairman serving as master of ceremonies. A luncheon will follow at 1 in Tom Quick Inn.

Rev. David Sweet, rector of the local Episcopal Church will offer invocation at the bridge and officials of both states, the bridge commission, this borough and Pike County are expected to participate in the program.

Among those invited are Sen. Montgomery Crowe, Assemblymen August Metz of Pike County and John Shotwell, Monroe County; Judge Fred W. Davis; State Senator H. Littell of Sussex County, N. J.; Burgess Charles A. Stroh, of here and others.

Today's opening marks the final ceremony for the formal dedication of three bridges across the Delaware River at a cost of $15,000,000.

Five Persons Injured When Car Skids On Icy Highway, Spins Sideways Into Tree

Marshalls Creek—Five persons were injured, one seriously, in a single car collision on Route 402, a mile north of here yesterday at 10 a. m.

State police of Stroudsburg listed the driver as Mrs. Margaret Harper, 32, of here and blamed icy road conditions with causing the crash.

According to police Mrs. Harper, traveling toward her Coolbaugh Road home, skidded on ice and the car spun sideways into a tree at the Oak Grove intersection.

In the car were Mrs. Harper's children, Willie, 7, who is under observation for head injury in the General Hospital; Elsie, 14, and Elizabeth, 16, discharged with Mrs. Harper after dispensary treatment for cuts and bruises; and David White 12, a nephew from Chester, Pa., who suffered multiple fractures of the ribs and upper left leg. His condition was reported satisfactory last night.

The car was reported damaged an estimated $300.

Kiwanis Club Holds Election Of Secretary

Bangor—Kiwanis Club met last night in Colonial Hotel to accept the resignation of its present secretary and elect a replacement.

Resignation of James Drury as Kiwanis secretary was accepted. John L. Williams was elected to fill the post. Drury was recently named bridge superintendent at the Portland bridge across the Delaware.

Reports were heard on the Christmas lighting program in Bangor and the annual Children's Christmas party, both projects sponsored by the club.

William Scott was the speaker. Ernest Turtzo, president, was in charge of the meeting.

Bay State Finally Recognizes Texas

Boston, (AP)—You can put that 48th star back in the flag, Betsy. Massachusetts moved this week to recognize Texas as a state in the Union.

Statesmen in other states seem to agree—as well as statesmen can—that Texas was admitted to the Union Dec. 29, 1845, but Bay State Yankees are a stubborn sort.

Seems a few months earlier, in March, 1845, the General Court of Massachusetts (that's Yankee for state legislature) resolved not to "acknowledge the act of the U. S. government authorizing the admission of Texas."

Prisons Separated

Harrisburg, (AP)—Gov. John S. Fine has officially proclaimed the separation of Rockview prison from Western State Penitentiary and Graterford from the Eastern State Penitentiary.

Stroudsburg, Pa.

To the Editor of the Daily Record:
Dear Sir:

As a civic-minded resident of Stroudsburg for eleven years and a property owner, I would like information as to the management of the Stroudsburg police department. I understand this department is under Civil Service. As such, are there no seniority rights? Why are new entrants paid the same stipend as policemen who have served years, and why may those under long service be forced to accept what seem to be practically service demotions?

Will the Borough Council kindly give public information concerning Department Regulations. No such treatment has ever been the rule of the police force of the City of New York, where I lived for forty years.

This information would be greatly appreciated.

A devoted Stroudsburg Resident.

85 Choristers Attend Reunion

An estimated 85 persons attended the third annual reunion of the Stroudsburg High school choruses Sunday afternoon in the school auditorium.

The reunion, arranged for each year at Christmastime, allows former chorus members to meet with other high school classes and exchange ideas.

Numa Snyder, vocal music instructor at the school, was in charge of the reunion.

DEATHS 1

MARTOCCI, Leonard A., Roseto, Tuesday, December 29, aged 53 years. Relatives and friends are respectfully invited to attend funeral services Thursday, December 31 at 1:30 from the Hough funeral home, Bangor with further services at 2 p.m. in the Roseto Presbyterian Church. Interment in the Presbyterian Church Cemetery.

Three-Inch Snow Falls In Mountains

Three inches of snow blanketed some mountain sections of Monroe County early yesterday, sending highway crews into action for the second day.

The Effort Mountain area was hardest hit by snow and ice but warmer weather toward mid-afternoon melted the snow.

Temperatures dropped below freezing in the early morning hours, then climbed to 35 by midday, and a grader from the State Highway Department shed was used to push the slush from roads.

Seven trucks were used in cindering operations throughout the day, department spokesmen reported. A total of 22 men were employed in making county highways safer for travel by spreading ashes across slippery roads.

A heavy blanket of fog moved in on the district last night and slowed traffic to a snail's pace. The fog was especially thick in the low-lying sections of the county.

Today's weather forecast was for temperatures in the 40s with some rain likely. Windy and turning much colder was the prediction for tonight. This would indicate that the sub-zero cold wave that gripped the Midwest yesterday was pushing toward Pennsylvania, although the overnight temperature was not expected to go below 30.

Soldier Faces Hearing Today In Fatality

Hearing on a charge of involuntary manslaughter was scheduled for 11 a. m. today at the office of Justice of the Peace Clifford Sebring, Mount Bethel, for Ruben Smith, a Philadelphia soldier.

Smith was charged with driving the car in which Mrs. Willa Mae Mixson, 42, Philadelphia, his sister, was injured fatally early Monday.

Smith was arrested at his home that night, and taken to Bethlehem State Police barracks at Schoenersville. He was held there while trying to raise money for bail, until last night.

Unable to obtain bail, he was then ordered held in Northampton County Prison pending arraignment today.

Others who were passengers were reported in satisfactory condition last night. Alfred Joseph, 23, was in "fair condition" after suffering a skull fracture. Reginald Saunders, 5, step-son of the Mixsons, was discharged from the General Hospital in East Stroudsburg Monday night. Willie Mixson, the dead woman's husband, and his daughter, Annette, were discharged yesterday.

The accident occurred when the car failed to negotiate a curve, struck a tree near Mount Bethel, went down an embankment and overturned in a shallow creek. Mrs. Mixson bled to death when a broken rib severed her aorta, according to the coroner's report.

Hospital Notes

Clothing Fund Drive Reaches $1,327 Mark

The campaign for $2,000 to buy new clothing for underprivileged children of Monroe County reached $1,327 yesterday.

Arlington Williams, treasurer of Monroe County Children's Clothing Inc., a non-profit corporation formed several years ago to aid needy youngsters in their quest for warm clothing, disclosed last night the latest total.

Operated on a 12-month a year basis, with clothing purchased at near-cost prices in quantity, the group answers pleas submitted by nurses in their regular tour of schools, and from individuals who contact the corporation individually.

Contributions may be forwarded to Williams at 28 N. Seventh St., Stroudsburg.

Howell Held For Court On Pistol Count

Robert C. Howell, 28, East Stroudsburg RD2, was bound over to the grand jury last night on a charge of carrying a pistol without a permit.

The action followed a hearing at the office of Justice of the Peace Herbert G. Bonser, East Stroudsburg. Only testimony was by Constable James Detrick of Analomink, who served the warrant on Howell.

Representing Howell was Russell Mervine.

The charge grew out of a fracas between Howell and Eugene Strunk, 615 Rosemond Ave., Stroudsburg, which took place in East Stroudsburg Sunday.

Movie Given Triple Honor

The New York Film Critics yesterday gave triple honors to "From Here To Eternity" for its overall quality, direction and leading male performance.

"Eternity" was named the best film of the year by the critics group, made up of reviewers from all metropolitan dailies and several weekly magazines.

Fred Zinneman received the critics' award as "best director of the year" and Burt Lancaster was named "best male actor" for the same film.

Audrey Hepburn, raven-haired and wide-eyed screen newcomer, was cited for her role in "Roman Holiday" as "best female actress".

Faithful Class Holds Dinner

Members of the Faithful Class of the Stroudsburg Methodist Church held their annual dinner in the basement of the church last night. About 50 men attended.

The dinner also honored Fred Bartholomew, a retired teacher of the class, whose birthday anniversary falls on Friday. Mr. Bartholomew was presented a cake.

A period of fellowship and entertainment followed the dinner.

Quick Returns Second Salary To County

The 1949 audit case closed yesterday with repayment to the county of more than $500 by former commissioner Willard Quick.

The money was repaid in compliance with an order handed down a few months ago by Judge Edward P. Little of Susquehanna County, who presided at the hearings.

The case resulted when a taxpayers' group appealed from the 1949 auditors' report.

They claimed that illegal payments were made to Quick as deputy sheriff while he was also serving as a county commissioner.

There was no question in the case that Quick had served as deputy, but taxpayers claimed he could not collect two salaries, and that he had in effect hired himself by sitting on the salary board which approved his salary.

Judge Little found in favor of the taxpayers and ordered the salary of $457.70 repaid, and also ordered that Quick pay costs of $73.75.

L. A. Martocci Succumbs To Heart Attack

Roseto—Leonard A. Martocci, 53, a lifelong resident of Roseto, died suddenly of a heart attack at 2 p.m. yesterday while visiting his uncle's home.

A certificate of death listing heart attack as the cause was signed by Martin Bechtel, Northampton County coroner.

He was the son of the late Antonio and Angeline Martocci and was a member of the Roseto Presbyterian Church and the Brotherhood of Carpenters Union.

Surviving are five brothers, Nicholas of Scranton; Phillip, Joseph A., Michael and Frank, all of Roseto; one sister, Mary Martocci, Roseto.

Funeral services will be held Thursday at 1:30 p.m. at the Hough funeral home, Bangor, and continued in the Roseto Presbyterian Church at 2 p.m. Interment will be made in the family plot at the Presbyterian Cemetery, Roseto.

Junior Class Sponsors Dance

Bangor—An estimated 300 persons attended the annual holiday dance sponsored by members of the Bangor High School junior class last night at Blue Valley Farm Show building.

Music was provided by Bernie Parson's orchestra. Enio Conti, faculty adviser and Lofetta Ciccarelli, student chairman, were in charge of the entertainment.

Parnell Thomas May Run Again

Allendale, N. J., (AP) — Former GOP Rep. J. Parnell Thomas said last night he may run for Congress again next year.

Thomas, 58, was sent to prison in 1949 for receiving kickbacks from persons on his congressional payroll.

Kohl Experiences Double Dose Of Trouble Same Day

Yesterday was just one of those days when practically everything went wrong for Carl Kohl and his Colonial Diner in Stroudsburg.

A double dose of mishaps began at 8:45 a.m. when a car jumped the curb, knocked over a parking meter and clipped a metal pole upholding the canopy to the diner's entrance.

Within two hours and after the canopy was re-erected, fire broke out in the kitchen range, summoning Stroudsburg firemen to the scene.

Stroudsburg police said Mrs. Loretta Cowley, Stroudsburg RD 3, was operating the car in the first incident. Mrs. Cowley, braking to reach the curb and parking meter, found the sloping surface slippery and the gathering momentum set off the resulting events.

The car hit a parking meter which was damaged extensively, and broke a metal pole, one of two holding a canvas covering. There were no personal injuries and only slight damages to the car.

Then at 10:30 the kitchen range caught fire and smoke billowed from the area behind the diner. Firemen quickly extinguished the blaze.

Kohl said the three-year-old electric range was completely ruined, but could not estimate the damage. Cause was undetermined.

Short order cook Arthur Tubelewicz spotted the fire. He escaped wth only blisters of the hand.

Cost Of Marriage Licenses Has Pennsylvania In Dither

Harrisburg, (AP)—It may take a court test to resolve the confusion surrounding the cost of a marriage license in Pennsylvania after Jan. 1.

Burt R. Glidden, assistant director of the Legislative Reference Bureau, maintained the cost of getting a license will remain $3 despite new laws going into effect Jan. 1.

He conceded, however, that clerks of Orphans Courts in some counties will charge $3.50 because of what he termed "confusion" in interpreting the law. Dauphin County, for example, will up its rates to the $3.50 figure.

(In Monroe County the prothonotary will continue the same rates that have been charged since just after World War Two: $3 for a marriage license and 50 cents for an affidavit.)

Dr. Russell E. Teague, state health secretary who has jurisdiction over vital statistics, said county clerks will have to decide the matter for themselves.

Here's how the rhubarb occurred:

A 1925 marriage code first set up a $2.50 license fee; $2 to be kept by the county clerk and 50 cents to be forwarded to the state.

In 1943, the vital statistics law was amended to provide for a 50-cent additional fee to be retained by the county clerk for recording a marriage application. That, in effect, boosted the overall charge to $3.

The 1953 Legislature, however, enacted two brand-new laws repealing both the 1925 and 1943 acts.

The new marriage code spells out the license fee shall be $3, of which $2.50 is for the county and 50 cents for the state.

The new vital statistics code mentions a 50-cent fee to be charged by the county clerk "for the execution and transmission" of marriage license application transcripts.

Glidden contends that the 50-cent fee cited in the vital statistics law is actually part of the $2.50 to which the county is entitled under the marriage code.

"In my opinion," he said, "the entire cost for obtaining a marriage license will remain at $3, including all fees except for affidavits which are not identified by the law."

East Borough Infant Dies

Carol Ann Hack, infant daughter of George and Rita Woodbridge Hack, 184 Grove St., East Stroudsburg, died Monday at 3 p. m., in St. Luke's Hospital in Bethlehem.

Surviving, in addition to her parents, are a sister, Mary and a brother, George Jr., both at home; the maternal grandmother, Mrs. Walter Woodbridge, Scranton, and the paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George Hack, also of Scranton.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday at 10 a. m., at Lanterman funeral home. Rev. Francis Barrett will officiate. Interment will be made in St. Matthew's Cemetery, East Stroudsburg.

To Name Ambassador

Ottawa (AP) — Canada will soon nominate an ambassador to Moscow, it was learned yesterday. The nomination must be approved by Russia before he can assume his post, which has been vacant for seven years.

Italy is attempting to move 15,000 inhabitants of Lucania out of caves into a model town.

German Audiences View Historical Film With Little Outward Reaction

Heidelberg, Germany, (AP)—The most controversial film in modern Germany was unreeled here recently and the German audience took it in dead silence.

No one applauded. No one booed. And there was no laughter.

The film, titled "Until Five After Twelve," is a piece of historical self-analysis that delves thoroughly into the Nazi years.

Pieced together largely from newsreel shots, it brings up the happy along with the unpleasant.

Until a few weeks ago, it was banned in most sections of Germany by state officials. They feared it would make Germans nostalgic for the old Hitler days.

The film shows Eva Braun, Hitler's mistress, cavorting under a waterfall in a tightfitting bathing suit. She runs happily, shaking off the water.

Then the film switches abruptly to what looks like a big shower room. A hand is shown slowly turning a valve. It isn't an ordinary shower room. It was one of the gas chambers where uncounted Jews were killed.

No audience reaction, just a deep breath or two.

More of the past is rolled out. Great masses of people salute Hitler, their arms outstretched and devoted smiles on their faces. Hitler rants and promises to make the streets free of "Communist terror."

The film's commentator reminds the audience "He forgot to say: 'make the streets free for another kind of terror.'"

The audience watched stolidly.

Then comes moments of triumph for Germany. The Sudentenland is annexed. Stuka bombers dive on a helpless Poland. Nazi soldiers march through the Arc de Triumphe in Paris. The bombs fall on London.

But nobody clapped. And nobody booed.

Gen. Eisenhower is shown in a buoyant mood, smoking a cigarette. A swastika lies in a rubble-littered street. A U. S. Army truck, filled with infantrymen, rolls over it. No audience reaction.

The film concludes with a farmer and his oxen moving off into the sunset. The commentator says:

"We saw how it began; we have known how it always, always ends."

The audience heard him in silence. Quietly, the theater emptied.

A Safer Arlington Heights

Four regional traffic fatalities in nine days focuses attention on causes and the sometimes more important elements known as "contributary" causes.

In at least one of these deaths—the Arlington Heights fatality on Christmas Eve—we feel the contributary causes are of major importance.

They are physical conditions at and proximate to the accident scene which should have been remedied years ago. They must be remedied now because they have been the cause of a long series of accidents culminating in the Christmas Eve death.

Route 611 is a three lane highway through a heavily built-up section at the point of fatality—near the intersection of Chipperfield Drive and Rosemond Ave. This section of Stroud Township has built up rapidly and is still expanding.

That means more people, more children, more cars carrying families, more persons using the bus service which stops at this dangerous junction, more children using the school bus which stops at this dangerous intersection.

It means more people trying to get back and forth across the main three-lane highway, more people exposed to the mad rush of traffic on Route 611.

It meant death on Christmas Eve and a series of accidents in which several people were injured prior to the fatality.

There's nothing to deter more and more deaths, maybe a mass execution by some vehicle of school children leaving their bus to dart home across this highway.

Something can be done and should be done. It is a matter for the Supervisors of Stroud Township to act on at once.

We suggest Supervisors adopt and submit these resolutions to the State Highway Department for permission to:

Erect a blinker warning signal at the Chipperfield Drive-Rosemond Ave. intersections of Route 611.

Create a NO-PASSING ZONE from a point 300 to 500 yards North of the intersection to extend right into the Borough of Stroudsburg.

We suggest the Supervisors supplement this action with an intensive 30-day drive—since they now have a police officer—to enforce without favor a 35 mile speed limit through that area. State Police cooperation should be obtained in this campaign.

We do not say this is the complete solution. We do say it will afford citizens who reside in this heavily built up area SOME protection.

Right now they have NONE, and there is no excuse for that.

Well-Arranged

Some features of our existence are nicely arranged. One of these is the way the days got shorter while we were busy shopping for Christmas, and then began to lengthen.

If it were not for the pre-holiday excitement this would be a dark and gloomy time of the year.

The shrinkage in daylight continued to Dec. 22, but as that date neared practically everyone was too excited to pay any attention.

With Christmas over, the sun began to perk up a bit. (And that's true even though we haven't seen it for a couple of days.) After New Year's the day is five minutes longer, and it stretches something like a minute a day after that.

For our peace of mind, it's wonderful.

Although Eskimos spend the greatest part of their lives around water, they are not, as a general rule, good swimmers.

Pineapples are Puerto Rico's richest crop.

The Once Over —by H. I. Phillips

Speech In An Hour of Cris's (After the fashion of "Change the Name of Arkansas!")

"Grover Whalen out as the head man in all welcomes to Gotham! By thunder no! Grover Whalen 'removed as the most famous best-dressed, best-looking official glad-hander in America! Over my dead body, sir! Grover Whalen no longer going down the bay to welcome doers of great deeds, leading the parade up Broadway, lending color to the welcome at City Hall and seeing that every oyster fork is in place at the banquet! Gentlemen, this is mutiny!

Change the Mayor of New York, alter the face of lower Broadway, switch the location of the Waldorf-Astoria, do away with brass bands, drum majors and motorcycle escorts, but cut down Grover Whalen and his gardenia? Never!

Gentlemen, this is sacrilege. This is treason! You may wipe out Coney Island, efface Central Park, bid the Bronx Zoo begone, order Toots Shor to head a drive for the WCTU, swap Grant's Tomb for the headstone of P. T. Barnum, close the shuttle, remove Alfred Drake from "Kismet" in favor of Jimmy Savo, require Boris Karloff to play Santa Claus in Macy's window, and transfer the Chrysler Tower to Hialeah Park in exchange for a flock of pink flamingoes, but fire the man who is as much a part of New York as General Sherman's horse, Sophie Tucker, the flea circus, "Variety," Bedloe's Island and Herbert Bayard Swope! Not if there is a drop of red blood left in the arteries of the citizenry! Grover Whalen was the famous institution pointed out to milhons when they first set foot on the shores of Manhattan. Charlie Schwab's castle on Riverside Drive, the old Polo Grounds, Castle Garden where Jenny Lind sang, the Hippodrome, George M. Cohan, Al Smith and "Abie's Irish Rose" weren't even close. Bob Moses was considered away up town. The circus was playing the old Madison Square Garden down near Twenty-fifth Street, Raymond Hitchcock was playing at the Ziegfeld and they were serving huge slices of roast beef with the free lunch at the Knickerbocker. Gentlemen, Grover Whalen was here before "The Ladder," "Peaches" Browning, "Tillie's Punctured Romance," sulpha drugs, king-size cigarettes and Walter Winchell. He was the first to greet Gertrude Ederle, Walter Hagen, Gene Sarazen, Bobby Jones and Slim Lindbergh down the bay. He threw a parade for Admiral Dewey and a party for Daniel Boone! To remove him from the scene is a foul crime. I say to you that you can change the course of the Hudson River, make Broadway a side street, tear the schnozzle from the classic face of Jimmy Durante, name Jack Dempsey curator of the Metropolitan Museum of Art and take Mike Quill away from microphones! But touch a hair of Grover Whalen's head! Veto his gardenia! Turn thumbs down on his sartorial splendor! Never! This is unconstitutional! This is injustice! This can even be a Kremlin plot! Citizens, arise! Revolt!

Today's successor to the man who had the first telephone and the first big red horseless carriage is the fellow with a color TV set . . . We wish somebody would break into the "Omnibus" program and make off with a load of whimsy . . . The supply is too great . . . The youth who killed his own parents, and his accomplice are in the hands of psychiatrists . . . It probably will be found that the little dears were driven to it by the fact their parents once spoke to them sharply, twice refused them larger rattles as babies and frequently refused to obey the kids' orders . . . We just heard about the fellow who repeatedly forgot the wife's instructions to get candy canes for Christmas and was charged with "the cane mutiny."

Robert S. Allen Reports

Operational H-Bomb To Be Exploded In Spring

Washington—The National Security Council has approved certain key plans for the next big test of nuclear weapons.

These experiments will be wholly military, the latest in a long series that has marked this country's steady development of newer and ever more powerful nuclear arms.

The forthcoming firings will have no relation to President Eisenhower's historic proposal for an international uranium pool for peaceful uses.

The following details can be reported regarding the next "shoot":

It will take place at Eniwetok, in the South Pacific, early next spring; sometime between March 15-April 15, depending on weather conditions.

The test will be conducted by a Joint Task Force, under direct control of the Defense Department and Atomic Energy Commission.

Various new weapons will be tried out, hydrogen as well as atomic. The number may exceed the four detonated at Eniwetok in November 1952; decision on this is still under consideration.

The principal experiment will revolve around an operational H-bomb. None has ever been exploded as yet; previous U.S. and Russian hydrogen tests involved devices and not actual weapons.

It is possible that two H-bombs will be tested; one by air drop and another from a tower. A special crew of Air Force veterans has been training for months for this fateful trial.

A limited number of foreign representatives may be permitted to witness the Eniwetok firings. The matter is still under discussion in the Pentagon and Atomic Commission. Final decision will be made by the Security Council.

To Be Promoted — President Eisenhower wants to give Atomic Chairman Lewis Strauss "another hat."

(That's Pentagonese for an official who functions in several roles.)

The President's plan is to make Strauss a full member of the National Security Council, top policy agency of the government. The President, himself, is chairman of this key body.

The proposed new "hat" for Strauss will require congressional action. The 1947 law creating the Security Council will have to be amended to include the former New York banker. The act limits Council membership to the President, Vice-President, Secretary of State, Secretary of Defense, and Mutual Security (foreign aid) Director.

President Eisenhower has "informally" added Treasury Secretary George Humphrey as a non-voting member. The Ohioan is held in highest esteem by the President, who consults him frequently on a wide range of policy problems. It's possible the President may also ask Congress to make Humphrey a full Council member.

The decision on Strauss was under consideration for some time. Still under discussion is the question of elevating the Atomic Commission to cabinet status.

The President has asked Budget Director Joseph Dodge to make a study of this.

In importance, magnitude and amount of its expenditures, the Atomic Commission is much bigger than a majority of the major government departments. With atomic development expanding increasingly in the civilian field, some White House advisors feel the time is approaching when AEC should be put on a cabinet footing and brought directly into its councils.

Radio-Actives—Prime Minister Winston Churchill is claiming authorship of three sentences in the President's famous uranium-for-peace speech before the UN. According to what the British leader has told foreign diplomats he persuaded the President to include the following: "We will never say that the people of Russia are an enemy with whom we have no desire ever to deal or mingle in friendly and fruitful relationship. We never have, we never will, propose that the Soviet Union surrender what is rightfully hers. The U.S. is instantly prepared to meet privately with such other countries as may be principally involved to seek an acceptable solution to the atomic armaments race." . . . Significant indication of the Kremlin's attitude towards an international pool to develop atomic resources for peaceful purposes is the Reds' persistent sniping at the project launched by the United Nations Education, Scientific and Cultural Organization (UNESCO) for a laboratory of that kind in Europe. Twelve European countries are participating in this joint effort and plans are in full swing to begin construction next year of a $28,000,0000 nuclear research center in Switzerland. The other nations taking part are Britain, France, West Germany, Belgium, Denmark, Greece, Italy, Holland, Norway, Sweden, and Yugoslavia.

George Sokolsky Says...

Why Not Let 22 Men Who Choose To Remain Communists Have Their Choice

Most Americans continue to be shocked that 22 American boys in Korea wish to remain in the Communist world. The number is a tiny fraction of the total number of American troops in Korea. We have been given no figures on how many American troops stationed in West Germany and Austria have gone Marxist. There must be some. Also, we have not been informed about the estimates of between 500 and 900 Americans who have disappeared into Communist territory in China or Siberia or North Korea. Have they become Communists? What has become of them?

(Incidentally, if your son is still missing in Korea, write your Senator or Representative, and if you please, let me have a copy of the letter.)

As regards the 22 young men who choose to remain in Communist territory, why not let them have their choice without further to-do? It is absurd to say that they do not know what they do. By any calculation, they are adults. They have gone through the maturing experience of war. They must have argued the question hundreds of times in their prison whether they prefer to be Communists or Americans.

Many psychological factors and practical considerations may enter into their decision. A soldier may have hated his father or his mother; he may have been a misfit in his home community. Such a boy might be tempted to change his world. Another might have left a girl behind who married someone else while he went awarring. Such a young man could romanticize himself into a Werther. Or he might have recaptured his love in a companionship with a Chinese or Korean or a Russian girl who comforted him exotically.

But it is also possible that some of these young men have been converted to the Marxist church, perhaps because they have no church of their own. We register our troops as Catholics, Protestants, Jews, etc., for purposes of burial if they are killed. But this every really competent chaplain has discovered: Large numbers of troops engage their first religious experience in war; that the challenge of imminent death or the pain of wounds, or the loneliness in a lost world, or the yearning for the comfort of a mother can only be requited by religion, not only by faith but almost by a personal, an intimate relationship to God that comes in prayer.

It is for this reason that the Chaplain's service is so important for the morale of our troops. There are uniformed simpletons among the brass in our armed services who do not understand what they themselves have not experienced, and they are now engaged in breaking down the Chaplain Corps. To this, I shall address myself more fully in the near future.

If we are to understand the 22, we need to know their religious background, for only then can we understand the character, the intellectual and spiritual nature of these young men. If they are altogether without a religious background, Marxist homology as contrasted with Christian theology will appeal to them.

Why limit this consideration to these 22 boys? Take such a case as George S. Wheeler. Here is a man of education and of position. In a letter to the Civil Service Commission, dated October 11, 1945, he wrote:

"I have been in the service of the U. S. Government for more than eleven years, since August 1934. During this period I have served in the National Labor Relations Board, the Department of Labor, the War Production Board, the Office of Economic Warfare and its successor, the Foreign Economic Administration. During the past eleven months I have served overseas in the uniform of the United States Army with the assimilated rank of Colonel. Officials of all of these agencies familiar with my record, including my Commanding General in Berlin, have expressed their readiness to support me against any accusations that may have been made reflecting on my character or loyalty. And I want to take this occasion personally to assert my absolute allegiance to the United States and its democratic form of government."

Despite this affirmative, George S. Wheeler is now somewhere behind the Iron Curtain, having renounced the United States. What has caused him to change his views? What attraction does Marxism have for such a man that the freedom of the United States does not have?

When Mae West was riding high in Hollywood, some genius conceived the idea of co-starring her with W. C. Fields. The two got along like cobra and mongoose. Miss West, for instance, favored one scenario where Fields would be bumped off early, leaving the rest of the picture for herself. Even Fields was speechless for a moment. "You can't kill the hero that early," he finally protested. "It's against all the laws of stagecraft. Even Shakespeare didn't dare dispose of Romeo until the last act." "Shakespeare," countered Miss West calmly, "had his way of doing things and I have mine." Another time, Miss West demanded first billing, declaring, "The lady's name always goes first." "Oh, yeah?" sneered Fields. "How about "Mister and Missus?"

Looking At Life —by Erich Brandeis

This story should be of interest and importance to all husbands. But it should also be a lesson to them.

Judge Joseph A. Wanick of Miami, Fla., has granted a divorce to a New Rochelle, N. Y., woman, but ruled out the principal evidence she introduced.

It seems that this lady's husband has the habit of talking in his sleep. It wasn't so much THAT he talked, but WHAT he said, that caused her great anxiety and humiliation, she testified.

In his dreams he became a gay Lothario and went through all kinds of wondrous adventures, adventures in which she never had a part. In other words, she practically accused her spouse of dream world unfaithfulness.

The judge, in handing down his decision, spake as follows:

"Even a husband has a right to dream, and he should not be deprived of his sleep by the obsessive fear that if his rapturous reveries become articulate, he may be forced to pay for them in a divorce court."

But the wife also alleged and proved that her husband, while awake, was a regular mummy.

"He was cold and quiet and refused to talk," she claimed. "He just stared at me and hardly said anything to me but an occasional hello."

That, the judge said, was unforgivable. And he granted the divorce.

Mrs. Higginbottom, of Dallas, Texas, also was in court and got off with a lecture and a promise to be good.

Mrs. Higginbottom is a duck. A neighbor of hers, or rather of her owner, had her arrested because, she claimed, the duck had sorely disturbed her peace by coming into her garden, nipping at the pansies and gobbling asparagus tips.

The duck's owners, Tommy and Linda Pisillo, aged respectively seven and eight, and their grandmother, Mrs. Nelle Connelly, acted as character witnesses for Mrs. Higginbottom.

They testified that it was really the accuser's cat who was responsible for their pet's depredations. Mrs. Higginbottom is a LADY, they averred, and the cat repeatedly insulted her.

So the duck chased the cat back into her own domain and, as ducks will do, occasionally stopped on the way for a little nibble of pansies or asparagus.

The mere fact that she confined herself to such delicacies was, in itself, proof that she IS a lady, the witnesses deponed.

The case was settled by Mrs. Higginbottom's promise—and she was joined in the promise by her owners—that she would hereafter stay in her own backyard.

As she left the court, attendants saw Mrs. Higginbottom shrug her shoulders and emit a derisive "Quack."

A chap objects to the column I wrote about bachelors.

"To me," he writes, "women are something like dogs, and no slur meant to women. I like them.

"But I like dogs, too. I have every dog in the neighborhood come to my shack. I feed them and pet them and make a fuss over them.

"But when they are through with me they go home to their masters. When they are sick or blue or ornery they stay home and their owner has the responsibilities while I have the fun."

"Ho ho; hee hee; huh huh," sings Red Buttons. "Strange things are happening . . . "

My New York

—by Mel Heimer

New York—Things one New Yorker thinks about:

This is a day and age when it comes close to being impossible to find a successful—in the eyes of the world—man who isn't impressed with himself. Acquaintances of mine have told me the exception is Jack Woodford, the veteran writer, who's turned out stuff for every magazine in sight and has just published another book, Writer's Cramp. Knowing that Woodford sweated out his beginning years, literarily, in New York—and knowing that he answers all his mail, even the abusive letters—I've been corresponding with him at his Richmond, Va., home lately, to see just what effect Manhattan had on him as a writer. Well, my acquaintances are right.

"I ain't arty," Woodford writes happily, "so I had no starving early days." He goes on to say, however, that when he began writing in New York "shortly after the Civil War," a woman editor named Tannenbaum—"who raelly wanted to get into the real estate business, and later did"—bought four or five of his short short stories each week. "But for Miss Tannenbaum," he adds philosophically, "I might either have starved to death, which would have been beneficial to American belles lettres, or perhaps through a decent amount of malnutrition become a combination of Hemingway, Mickey Spillane and James Branch Cabell."

"Mr. Woodford is, as I have been counseled, wholly without pretentious guff. In the words of Swifty O'Brien, you got to love a guy like that.

The most important question in my set these days, once we have disposed of the atom bomb, is whether you have to be fat to play a good trumpet. I suspect so. Two of the best locally (barring jazzmen, of course) are Karl Rissland, who blows First Call before each horse race at the New York tracks, and Joe Basile, who operates the brass band seen each Saturday on the television Big Top show—and both are, bluntly, fat.

Each of these giants of the industry has figured in entertaining episodes. It was Karl who, one day at Belmont, decided in a fit of whimsy to dispense with First Call and play a little of something like Beethoven's Fifth. Which he did—and, he insists sadly, nobody at all noticed the difference.

If you tune in on Big Top, you will see in M. Basile a gentleman who led his band at the opening of the first hockey season in Madison Square Garden 22 years ago. Joe walked out on the ice at the head of a 40-piece band, took a deep breath, waved his baton—and then fell flat on the seat of his pants, sliding halfway across the rink.

If you think you have troubles, consider the poor columnist. Out at the Sands hotel in Las Vegas they're soon to bury a 12-foot time capsule containing such deathless items as a pipe of Bing Crosby's and one of Tallulah Bankhead's books—and I've been invited to have my own favorite column buried along with those treasures.

I don't know whether to take the burial invitation as a compliment or oblique form of criticism, but meanwhile I am all at sea trying to pick out my favorite column. These are times that try mens' souls.

I point now to Jill Corey, 18, as the newest illustration of the warm fact that you still can come to New York to make your fortune. A few months ago Jill was making something like $6 a night singing in her home town of Avonmore, Pa.

Somebody heard a tape recording of hers, a recording outfit signed her, she got a cover on Life and a big feature in Woman's Home Companion, she became a regular on Garroway's TV show—and she's just made The First Christmas, which may be this Noel's big hit song. Horatio Alger may be dead, but the franchise is very much alive.

T-B Society Needs $500 To Meet Goal

Nearly 70 per cent of the letters mailed out by Monroe County Tuberculosis and Health Society have been answered—but the organization desperately needs the funds from those still outstanding.

That was the gist of a report issued yesterday by Carl T. Secor, president of the Tuberculosis Society board of directors, and Mrs. Estelle Fleming, executive secretary of the organization.

According to the two TB officials, funds received from the annual sale of Christmas Seals now total $8,050.43.

This amount has been contributed by 4,977 persons who have replied to the envelopes mailed to them before the Christmas season. There are still 2,129 unanswered letters, Mrs. Fleming said last night.

To help speed up completion of the Christmas Seal sale, Mrs. Fleming and office workers are now mailing out "second reminders" to the residents on their mailing list.

Society officials are now trying to "wrap up" the seal-sale no later than the end of this month.

A goal of $8,500 was set for the Christmas Seal sale this year.

One of the liabilities to the annual sale during the Christmas season is an unavoidable one, TB officials point out.

During the heavy shopping days immediately preceding Christmas, the officials note, residents are likely to put off mailing in their donations for purchase of the seasonal seals until after the heavy pressure of shopping is finished.

This might be fine, Mrs. Fleming said, but there is always the possibility that some residents—in this case 2,129 of them—may have either forgotten the seals entirely, lost them in the melee of Christmas wrappers, ribbons and presents or, in a few isolated cases, used the seals and neglected to mail their purchase money for them.

Whatever the reason for the present backlog may be, TB officials urged all residents to stop and take stock of the seals mailed to them before the Christmas season.

If no answer has been made to the letter in which the seals were mailed to them, residents are urged to forward their contributions to the Monroe County Tuberculosis and Health Society offices, 621 Sarah St., Stroudsburg.

"We need every cent of the money in our quota for the coming year," Secor said yesterday.

"The Monroe County Tuberculosis and Health Society attempts to carry on a relentless, year-long fight against active TB in the community," he continued. "To do this, it is absolutely necessary that we remain able to further our education program among children and adults and to point out the necessity for early diagnosis and treatment."

"Tuberculosis is still one of mankind's most murderous diseases," the board president went on. "The many steps which have been taken to lower the death rate due to TB and to provide rehabilitation for TB patients have been made possible only through an extensive and lengthy program of education."

"This coming year, as we have in the past, the Tuberculosis and Health Society will try to ferret out active TB cases within the limits of Monroe County. Last year, through the mobile X-ray examinations sponsored by this organization, two active TB cases were found within Monroe."

"Of the remaining thousands of persons who received X-rays, approximately 75 persons showed signs pointing toward TB or other lung diseases and were asked to take a second X-ray at a later date," Secor said.

"The important part of these discoveries, however, reaches far beyond the limitations of the number of persons involved," the TB Society director said.

"TB is one of Man's most highly-communicable diseases. One person with active TB can spread the TB bacillus to dozens of other persons indirectly."

"It becomes a matter of absolute necessity, therefore, that all active tuberculosis patients be found as early as possible," Secor continued. "Each month the germ remains active within the patients body may endanger the lives of dozens of other persons—both child and adult."

"We feel the work being done by the Tuberculosis Society and its co-workers in the Monroe County area is of prime importance in the fight against disease. To help finance the X-ray drive each year and the education program carried out by this organization, the Society appeals to local men and women during the "season of giving" for support of its aims and ideals."

"This coming year, the Tuberculosis Society hopes to continue its struggle against TB and its effects on patients now recovering from the disease," Secor concluded. "It is of the greatest importance, therefore, that each of the society's 7,106 letters receive an answer."

THERE'S MUSIC IN THE AIR—Learning latest techniques in dramatic staging of choral music for television, singing teachers and choirmasters the country over make a pilgrimage to Delaware Water Gap. In the historic Castle Inn, the teachers become students of the Fred Waring Choral Workshop during vacation sessions. Waring splits his vacation time between preparations for his own television program and instruction sessions at the local workshop. Here he is shown, back to camera, arms outspread as he emphasizes the effect he wishes students to give. Among the students is Mrs. Elsie Low, 877 Scott St., Stroudsburg. During Summer, 1954, when the workshops are resumed, indications are that the enrollment will exceed present records. Sessions are devoted to TV presentation as well as enunciation and good programming. For the TV sessions an estimated $35,000 worth of electronics equipment, including cameras and monitor sets, is kept on hand to provide an authentic studio atmosphere during study and demonstrations. About 4,500 persons have attended the school so far. Six separate classes are conducted. Each is generally enrolled to capacity long before Summer begins. Total cost to the student is $75, including room, board and about $15 worth of sheet music which the student takes home with him.

Fine Asked To Review Water Plan

Hazleton—The Northeast Pennsylvania Industrial Development Commission yesterday asked Gov. John S. Fine to thoroughly review the three-state proposal to divide waters of the Delaware River.

Victor C. Diehm, commission president, declared in a letter to the Governor, that "The industrial development of both Northeastern Pennsylvania and the Delaware Valley-Philadelphia area are vitally dependent on the proper and objective control of the great Delaware River watershed."

Under the proposed agreement which must be ratified by the Pennsylvania General Assembly by July 1, 1955, New York and New Jersey would be able to heavily increase withdrawals from the Delaware River to support their already overtaxed supply.

The NPIDC president pointed out that since many prominent civic leaders and state industrial groups dispute the benefits, if any, to Pennsylvania, "our state should go slow in legislatively approaching this compromise proposal."

Diehm Sees Eisenhower Plan Helping Distressed Areas

Scranton, (AP)—The president of the Northeast Pennsylvania Industrial Development Commission said yesterday President Eisenhower's plan for aiding distressed areas could mean thousands of jobs in this state if properly followed through by government agencies.

Victor C. Diehm of Hazleton, in a statement issued after the Presidential order, said his organization would attempt to serve as a "watchdog" to see if the Eisenhower plan is carried out fully by federal agencies.

Diehm issued a statement which said in part:

"So that there will be no 'buck passing' by the federal agencies directed to act, our commission will arrange through our congressmen a meeting in Washington soon after Congress reconvenes next week with representatives of the Defense Department, the Atomic Energy Commission and the General Services Administration.

"At that meeting we will point out complete decade-long run arounds' that the federal government has given our distressed areas while piously making all types of meaningless pronouncements. We will press officials for information about when our region can expect evidence of the executive orders' good faith in the form of set asides and other assistance."

Diehm said further that his commission would make a special report to the President three months from the Washington meeting date to relate what benefits, if any, materialized under the decree.

He said the region has been the "silly objective of at least a score of Presidential and departmental edicts proclaiming all types of assistance which never materialized."

The association, which represents the Scranton, Wilkes-Barre-Hazleton and Pottsville areas, has some 36,000 unemployed. Diehm said the congressmen he would consult were Joseph L. Carrigg, Edward Bonin, Ivor Fenton and Francis E. Walter, all Republicans except Democrat Walters.

U.S. Signs Pact With Pakistan

Karachi, Pakistan (AP) — The United States signed an aid pact with Pakistan Monday — but it's not the proposed military program which has sparked bitter protests from India. Instead it provides this nation with up to 22 million dollars worth of U. S. technical assistance.

The new agreement expands an American-Pakistani development program which in the past three years has furnished this land with $44,500,000 in technical aid.

The proposed military aid program which has brought bitter protests from India and indignant queries from Soviet Russia, is only in the preliminary stage. It would help build up Pakistan's armed forces.

PICTURE PORTRAIT of a YEAR--1953

TWO DECADES of Democratic administration ended when Harry Truman shook hands with his successor, President Dwight D. Eisenhower, and the Republicans got their chance to try running the government. Witness to the inauguration ceremony was the last previous GOP President, Herbert Hoover, (left). Vice President Nixon is at right. The GOP started off with nearly everybody liking Ike, but ran into the usual snags.

EVEN AS they carried Soviet Premier Josef Stalin to his tomb, his pallbearers were plotting to eliminate each other. First to fall in the struggle for power was Lavrentri Beria (right, foreground), the police boss ousted by Premier Georgi Malenkov (left, foreground). The world watched anxiously for other possible repercussions.

BURDEN OF EMPIRE was thrust squarely upon the shoulders of a charming young woman when Britain's crown was placed on the head of Queen Elizabeth in London.

ALLEGED RED infiltration into the former Democratic administration became a front page issue as various Congressional committees probed Communist influence in U. S. Representatives Harold Velde (left) and Kit Clardy watch former President Truman reply to accusations about Reds on government payrolls when he held office.

SMOLDERING UNREST in Soviet-held East Berlin and East Germany burst into open flame in June when the German people, armed only with sticks and stones, rioted for several days against their Red overlords despite the tanks and troops dispatched to suppress them.

HOT WAR in Korea finally ended after months of negotiations, giving way to a fitful armistice that soon turned into a war of words over the prisoner exchange (above).

MOST SHOCKING CRIME of the year was kidnaping of 6-year-old Bobby Greenlease in Kansas City. His abductors, Carl Hall and Bonnie Heady, coldbloodedly killed their victim and then collected $600,000 ransom. Captured, they were tried and sentenced to almost summary execution in the gas chamber.

BATTERED by raging seas, long sections of Holland's famed dikes gave way and let the sea inundate vast areas of the lowlands. Undaunted, the Dutch buried their dead, rebuilt the dikes, pumped out the flood waters and had their country well cleaned up by year's end.

BARELY started on its huge task of taking over direction of nation, the Eisenhower administration suffered a staggering blow when "Mr. Republican," Ohio's Senator Robert A. Taft, succumbed to an incurable illness. Even in his last weeks, he kept on job.

BIG THREE of the western democracies—French Premier Joseph Laniel, U. S. President Eisenhower and British Prime Minister Winston Churchill—met in Bermuda to discuss strategy to unify the West and to head off possible Russian aggression.

STRIKING heavily populated areas, tornadoes took more than their usual toll. Worst hit cities were Waco, Tex.; Flint, Mich.; Worcester, Mass.; Cleveland, and Vicksburg, Miss.

FOR BETRAYING their country by stealing its atomic secrets and delivering them to the Communists, Julius and Ethel Rosenberg paid with their lives after a headline-making federal court trial in New York that revealed spy operations.

SPECTRE of the dust bowl of the '30s rose to haunt farmers and cattlemen in great areas of the nation as lack of rain dried their fields and pastures and threatened them with ruin.

James Knowles To Retire From PP&L

Forty-seven years service in the utility field comes to an end tomorrow with the retirement of James C. Knowles, vice president of Pennsylvania Power & Light Company's Lehigh division. He will be succeeded by Harry M. Schelden, Lehigh division manager, who will assume the vice presidency, according to an announcement by Ralph C. Swartz, the utility's commercial vice president.

Mr. Knowles, who retires in line with the utility company's retirement program, is a native of Wisconsin. He attended Glenbulah, Plymouth and Fond du Lac elementary schools and in 1907 was graduated from Fond du Lac High School. During the summer of 1906 he was employed as a helper with the Eastern Wisconsin Light Co., and the next year as an operator in the electric plant at Chilton, Wisconsin.

From 1908 to 1912, he served as a wireman, meter tester and troubleman for Eastern Wisconsin Light and then electrician for an electrical contracting firm.

In 1912, Knowles entered Purdue University where he was a member of Sigma Pi fraternity and from which he was graduated with a B. S. degree in electrical engineering. He then served two years as mechanical supervisor with Rockford Gas Co., Illinois and in 1918 he entered the armed forces, graduating from the U. S. Naval Academy as an ensign.

Following World War I, Knowles spent several years with Suburban Gas & Electric Co., Chester, Pa. and with Luzerne County Gas & Electric Co., Kingston, Pa., joining PP&L as superintendent of its Williamsport division in 1924. Three years later, he became manager of the Williamsport district.

Knowles left PP&L in 1928 as electrical engineer for the Monongahela and West Penn Public Service Co., rejoining PP&L in 1932 as manager of its Susquehanna division. In 1939, he was named manager of the Bethlehem division and following the merger of the Allentown and Bethlehem divisions was advanced to vice president of the newly-formed Lehigh division.

Knowles is a member of the Chamber of Commerce in Bethlehem, Allentown, Pocono Mountains and Hellertown. He also belongs to the American Legion, Rotary Club and has taken a leading role in civic activities in the Bethlehem-Allentown region.

Mr. Schelden began his career with PP&L in 1921. A native of Allentown, he was educated in that city's elementary and high schools and later attended Lehigh University where he studied mining engineering. He was employed in defense work with Bethlehem Steel Co. during the summer months of his college career.

During World War I, he served two years with the armed forces. After his discharge in 1919, Schelden was employed in the accounting department of American Steel & Wire Co. in Allentown, a position he held until he joined PP&L as traveling auditor in 1921.

Five years later he was named general auditor of Harrisburg Light & Power Co., then a subsidiary of PP&L. When that company became the Harrisburg division of the PP &L system in 1928, Schelden was named division auditor. On Feb. 15, 1946, he was raised to manager of the Harrisburg district. He was transferred to the company's general office in Allentown in 1952 and promoted to manager of field practices section.

An active civic and community leader, Schelden also is a member of the American Legion, Kiwanis Club and various Masonic organizations.

MRS. VERA LARSON, of Hasbrouck Heights, N. J., and her son, Graham, 7, show their pride as they hear that dad, Capt. Dunward J. Larson, skipper of the U. S. Navy storeship Blue Jacket, led the rescue of 43 crew members of the Swedish freighter Oklahoma, 360 miles off Argentia, Nfld. The Oklahoma snapped in two during a violent storm.

Dr. Bortree Chairman Of Association

Newfoundland — Dr. Alfred L. Bortree, head of the department of veterinary science at the Pennsylvania State University, has been elected chairman of the division of veterinary science of the Association of Land Grant Colleges and Universities, it has been learned here.

Dr. Bortree is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred D. Bortree, Sterling. He was among the officers named at the closing session of the annual meeting of the association in Columbus, Ohio, recently.

A graduate of the Greene-Dreher-Sterling High School, Dr. Bortree completed work for a bachelor's degree at Penn State and received his masters and doctorate at Michigan State College. He also taught at the latter institution before returning to Penn State as an instructor in 1948.

Rites Conducted For Frank Butz

Funeral services for Frank Butz, Bushkill, were held at 1:30 p.m. yesterday at Lanterman funeral home.

Rev. Frank H. Blatt officiated. Interment was made in Sand Hill Cemetery, Bushkill.

Pallbearers were Lewis Lee, Lewis Hoffecker, Thomas Walters, Russell Scheller, Wells Van Campen and Phillip Angle.

Treasury Balance

Washington (AP)—The position of the Treasury Dec. 24: Cash balance $5,038,883,361.41. Budget receipts $25,677,763,485.02. Budget expenditures $33,759,962,359.86. Budget deficit $8,082,198,874.84. Total debt x$274,857,813,974.71.

Death Toll Fixed At 186 In Crash

Vienna, Austria (AP)—The Czechoslovak government announced that there were 186 casualties in the nation's Christmas railway disaster—103 dead and 83 seriously injured.

The figures were broadcast by Prague radio, which said the accident near the town of Sakvice in Moravia was caused by the gross negligence of several railway officials, now under arrest.

The Prague-Bratislava express crashed into another passenger train early Christmas morning.

In the telephone business, wonders never cease

From the very invention of the telephone itself to the latest development of today, each generation has witnessed new and better methods of communication that have been little short of miracles. For example, it used to require from 10 minutes to half an hour or more to complete a call across the country. Now you make most Long Distance calls, even from coast to coast, in a matter of seconds.

What brought about this improvement in your telephone service? Never-ending research by Bell men and women that produced hundreds of new developments, each of which had to qualify for a yes to these two test questions:

1. Would it improve the quality of telephone service?
2. Would it aid in keeping costs under control?

We'll never stop asking these two questions because we'll never stop looking for still better ways to make your telephone more useful and more efficient.

One of the ways we've found to keep costs under control is in the metal used to tip the springs in our relay switches. Once we used drops of a rare and expensive metal called palladium. Now we simply use common nickel coated with a microscopic film of that precious metal. And because almost one billion of these springs are needed every year, the new method saves many dollars.

Conversion To Natural Gas Affects Nearly 3,000 Subscribers

Region One Of Few To Obtain Fuel

About 3,000 subscribers of Citizens Gas Co. in this area are affected by the current conversion to straight natural gas, marking one of the few regions in Eastern United States to undergo the change.

Work was started Friday, Dec. 4, in Smithfield Township to connect the gas company's Main St., Stroudsburg plant with a cross-country pipeline.

Hookup was made with the 140-mile pipeline from Coatesville, Pa., to Port Jervis, N. Y., owned by Columbia Gas System, which taps in to a line directly from the Texas natural gas fields.

Workers connected the local six-inch main with the 14-inch pipe and began the movement west on Brown St., under the DL & W railroad tracks and Brodheads Creek, entering the plant Thursday, Dec. 17.

Eventually Columbia Gas System expects to construct a $40,000 plant in Smithfield Township on the former Slater-Canfield property, one company official reported.

Sunday night J. Paul Hart, manager of Citizens Gas Co., a subsidiary of Penn Fuel Co. turned the valve allowing natural gas to enter local pipelines and the flow went directly to the Main St. plant. Beginning Monday subscribers in East Stroudsburg were visited by technicians who converted their appliances for reception of natural gas.

Introduction of natural gas here marked five years of negotiations which resulted in an order of the Federal Power Commission directing Columbia Gas System to supply this region.

The order calls for delivery of 428,000 cubic feet of gas daily to Citizens Co.

The conversion ends the five-year service of propane air-type gas and, according to Hart, provides subscribers with a better gas at greatly reduced prices. The manager revealed earlier that up to 40 per cent savings will be realized by some users.

The advent of natural gas also is expected to aid industrial promotion for this section and assist industries already in operation.

Our shop will be closed from Dec. 18 to Jan. 4. Reliable Auto Radiator Co.—Adv.

Incinerator Handy Home Appliance

One of the newest appliances available utilizing natural gas is the home incinerator which will cleanly and quickly dispose of all combustible household refuse. This appliance is relatively small, and fits inconspicuously in kitchen or cellar, wherever it can be conveniently connected to a chimney.

The gas incinerator will burn completely just about everything thrown away in the average household, with the obvious exception of tin cans and bottles. Even wet garbage will dry in the gas incinerator, and burn down to a fine white ash which gardeners have found makes excellent fertilizer.

Gas Supply Reaches Far Into Future

The natural gas supply on which the Stroudsburgs now depend reaches into the dim and distant future, according to estimates continually being extended further by the American Gas Association's committee on Natural gas reserves.

At no time since 1925 has consumption exceeded discoveries of new reserves—this in spite of the phenomenal expansion in uses of natural gas and extension of the areas served. In 1919, the entire proved natural gas reserves were estimated at fifteen trillion cubic feet.

At the end of 1951 the American Gas Association committee, composed of leading geologists and natural gas industry executives, estimated the proved recoverable reserves of natural gas at more than 193.8 trillion cubic feet. Consumption that year was 8 trillion cubic feet, and the gain in proved reserves amounted to 8.2 trillion cubic feet. In the past ten years alone, natural gas reserves have gained nearly 100 trillion cubic feet over consumption.

First Gas Range

Gas home cooking was advanced appreciably in 1879 by the introduction of a "modern gas range" with a raised burner top, a built-in oven, and a removable drip pan. This sturdy, cast iron model was built to the floor without legs.

Natural Gas Simplifies Home Heating

If any one use can be said to be responsible for the rapid growth of the natural gas industry, it is its use for house heating. The reasons are many, but the most important is that natural gas will give a home owner a comfortable house through the coldest months at a reasonable cost and with a minimum of worries.

Natural gas is considered Nature's wonder fuel. It has a high heat content for each cubic foot ,the normal unit by which natural gas is sold. This is priced low and natural gas for househeating costs less per unit as consumption increases.

Another economical part of heating homes with natural gas is the equipment for heating costs less than many other types of house heating. There are no extras to buy, since the fuel comes into the furnace by a pipe, and no space is required for storage, or for handling ashes or other residue.

Many homeowners find it convenient to pay for supplies of gas as it is used. Natural gas is metered, of course, and paid for after the amount used has actually worked at heating a home. Because it comes in the form of gas, combustion is complete, and there is very little waste.

Automatic controls take over all the cares of maintaining even, steady heat throughout the house. Once set for the warmth wanted for comfort, the home owner can forget his natural gas-fired furnace for it will take care of itself.

Cleanliness is a side of natural gas house heating many housewives find most pleasing. Clean natural gas burns completely, leaving no soot or other deposits to soil curtains, draperies or home interiors.

There is a natural gas fired furnace for almost every conceivable heating need. Gas fired furnaces will provide warm or forced warm air, hot water or steam heat from a basement furnace. It can be coupled to registers, radiators or radiant panel heaters.

In addition, there is natural gas-fired heating equipment which can be put in utility rooms, in walls, under the floor or in attics. No matter what the requirements of a home are, there is natural gas heating equipment to fit.

Stroudsburgs' First Gas Company Founded In 1875 By Buck, Haynes

Gas has been a product in homes in the Stroudsburgs since 1875 when the first plant was founded on Sarah St., Stroudsburg.

W. B. Buck, president, and J. Gardner Haynes, secretary, formed the first company, Stroudsburg Gas and Light Co. They acquired the old Presbyterian Church on Sarah St. and began in the Fall to lay pipelines in Stroudsburg, providing illuminating gas.

W. O. Florey was the first superintendent, holding that post until 1876 when a new board of directors was elected and David Keller became president. J. G. Keller succeeded Florey as superintendent and Feb. 16, 1876 he purchased the company and began a series of extensive improvements bringing the plant up to date.

Operated by Keller until 1898, the plant operations then shifted to Second and Main Sts., current location where H. Hartpence of Philadelphia set up the gas company and called it Citizens Gas Co.

Five years later, about 1903, Hartpence sold his interests to a syndicate headed by Harry E. Sweeney. Working with Sweeney was A. A. Holbrook, now associated with Monroe County Water Supply Co.

About 25 years ago the plant was sold to W. B. Foshay Co. and later was taken over by People's Light and Power Co. Subsequent owners were Central Public Utility Co. and Webster Engineering Co.

Present owners, Penn Fuel Co. of Oxford, Pa. purchased the interests in 1946 and two years later converted the system from manufactured gas to propane air-type.

J. Paul Hart, manager came here in November, 1949 from Renovo where he operated a company for the Penn Fuel concern.

Pipelines Total 342,500 Miles

Natural gas pipelines, including gathering, transmission and distribution lines in the United States today total more than 342,500 miles. This mileage is increasing at a rate of more than 5,000 miles a year. Manufactured and mixed gas transmission and distribution systems bring this total up to more than 415,000 miles, tconsiderably greater than either the main-line railroad or the oil pipeline mileage in the United States.

About 45 per cent of Rhode Island's labor force is employed in manufacturing compared with 24 per cent for the United States as a whole.

Gas Helps Plants

Natural gas is becoming one of the major sources for aid in increasing plant growth. Certain forms of nitrogen have proved over the years to be one of the finest of fertilizers. Today organizations such as the Shell Chemical Corporation have erected ammonia plants devoted entirely to manufacturing anhydrous ammonia and ammonium sulphate from natural gas and atmospheric nitrogen. These two ammonium salts contain high percentages of nitrogen and are deemed excellent fertilizers.

Keep a small damp sponge in your silver polish jar. It will keeep the polish moist and you can quickly remove tarnish from silver flatware with it when you are doing the dishes.

Plumbers and appliance dealers interested in the new natural gas facilities being installed locally, met recently at Citizen's Gas Co. Discussion was held by Citizen's Gas Co. officials J. Paul Hart, local manager (front left) and Sales Manager C. R. Reese, (second from right end), on specifications for the installation of gas homeheating and other gas appliances.

Crews Convert Gas Appliances To New Fuel

Conversion to natural gas in homes and industrial plants of East Stroudsburg will be finished Saturday, J. Paul Hart, manager of Citizens Gas Co. reported last night. Monday morning the switch will be made in Stroudsburg.

Hart said the crew of experts brought here by his parent firm to convert from propane air-type to the straight natural gas has performed the work to date with proficiency, and subscribers are cooperating fully while the conversion is taking place.

Sunday night subscribers in Stroudsburg will find their gas supply cut off as workers prepare for the Monday morning conversion.

In East Stroudsburg crews started Monday to convert industrial, commercial, house heating and refrigeration, and today begin the switch on water heaters and ranges.

Important Dates

Although as early as 1739, pioneers were cooking eggs and meat over gas jets, the first apparatus specifically designed for gas cooking was produced by an Englishman named James Sharp in 1832. Twenty-five years later, only about 100 families in America were using gas ranges for cooking.

Clothes Dryer Considered Important Addition To Home

During the war years when many manufacturers had no products to sell, their advertising told stories about the wonders that would come in the future. Of all the pipe dreams made public in those days, one has emerged to catch the imagination of homemakers as few others have ever done . . the automatic clothes dryer.

Eight years ago, there were hardly any automatic clothes dryers in use in the entire country. Most women then relied on a line, outside when the weather was good, more often in the attic or cellar when it rained or stormed on washday. Today, almost two million automatic clothes dryers are in use, and the dryer is considered in many homes as important as the automatic washer.

Far from being a mechanical substitute for line drying, in most cases, the automatic dryer is actually an improvement, industry sources claim. Extensive tests prove the dryer does a better job on all types of knit clothing, fluffing up fibers so they come from the dryer in a closer-to-new condition than from line drying, they say.

Colors are preserved better in clothes dryed in an automatic clothes dryer since there is no action of the sun to fade and bleach colors. Towels and shag rugs are a particular delight from the automatic clothes dryer, since they come out much fluffier and softer than from line drying.

Even large flat work such as sheets come out better, since there are creases hung into the clothing from clothes pins, trade circles point out. There is never any soiling from wind-blown dirt, straying pets or romping children. Mothers with new babies have particularly welcomed the automatic clothes dryer.

Origin Of Natural Gas, Oil Debatable

The origin of natural gas and oil is not exactly known but has been much debated by geologists and chemists.

The theory most generally accepted is that they have been formed by a chemical action in the earth upon marine organisms buried in the sands ages ago, along what was then the seashore. Heat and the pressure of the overlying earth have contributed largely to the result.

As the ages succeeded each other, these sands settled very slowly and were over burdened with other deposits and sediments hundreds of feet deep. As this overburden increased, the pressure and heat solidified some of the sand and other materials into rock formation.

The Zulus of South Africa believe that every man always is accompanied by an ancestral spirit in the form of a serpent which moves underground. If the serpent dies the man dies and then the serpent comes to life again.

Gas First Discovered Back in 1609

The name "gas" had its origin back in 1609 as the result of an experiment to make gold out of coal.

John Baptist Von Helmont was a philosopher, druggist, jack-of-all sciences and a would-be physician. One day in his laboratory he dropped a few lumps of coal in a kettle which was being heated over a fire. When the lit was placed on the kettle the heat caused gas to form and the gas was ignited as it poured from the spout. The surprised Von Helmont had discovered not gold, but something of far greater potential value to mankind.

He named the invisible product "geist" which meant "ghost or spirit," but it was soon shortened to "gas."

In 1792 a London scientist, William Murdock, stumbled on the same discovery—that heated coal gave off a gas. He was the first to use gas for lighting, piping it from his shop to the house. The people of London thought he was a little balmy but eventually their entire city was illuminated by his discovery.

When the Sudan held an election recently it required five weeks.

Gas Range A Modern Invention

In 1832 an Englishman named James Sharp manufactured the first gas range although cooking over gas rings or individual gas jet flames had been practiced for some years. Gas was not utilized for cooking to any great extent until about 1860. At the Centennial Exposition in Philadelphia in 1873, gas ranges were regarded as an innovation. Today it is estimated that more than 33,000,000 families use gas for cooking and other residential uses.

Ordinary liquid laundry bleach will often remove a stubborn stain from a glass cooking utensil. Add enough water to the bleach to make the solution mild, then soak the utensil in it.

Silicones Help Keep Cellars Dry

By David G. Bareuther
AP Real Estate Editor

If basements ever are to be made really livable—suitable for comfortable bedrooms, for instance—they will have to be successfully waterproofed and dampproofed.

Some architects think that even in parts of the South, where cellars are still comparatively rare, livable basements are destined to become the biggest new trend in house architecture. These men argue that houses will get bigger downward, instead of upward, because of economy. It costs just about one-tenth as much to create space, fully finished, under a house as it costs to build an equal amount of space above ground.

But all seepage problems will have to be conquered and the condensation of warm summer air striking cooler basement walls and floors will have to be prevented to give us maximum use out of our basements.

These problems have been tackled by various industries. Dehumidifiers have been invented to take the moisture out of basement air. Floor coverings and wall coverings have been developed to line basements against direct contact with moist summer air. Many so-called waterproofing paints have been offered on claims that they are tight enough to keep water from soaking through masonry walls.

The biggest problem has been to seal a basement on the inside strongly enough to stop the pressure of water from the outside. For a long time, this was thought to be virtually impossible. Now many waterproofers say it can be done. Harrison Todd of Sacramento, Calif., for one, has had outstanding successes in doing this, even against high water pressure.

A modern chemical discovery making use of silicones to penetrate pores in masonry and seal it against the passage of moisture, has been one of the most interesting developments in this direction. Silicones, which are extremely minute in size, are derived from silicon, a natural element. They have played important roles in the manufacture of lubricants and steel.

Recently a cement paint in powder form, soluble in water, comprising a base of powder containing silicones, activated metallic compounds and very finely ground aggregates, was developed by the Siliphane Corp. of America. The manufacturers say that when this compound is applied to a thoroughly wet concrete wall, the silicones do not merely remain on the surface, but have a tendency to migrate, following the moisture into the wall.

According to laboratory tests and Dr. F. O. Anderegg, an authority on masonry construction, the silicones expand, become insoluble and nonreversible. The result is an egg-shell-like seal.

Silicones also can be used as curers in new watertight concrete. They slow down the drying process, penetrating as deeply as the moisture exists and thus waterproof the finished wall or floor.

To waterproof an existing basement, sources of incoming water must be eliminated. Holes or cracks have to be filled—all spaces closed up. The surface of the concrete or masonry to be waterproofed must be free of dirt, dust, soot, grease and other paint coatings, except Portland cement paint. Oil base paints must be removed because they may loosen and peel in the future and oil or wax prevents silicones from entering pores and migrating.

A wall should be brushed down with a wire brush to remove loose particles. Then it must be thoroughly saturated with water. A fine spray from a garden hose will do this. The wetter the wall, the deeper the silicones can penetrate.

A first coat of this compound (known as Silitex SF) is then applied with a scrub brush. This type of brush is recommended because rough - textured masonry soon wears down a paint brush and paint brushes are more expensive. After the first coat has dried for four to 10 hours, a second coat can be applied with a paint brush.

Although this compound is available in pastel shades of rose, buff, gray, and green, as well as white, it can be painted over with any type and color of paint. The manufacturers say that a silicone coating even makes it practicable to wallpaper a cellar wall.

The cost of waterproofing a cellar with an area of 800 square feet—aside from repair materials—is estimated at about $40. The more porous the material, however, the more paint is needed, because porous materials, such as concrete or cinder blocks allow the silicones to penetrate deeper in their waterchasing and waterproofing processes.

Care Of Cut Glass

Scrub cut glass pieces with a small brush and warm soapy water containing a few drops of ammonia. For deeply cut patterns roll cotton on the end of a toothpick, coat it with soap, and wipe out the "cuts". Rinse and wipe dry with a soft cloth.

The Century solves the closet problem by having those of the wardrobe type in the bedrooms, others in the entrances, including a large closet for storage of card tables, sewing machine and other household equipment.

Traffic in the Century is confined to the hall which makes it unnecessary to reach one room through another. Privacy is assured for every single room.

There is a full basement, a large dining space in the kitchen and three bedrooms. Other features included in this house are the wood-burning fireplace, picture window and recessed tub.

Plans call for an exterior finish of wide siding. The roof is intended to be of asphalt shingles.

Overall dimensions are 36 feet by 36 feet. Total floor area equals 1173 square feet, while the complete cubage of the Century amounts to 22,874 cubic feet.

For further information about THE CENTURY, write the Small House Planning Bureau, St. Cloud, Minn. In Canada, the Small House Planning Bureau of Canada, Box 1193, St. John's, New Brunswick

Decorative Schemes Varied For Every Clothes Closet

Decorative schemes for clothes closets are as varied as for rooms.

If paper or fabric is used to line the closets, be sure it is of a washable type. If ordinary wallpaper is used protect it with clear lacquer for easy cleaning. Quilted fabrics are popular for linen and clothes closets. They are available in easy cleaned fabrics with shelf edgings to match.

The decorative scheme should be carried out in hangers, garment bags, boxes, hat stands, and all accessories used in the closet. Accessories include transport plastic garment bags that are dustproof and permit their contents to be found without loss of time. Glass shelves above the hangers also show at a glance what is up there. All such materials add sparkle and charm to a closet.

Colors Give Character To Kitchen

An attractive kitchen-dinette combines gleaming white enameled walls, ceiling, woodwork and appliances with natural wood cabinets, a rose-red brick section surrounding the stove, and a copper stovehood.

The linoleum floor covering simulates random-width flooring while the round table, with a built-in "Lazy Susan," is surrounded by Windsor chairs.

The furniture is finished with a walnut stain that is slightly deeper in tone than the floor covering. Counter tops are a rich green and copper utensils serve as useful decoration.

Let Furniture Support Pictures

Miss Mary McKee, 4-H specialist in charge of room improvement at the University of Illinois college of agriculture, says she believes pictures should be "supported" by furniture.

When they seem to hang in mid-air, they add little to the beauty of a room, she says. Move the picture to another wall, she advises, or put furniture beneath it.

Hang a picture low enough to be seen easily and form a unit with furniture below. It should look as if it really belonged with the furniture.

Clean Crevices Before Painting

When preparing the exterior of a structure for painting, it is important to clean out crevices and cracks around windows, door frames and chimneys with a knife, followed by a stiff whisk broom. Next, a coat of exterior primer should be applied. When the primer is dry, cracks should be packed with caulking compound. This should be allowed to set 48 hours before painting.

How To Stress Beauty Of Rug

If you have a prized Oriental in which red tones predominate, gray-green painted walls and trim will bring out the beauty of it. It is also well to use plain draperies at the windows, as a patterned fabric is likely to detract from the design of your floor covering.

Test For Brass

The easiest way to tell the differences between hardware that is solid brass and iron or steel that is just brass-plated is with the magnet. If the magnet sticks, the article is not solid brass.

Little Steel In Homes

Only two per cent of the nation's total production of steel is used in the construction and equipment of homes, the National Association of Home Builders reports.

How To Avoid Damage From Frozen Pipes

Timely suggestions on how to prevent damage from the freezing of plumbing pipes are offered by the Plumbing and Heating Industries Bureau.

The first step in Operation Antifreeze, says the bureau, is to shut off the valve of any outside water faucet—the connection of the garden hose, for example. The faucet itself should be turned on before the valve is actually shut off.

This drains the length of pipe between the valve and the faucet, which would otherwise be an ideal spot for a freeze-up. Similarly, the outlet in the garage should be drained and shut off, unless the garage is heated and the piping to it well insulated with from two and one-half to three inches of good pipe covering.

Freezing is most likely to occur in pipes which run along an outside wall. This hazard should be corrected by relocation of the pipes if possible.

If this is impractical, thorough insulation with from two and one-half to three inches of good pipe covering is the only safeguard.

Should any of the piping freeze, the work of thawing it should not be entrusted to a handyman. It should be done under the supervision of an experienced master plumber. Blow torches or other methods involving open flames are extremely dangerous. They not only involve fire hazards but also permit the generation of high pressures which may cause explosions.

Remove Spots From Floors

Spots usually can be removed from an oak floor by rubbing with a cloth soaked in naptha or mineral spirits. An alternative is to use a water-dampened cloth and mild soap. Especially stubborn spots which do not respond to either treatment generally will disappear when rubbed with steel wool.

Keep It Clean

When applying composition ceiling tile or wallboard, mix some talcum powder with the nails. This will keep your hands dry and prevent fingerprints and smudges on the clean surface of the material.

Extinguishers For Every Home

The home should have at least one good extinguisher, and preferably one on each floor. There should be one in the basement near the stairs; in the kitchen near the door; and one in the second floor hallway near the stairs. There should also be an extinguisher in the garage.

There are various types of reliable hand extinguishers, including the larger model which is turned upside down to shoot a liquid at the flame, another which has a glass bulb to be thrown at the base of the blaze; and a third known as a pump type.

Draperies Hide Awkward Offsets

Draperies have other uses besides their conventional use at windows. Awkward or ugly offsets in the wall can be minimized by building shelves from floor to ceiling and across that end of the room; and then concealing the shelves with full-length draperies to match those at the windows. These storage curtains should not be more than a yard wide, so that the shelves are readily accessible.

Home Buyers Under 40 Are Considered On Safe Side

Families should make their plans early and start buying a home before they reach the age of 40, says Conrad P. Harness, public relations director of the National Association of Home Builders.

In an interview on the national radio show, "Housing Headlines" Harness pointed out that those who buy before the age of 40 will have their homes free and clear of debt by the time they reach the retirement age of 65. Then, he asserted, they will find it easier to stretch their social security benefits, which amount to a present national average of $43 a person, or $69 per couple.

Anybody who had to pay rent or meet a mortgage on this annuity would have a tough time, the NAHB official continued. But those who have an assured place in which to live in retirement can stretch that social security income much farther.

Mr. Harness added that much younger families are purchasing homes today, the average age being 31. This, he attributed partly to World War II, which raised marriage rates, to the increased prosperity of the average worker and the home loan provisions of the GI Bill.

Make Flats For Sowing Seed

Flats for early spring seed sowing may be put together by a handy man on a winter day. Three inches is the standard depth, and a box 18 inches long and nine inches wide is easy to carry even when it is filled with heavy soil. Cracks should be left between the bottom boards for drainage but any space wider than a crack will permit the soil to leak through.

Extra Storage Space

If your garage is small and you need more storage space, a cabinet built high enough to allow the hood of your automobile to drive under it may solve your problem. It is handy for dead storage, since it cannot be opened conveniently when the car is in the garage.

Nine ESSTC Wrestlers Compete In Wilkes College Tourney

McConnell, Sorensen In Consolation

Wilkes Barre — Nine East Stroudsburg State Teachers College men dropped out of the semi-finals in the Wilkes College Wrestling Tournament here yesterday afternoon but two cracked the consolation list despite earlier losses.

In the tests which began Monday, the charges of George Ockerhausen faced stiff opposition as wrestlers from major colleges, military camps and YMCA's towed the line.

Bill Morgan, East Stroudsburg was pinned in two minutes, 45 seconds by Jerry Lewis, 130-pounder from Brooklyn Poly.

Roy Everitt gained a victory over Joe Rice of New York West Side YMCA in 5:45, then lost to Don Reynolds, 130-pounds of Wilkes College, 3-1.

In the 147-pound class Jerry Rushin, East Stroudsburg dropped a 3-2 verdict to Bill Coppi of Ithaca.

Jim McConnell, East Stroudsburg 157-pounder lost to Columbia's blind wrestler, J. Manfrini in 1:56 but still came in for a shot at the consolation test.

East Stroudsburg's Joe Meyers scored a 4-0 win over Aaron Zigmond, CCNY in the 167-pound class then lost in 5:5 to Ed DeWitt of Pittsburgh.

A dislocated shoulder spelled default for Harry Hess, 167, of East Stroudsburg. Winner was Vic Weiss of Lehigh.

Another 167-pounder, Jim Rivello, East Stroudsburg dropped a 6-0 decision to Dan Calsio of Bucknell.

Jerry Sorensen, 191 pounds was defeated by Robert Ceccoli of Wilkes-Barre YMCA, 5-0, but still won a chance at the consolation.

In the unlimited class Bob Tyson lost 8-2 to L. Couisinean, of Cherry Point Marines, N.C.

Bedridden Kids Play Basketball

Scranton, Pa.—The boy lay on a hospital bed dreaming of the day when he could play basketball. It would be many weeks before he would be up and around.

Less than a week later the youngster was tossing a basketball through a hoop although still confined to a hospital bed. His wish—uttered to Jay Acher, national commissioner of Biddy Basketball—paved the way for a device that will make time pass a lot quicker for thousands of other hospital patients.

"I went home that day thinking that there must be some way we could enable bedridden patients and those in wheels chairs to get the therapeutic value of basketball," Archer said.

When the 42-year-old Archer returned in a week he brought with him a miniature backboard and basket, a small size basketball and yards of netting. He set it up at the foot of the boy's bed with the netting arranged so the ball would return to the patient after each shot.

The device proved so successful that the director of the hospital suggested that Archer make it available for hospitalized persons all over the nation.

That was last June. Since that time Archer has made quite a few of the units and donated them to civilian and veterans hospitals. He also has come up with a version for patients in wheel chairs.

He dubbed his brainchild "Rol-Bac" basketball and hopes to have it on the market soon.

"It's so simple I'm amazed that no one ever thought of it before," Archer said. "Although it will not develop All-America players, it will bring to many bed-ridden, wheel chair and crutch case patients many hours of pleasure and enjoyable exercise."

The players can compete against each other in games of foul shooting or the playground sport of "21."

Col. J. A. Betterly, superintendent of Scranton's West Side hospital, is openly enthusiastic about the device.

"I believe the apparatus has a definite therapeutic as well as recreational value and is certainly of great assistance in the care of our patients," Betterly said.

"Rol-Bac" basketball is Archer's second sports innovation. His first was Biddy Basketball for elementary school pupils—a cage version of Little league baseball. In four years Biddy Basketball has grown to the point where Archer devotes his full time to the position of National Commissioner. National tournaments are held each year.

Saturday's Bout

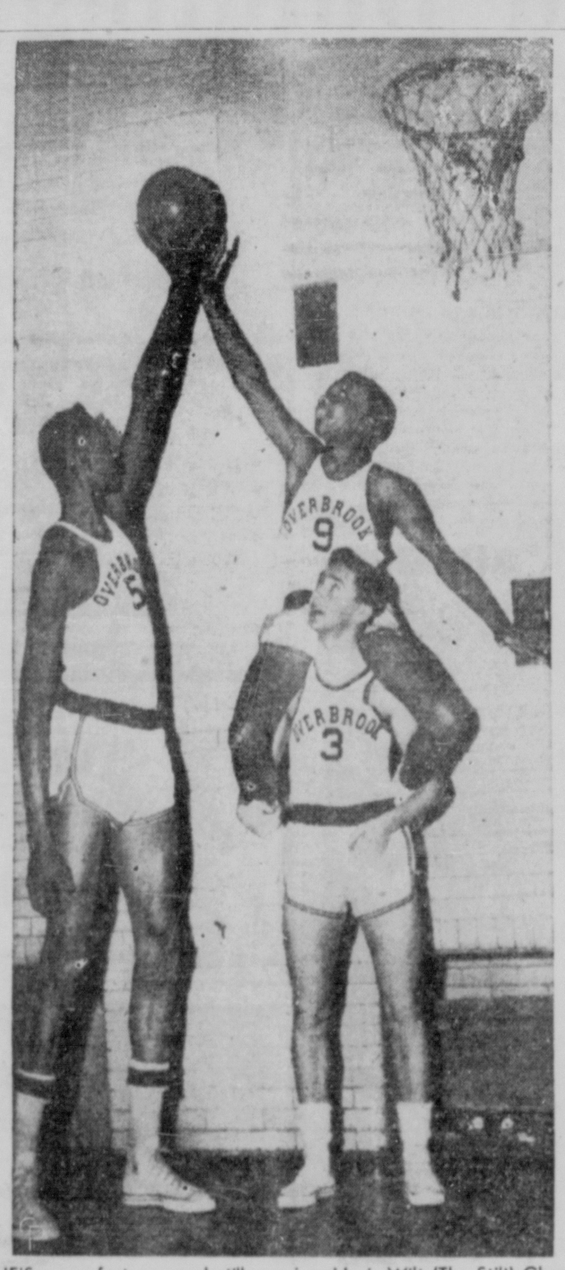
New York (AP) — The Saturday Night Fights will go to New Orleans for the first time Jan. 2 when young Ralph Dupas, the New Orleans flash and third-ranking lightweight contender, meets 10th ranking tough, tough Paddy DeMarco, of Brooklyn in Municipal Auditorium. The fight will be telecast nationally over the ABC-TV network, beginning at 9.



HE'S seven feet now and still growing. He is Wilt (The Stilt) Chamberlain, a junior at Overbrook High school in Philadelphia and naturally he's a star cager. He has scored 137 points in just three games.

Maryland's Bowl Hopes Are Dashed By Faloney's Injury

Miami, Fla., (AP)—Maryland's Orange Bowl hopes against Oklahoma nosedived yesterday when the injured knee of quarterback Bernie Faloney collapsed again in a dummy scrimmage.

Faloney, who Coach Tatum once said meant the difference between a great and a mediocre Maryland team, tore a ligament in his left knee in the national champions' last game of the season with Alabama.

Dr. Thurston Adams, the team physician, said Faloney complained of a sharp pain on the outside of the knee and said he may have suffered a muscle cramp rather than a reinjury to the torn ligaments.

"If it swells up overnight, it's bad news," Adams said. "If it doesn't, he can be counted on for something."

Tatum, however, went ahead on the assumption that Faloney was lost to the team for the New Year's Day game.

Bangor Girls Meet Roseto High Jan. 5

Bangor — The Bangor High School Girl's basketball team has resumed practice here for their inaugural game Tuesday, Jan. 5 with the Roseto Parochial high school team.

Coached by Mrs. Hazel Branch, the team has six games scheduled and two open dates which Faculty Manager Paul LaBar hopes to fill soon.

The schedule released last night by Mr. LaBar includes:

Jan. 5—Roseto at home
Jan. 12—Phillipsburg Parochial at home
Jan. 15—Open
Jan. 26—Easton High away
Feb. 2—Easton High at home
Feb. 9—Phillipsburg Parochial away
Feb. 16—Roseto at home
Feb. 23—Open

Low Scoring Is Expected In Rose Bowl

Pasadena, Calif. (AP)—Football experts, in an unofficial poll taken yesterday, do not look for any wild scoring spree when Michigan State and UCLA meet in the Rose Bowl New York's Day.

Most observers prophesy a conservative, close game and not too much activity on the scoreboard.

UCLA is known chiefly as a powerful defensive outfit.

Gator Bowl Coaches Show Mutual Respect

Jacksonville, Fla. (AP) — Rival Gator Bowl coaches Ralph Jordan of Auburn and DeWitt Weaver of Texas Tech have a healthy respect for the other's football team, but each believes his squad is just a little better.

Both Jordan and Weaver commented on the remarkable similarity of the two teams. "Auburn is so much like our team it isn't funny," Weaver said. "It's almost like seeing yourself in a mirror."

Both teams operate from the Split T.

Ed Stover Dies

Sharon, Pa. (AP)—A heart attack caused the death yesterday of Edward Stover, 41, faculty manager of athletics and baseball coach at Sharpsville High School.

Tony Trabert Trails Hoad

Melbourne Wednesday (AP) — Lewis Hoad of Australia took a 2-1 lead over Tony Trabert after three sets of their singles match in the United States-Australia challenge round today. Hoad won the first two sets, 13-11, 6-3 and Trabert won the third, 6-2, at the intermission.

When Trabert and Hoad took to the Kooyoung Court before a capacity audience of 17,500, the Americans led in the best-of-five series, 2-1. They needed to win but one of today's two singles to wrap up their 17th victory since the competition began in 1900.

The rejuvenated Vic Seixas went against Ken Rosewald in the second match.

The Americans gained the advantage dramatically and unexpectedly yesterday when Seixas and Trabert, using baseball signals to confound their foes, upset the patchwork team of Hoad and Hartwig, 6-2, 6-4, 6-4.

Two hours before the match, the Australians selectors, headed by Sir Norman Brookes, broke up both of this country's brilliant doubles combinations and fielded a tandem which never before had played together in competition.

Their ears will be burning for years over this. Many chagrined Australians called it "handing America the cup on a silver platter."

Hoad won the first set from Trabert, the match progressing according to service. Hoad finally broke through in the 24th game. Rain had begun to fall and Hoad also won the second set, 6-3, with the rain bothering Trabert.

Trabert came back to win the third set, 6-2, and stay in the running as the two took an intermission.

Jim Miller of the University of Wisconsin was the Big Ten's leading passer in 1953. He gained 683 yards passing and tossed six touchdown passes.

Palmerton Man Re-Elected PIAA Officer

Harrisburg (AP) — The last general meeting of the Pennsylvania Interscholastic Athletic Assn., ruling body of Pennsylvania high school sports, will be held today.

PIAA officials disclosed yesterday that a tabulation of votes cast in 12 PIAA districts showed approval of an amendment to the organization's constitution calling for elimination of the annual December meeting.

The board reelected H. D. Leberman, Erie, as president and D. L. Lern, of Palmerton, as vice president.

At the same time PIAA member schools approved two minor amendments to the constitution changing the length of time of periods in two junior high school sports.

"There was a time when all the problems facing the PIAA were discussed at the general meeting," said W. E. Griffith, treasurer of the organization, in explaining elimination of the annual meeting.

"The meetings held in each district, however, now cover all such problems," Griffith added. "In the past few years the annual meeting has rated only little interest."

Under the other two amendments the maximum length of periods in junior high football games would be shortened from 10 to eight minutes, while basketball periods would be cut from eight to six minutes.

The next quarterly meeting of the PIAA board of control, will be in Philadelphia March 27.

'Bama Quarter May Be Unable To Play Classic

Dallas, (AP)—Two practice sessions yesterday didn't cheer Alabama Coach Harold "Red" Drew, but Rice's Jess Neely was considerably pleased that All-America Kosse Johnson's ailing ankle is okeh for the Cotton Bowl classic.

Drew gloomily suggested to sportswriters that they pick Rice to win by four touchdowns as Alabama's team doctor said it looked like the Crimson Tide's No. 2 quarterback, Albert Elmore, will not be able to play.

Elmore, injured in a Christmas holiday automobile accident, suffered a concussion and a bad gash on his knee.

Newport Dream, leading money-winning harness horse of 1953, is the son of Axomite—Miss Key.

'Let Me Do It My Own Way' Used By Many Golf Rebels

Bob Hope struggles against his teachers, Cary Middlecoff, Jack Burke, Lloyd Mangrum and Jimmy Demaret, having in mind that he could do much better if his instructors simply let him use his own style, swing the club in his old way.

By Alex J. Morrison
Author of "A New Way to Better Golf," Teacher of Champions

"Let me do it my own way."

These famous words have been used at some time by every person who has handled a golf club. If you haven't actually spoken them, I'm sure you've had them in mind when seemingly unable to carry out the positions and movements prescribed for you in verbal or written instructions.

It does not matter how practical or perfect are the instructions; you are bound to rebel against them at some time. Since this notion of "doing it your own way" is so strong and is held by all golfers, it is worth looking into.

To begin with, just what is "your own way?" Could you give an accurate and complete description of it in writing or orally? Though you probably can't, you insist that you know it quite well. Then could you demonstrate it at the very first and every succeeding opportunity?

Now I'm not trying to prove that you don't have a way of your own—I'm simply making an effort to have you appreciate what it amounts to. If your technique in handling golf clubs is distinctly your own individual way then you can be sure that it is the basic cause of most of your troubles on the course, of your inconsistent performances in shot making and scoring.

Why? Because an individual technique invariably leaves little room for fundamentals, its mannerisms replace essentials.

Of course, each person has his or her own way of applying the fundamentals, but this is not the point involved in today's matter. The next time you're thinking about "your own way" have a good look at it. Make sure you are not confusing self indulgences and mannerisms with essentials.

Obviously, you can't eliminate this fault until after you've recognized it.

Learn why you use certain positions or movements: is it because they make you happy or because they enable you to consistently strike the ball with accuracy?

Saxton Seeks Win Tonight Over Flanagan; 'Keed' Next

Minneapolis, (AP)—Johnny Saxton, craving a shot at welterweight champion Kid Gavilan, flings his ambitions and aggressive style against dancing Del Flanagan tonight before national television audience.

The 23-year-old New Yorker, third ranking welter contender, was looking beyond Flanagan—in the general direction of Gavilan and Carmen Basilio, Gavilan's current leading challenger.

The Saxton camp is convinced Johnny has earned a crack at Gavilan, and in the event the Cuban moves into the middleweight division, a first shot at Basilio.

The fight is probably the crucial one of Flanagan's up and down career. He now ranks as the No. 6 welterweight contender but could slip into oblivion with a decisive loss tonight.

Saxton undoubtedly will force the fight and carry more destructiveness with both hands. Flanagan is a counter puncher with one of the best lefts in the division.

Saxton has lost only to Gil Turner and drawn in another alongside 42 pro victories. Flanagan, 25, has won 65, lost eight and drawn in two.

The 10-round bout begins at 10 p. m. EST and will be televised by CBS-TV.

In Minnesota, the 10-point system of scoring is used. The referee and each of two judges give the winner of each round 10 points and the other fighter a lesser number. In the case of a tie round, each fighter gets 10 points.

County Head Pin Tourney Sets Up Rules

Rules and regulations for the fourth annual head pin tournament at Harmon's Recreation were announced yesterday. Contests start Wednesday night for all men and women bowlers in the county.

Starting at 7 p.m. bowlers will roll three games across six alleys. The head pin must be hit with the first ball.

On Friday and Saturday bowling time for men and women bowlers will be 1 p.m. to 8 p.m. and 7 p.m. to 11 p.m.

Separate awards have been set up for men and women. Each winner will receive 50 per cent of the entry fees. Other awards will be based on number of entries.

This year bowlers may get choice of time by calling 751-J or 9247, or making a personal contact at the bowling center.

Great Lineman Due To Clash In Orange Bowl

Miami, Fla., (AP)—College football's greatest linemen—fast-moving J. D. Roberts of Oklahoma and powerful Stan Jones of Maryland—will collide head-on in the Orange Bowl game.

Roberts, a 202-pound tackle, made speed and desire pay off with his selection as "Lineman of the Year" in the Associated Press poll. Jones, a 252-pound guard and probably the strongest man in college football, was runner-up in the balloting.

Art Gore's 'Quick Call' Is Studied On Movies, Proving Only There Was No 'Quickie'

By Jack Hand

New York, (AP)—Umpire Art Gore's "quick call" in the first game of the 1953 World Series came up for review yesterday when the series movies were shown at a press luncheon. Although no positive conclusions could be drawn, Gore escaped with at least a 50-50 record.

The films indicated he did not make a "quick call" on the controversial bunt play at third base but they also indicated he may have made the wrong decision.

Here was the situation:

Gil Hodges was on second, Carl Furillo on first with nobody out and Brooklyn and New York tied 5-5 in the seventh inning. Billy Cox bunted in front of the plate and Yogi Berra threw to third. Gore, a National League umpire, called Hodges out and the arguments echoed through the night.

The film, stopped just as Hodges slid into third, shows Gore with his hands down waiting to make the call. Whether Hodges or the ball got there first, can't be proven.

Bill Grieve, American League umpire who was working behind the plate in that opening game, had this to say after looking at the movies;

"The picture doesn't prove anything about whether he was safe or out. But it does prove that Gore did not make a quick call. When they stopped the picture, his hands were still down. He waited for the play before making his call."

There was a chorus of "oohs" from the crowd of about 350 fans when the play flashed on the screen. The Brooklyn writers seemed to think Hodges was safe and the Yankee writers agreed with Gore. Anyhow, nothing can come of it. It's all history.

The World Series picture, produced and narrated by Lew Fonseca, will be released for general showing, Jan. 4. Fonseca expects over 15,000,000 people to see the 700 prints in 75,000 showings.

21 Boxers Died In 1953 Action; Ratings Change

New York (AP) — A record number of 21 boxing fatalities in 1953 was recorded by Ring Magazine in a copyrighted article appearing in its February issue.

The deaths were divided, 11 professional and 10 amateurs with only two pro deaths in the United States. Dick Miller died after a Worcester, Mass., bout April 21 and Robert Lee (Bobby Donald) after a Miami Beach match Aug. 18.

Of the 10 amateur fatalities, six occurred in the United States including a U.S. airman, a college boy, a golden glover, a reform school inmate and an AAU boxer.

In 1952, there were 17 deaths a record at that time according to records kept by The Bing since 1930.

Nat Fleischer, editor, pointed out that New York set the pace for ring safety with new type flooring and experiments with a new type glove designed to stop thumbing and reduce the possibility of cuts.

Ring also selected Nino Valdes of Cuba as the pro boxer making the most progress in 1953. The 28-year-old heavyweight, six foot three and 215 pounds hit the high ratings by upsetting Ezzard Charles at Miami and knocking out Heinz Neuhaus in Germany to become the No. 1 contender to Champion Rocky Marciano.

Wallace (Bud) Smith, Carmen Basilio and Earl Walls also were recognized for 1953 progress. Smith took over the No. 1 ranking among the lightweight challengers and Basilio moved into the same spot in the welter class after knocking down Champion Kid Gavilan while losing a disputed split decision in a title bout. Walls moved up by twice knocking out Rex Layne.

Ring selected Carl (Bobo) Olson, the middleweight champ, as the "Boxer of the Year" although the Boxing Writers Association had named welter champ Kid Gavilan winner of the Edward J. Neil Award and their "Fighter of the Year". Fleischer's board selected Olson over Gavilan, Rocky Marciano and Jimmy Carter.

Rating Changes

The year-end ratings showed several changes from the 1952 finale with the same champs but new No. 1 challengers in all but two classes. Actually there was no middleweight champion a year ago because Sugar Ray Robinson had just announced his retirement. Olson took over when he beat Randy Turpin in October.

The new No. 1 challengers in each division and the men they replaced were Heavyweight, Valdes (Jersey Joe Walcott—1952), light heavy, Harold Johnson (Joey Maxim—'52), welters Basilio (Bobby Dykes—'52); lightweights, Wallace (Bud) Smith (Johnny Consalves—'52); feathers, Red Top Davis (Ray Famechon — '52); bantams, Robert Cohen (Vic Toweel —'52); Randy Turpin still is No. 1 among the middle contenders and Jake Tuli in the flyweights behind champion Yoshio Shirai.

An interesting compilation showed Tuzo Portuguez, durable Costa Rican middleweight, as the busiest TV performer with nine main events before the network cameras.

Martin Calls Sports Shots From Most Spectacular To Most Belittled During '53

By Whitney Martin

New York (AP)—A few personal nominations for the mostest and bestest in sports in 1953:

Most spectacular: Lew Worsham holing 140-yard approach shot on final hole to win $25,000 first prize in Tam O'Shanter golf tournament.

Most pathetic figure: Chandler Harper, who had that money all but in his pocket when Worsham made the eagle scream.

Most disappointing: Jersey Joe Walcott's showing in his return bout with Rocky Marciano.

Best loser: Roland La Starza who had nothing but praise for Marciano after taking a thorough beating from the champion.

Most gratifying: Ted Williams' spectacular comeback to baseball after his service as a Marine combat pilot in Korea.

Most amazing: Charley Dressen's abrupt departure from the Brooklyn Dodgers after piloting them to two consecutive pennants.

Most routine: New York Yankee march to American League pennant and victory over the Dodgers in the World Series.

Most fitting: That Billy Martin should bat in the winning run after he had starred throughout the series.

Best ballyhoo artist: Still Jack Hurley with his clipping service.

Best promotion: Still Ray Dumont with his National Baseball Congress.

Most gracious: Bobby Jones in lauding Ben Hogan's golf feats when he knew they brought up the question: Who was the greater, Jones or Hogan?

Most puzzling: The Brooklyn Dodgers' bunting tactics in the first game of the World Series when they had the Yankees on the ropes with their slugging.

Most unfortunate: That Native Dancer and Tom Fool weren't able to get together to determine which was the better horse.

Most underrated: Florence Chadwick's great swimming performances.

Most courageous: Babe Zaharias' return to competitive golf after her surgical ordeal to combat a malignancy.

Most controversial incident: The Notre Dame time outs which enabled the Irish to tie Iowa.

Best gesture: New York City giving Ben Hogan a ticker-tape parade after he had added the British Open to his U. S. Open and Masters golf triumphs.

Most cautious: Frank Leahy, who won't suggest his Notre Dame footballers have a chance until after they have won.

Most maligned: Maryland's fine football team because its schedule isn't rated with the really tough ones.

Most belittled: Bobo Olson, the middleweight champion — every fighter within 15 pounds of his weight thinks is made to order for him.

Best individual football performance for TV fans: Paul Giel of Minnesota against Pittsburgh.

Most civic spirit: That shown by Milwaukee in supporting their adopted Braves.

Best coaching job: Earl Blaik of Army.

Most philosophical: Marty Marion, commenting on his ouster as Oriole pilot. "That's baseball."

Most patient: The readers of this pillar.

Score Would Have Been The Same

Cuxhaven, Germany, (AP)—Luedingsworth invited Leherheide to a soccer game here.

Somebody slipped up and Leherheide sent its handball team.

It was no problem for harmonious Luedingsworthers:

They played handball the first half of the game and soccer the second. The overall scores: Luedingsworth 20, Leherheide 8.

Swimmer Dies

Milwaukee (AP) — George J. Whittaker, 80, world champion swimmer of a half century ago and credited with developing the "Australian Crawl," died here.

O'Malley Says Ball Club Comes First

New York—"It's the team that attracts crowds to a ball game, not the manager," says Walter F. O'Malley, president of the Brooklyn Dodgers.

In a relaxed mood at a dinner the other night, O'Malley confided that the problem of a colorful manager was a big one for him before he finally decided on Walter Alston as his new pilot for 1954.

"If I picked a colorful person of the Durocher type many fans would be attracted. At the same time some fans would stay away. Charlie Dressen was that type.

"After much thought, I made up my mind that the team itself was the main attraction — a good, hustling, winning team. And that's what the Dodgers are.

"Alston, though not an effervescent, colorful man, is intelligent and capable. His record proves that. He can win the National League pennant and finally the World Series."

At this point the genial O'Malley looked grim. Then he blurted: "Winning that World Series is our big objective. It's become a fetish with me. We've got to win a Series."

Here is a pleasant little game that will give you a message every day. It is a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add 7. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner of the rectangle and check every one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figure give you

Your Horoscope Today

By FRANCIS DRAKE

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 30, 1953

March 21 to April 20 (Aries)—A rather uninteresting, maybe dull day. You may find some confusion during the week. That should get you fiery folks on your toes, to work, thinking up ways to overcome obstacles.

April 21 to May 20 (Taurus)—You can hardly expect to advance unless you double effort, forget personal feelings awhile, Analyze carefully; rely on your own deductions, and make use of others' knowledge as well.

May 21 to June 21 (Gemini)—Caution! Avoid useless legal or personal entanglements; smile, even when you don't feel like it.

June 22 to July 23 (Cancer)—Mark time a bit in the A. M. hours. Be smart; wait patiently as you work out difficulties. Study each situation, know its values, its pitfalls, and you will save back tracking.

July 24 to August 22 (Leo)—You are fortunate in having more advantages in your favor than have others right now. This is a day in which you can move forward if you cooperate. Avoid needless haste.

August 23 to September 23 (Virgo)—Move cautiously until you have set your course, and you can turn in a good day. Avoid irritability, needless talk on unessentials. Distractions are about.

September 24 to October 23 (Libra)—Not an out-of-the-ordinary day. You who are willing to put in extra effort and make better plans, will gain in some unexpected ways; may turn the latter to the sweet by sheer determination.

October 24 to November 22 (Scorpio)—Minimize disturbing words or conditions. Don't be a party to petty or foolish notions; they only upset and place every one in uncomfortable positions. You are above such things.

November 23 to December 22 (Sagittarius)—This day may be much harder and more irksome than you expect, so don't be smug or too sure of things. You—all of us, in fact—can weather such situations if we remain our natural and sensible selves.

December 23 to January 21 (Capricorn)—Your chart says "extra care" in money and business matters, especially where you have to take risks. Some things are better not tried. Protect income, family valuables.

January 22 to February 20 (Aquarius)—Be alert to deception from the outside and don't be in a hurry to sign papers or make loans unless carefully studied in advance. Concentrate on duties, necessary matters first.

February 21 to March 20 (Pisces)—Like Aquarius you should be alert, on the lookout or you will miss out today. Time and opportunity wait for no man. Heart interests, home and family need attention now.

YOU BORN TODAY have a profound mentality and are practical; usually dignified, ambitious and persevering; seldom are discouraged although you often are disappointed when your affairs or schemes do not mature as expected. You could succeed as builder, decorator, stock farmer, miner, grocer. You could also conduct large enterprises, make an able statesman. Avoid discontent, melancholy. Birthdate of Rudyard Kipling, Anglo-Indian author; Alfred E. Smith, American public official.

| 91 to 100 | 10,000 | 1970 |
| 101 to 320 | 220,000 | 1984 |

The Bonds numbered 266 to 320, inclusive, maturing on January 1, 1984, may be redeemed prior to their maturity in whole at any time or in part from time to time at the principal amount thereof, together with accrued interest to the date fixed for redemption. The Bonds numbered 26 to 265, inclusive, maturing on January 1, 1969, and thereafter, may be redeemed prior to their respective maturities, at the option of the Authority or pursuant to certain provisions contained in the Indenture as a whole at any time on or after January 1, 1959, or from time to time in part in inverse order of maturity on any interest payment date on or after January 1, 1958, in each case upon payment of the percentage of the principal amount thereof at the time applicable as set forth below under the heading "Redemption Price," together with, in each case, accrued interest to the date fixed for redemption:

| Period Both dates inclusive) | Redemption Price (Percentage of principal amount) |
|---|---|
| Jan. 1, 1959 to Dec. 31, 1961 | 103 |
| Jan. 1, 1962 to Dec. 31, 1964 | 102 |
| Jan. 1, 1965 to Dec. 31, 1967 | 101 |
| Jan. 1, 1968 and thereafter | 100 |

If less than all the Bonds of any maturity shall be called for redemption, the particular Bonds to be redeemed shall be selected by lot.

The Bonds shall bear interest payable semi-annually on January 1 and July 1 in each year, beginning July 1, 1954, at such rates for each maturity as shall be fixed by the purchaser in its proposal for the purchase of the Bonds, provided:

(1) No interest rate shall be specified which is not a multiple of 1/8 of 1% or 1/10 of 1% or which is in excess of 4% per annum;
(2) Not more than four interest rates may be specified, and an interest rate repeated shall be considered as a single interest rate;
(3) All Bonds maturing on the same date shall bear the same rate of interest; and
(4) No Bond shall bear interest at more than one rate.

Subject to the foregoing, proposals must be for the purchase of all of the Bonds at not less than 97% of the principal amount thereof plus accrued interest to the date of delivery.

The Bonds will be sold to the highest and best bidder making a proposal conforming to the terms of the offering, subject to the right of the Authority in its discretion to reject any and all proposals. The highest and best bidder shall be the one offering the lowest net interest cost of the Authority. The net interest cost under each proposal shall be determined by ascertaining the total amount of interest, computed from the date of the Bonds to the respective maturities thereof, at the rates stated in the proposal, less the amount of any premium in excess of, or plus the amount of any discount from, the principal amount of the Bonds stated in the proposal.

Proposals must be made upon the prescribed form of proposal. Copies of the form of proposal and of the Report prepared by Kidder, Peabody & Co., Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, may be obtained by application at the office of the Authority, Municipal Building, 7th and Sarah Streets, Stroudsburg, Pennsylvania, or at the office of Kidder, Peabody & Co., 2142 Fidelity-Philadelphia Trust Building, 123 South Broad Street, Philadelphia 9, Pennsylvania.

No proposal will be considered unless accompanied by a certified bank cashier's or bank treasurer's check payable to the order of Stroudsburg Municipal Authority in the amount of $6,400 as security against any loss to the Authority resulting from the failure of the bidder to comply with the terms of the proposal. Checks accompanying each proposal not accepted will be returned to the representative of the bidder delivering such proposal or, at the option of the Authority, will be mailed to such bidder within 24 hours from the time of opening the proposals. If a proposal is accepted, the proceeds of the check or checks deposited therewith will be applied on the purchase price of the Bonds or, if such proposal is not performed, such proceeds will be retained by the Authority on account of any loss resulting from such non performance. No allowance will be made for interest on any such check.

Delivery of the Bonds (which are expected to be in definitive form) to the successful bidder will be made, against payment therefore in Philadelphia Clearing House Funds, at the principal office of Fidelity Trust Company of Philadelphia, 17th and Chestnut Streets, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, at 11:00 A. M., Eastern Standard Time, on Tuesday, February 9, 1954, or at such other place, date and time as may be agreed upon by the Authority and the successful bidder.

The Bonds being offered are to be issued for the purpose of paying the cost of construction (as defined in the Indenture) of certain alterations and improvements to the sewage treatment plant of the Borough of Stroudsburg (the Borough), proposed to be constructed by the Authority for the Borough in accordance with plans and specifications prepared by Albright & Friel, Inc., Consulting Engineers, of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, and for the purpose of paying the cost of construction (as defined in the Indenture) of certain extensions to the sewage collection system of the Borough, proposed to be constructed by the Authority in accordance with plans and specifications prepared by Edward C. Hess, Borough Engineer.

Prior to the issuance of the Bonds, the Borough will convey its existing sewer system to the Authority and the Authority and the Borough will enter into a Contract and Lease (the Lease) under which the Authority will agree to construct the alterations and improvements to the sewage treatment plant and the extensions to the sewage collection system and to lease the same, together with the existing sewer system, to the Borough for a fixed rental payable semi-annually on June 1 and December 1 of each year, commencing June 1, 1954, which will be sufficient for the payment of approximately 128% of the average annual debt service requirements (as defined in the Indenture) accruing after January 1, 1954, on the Bonds, assuming an average coupon rate of 3-1/4% per annum. In the Lease, the Borough will agree to pay in addition to the fixed rental all expenses of operating, maintaining and repairing the sewer system (as defined in the Lease), including the compensation and expenses of the Trustee and the administration expenses of the Authority, and the debt service on the $14,500 principal amount of 2-1/4% General Obligation Sewer Revenue Bonds (noncallable) of the Borough presently outstanding, which mature serially on February 1 of each year from February 1, 1954, to February 1, 1966, inclusive, in annual installments varying from $2,500 to $4,000. So much of the annual sewer rental imposed by the Borough as is necessary to pay the debt service on said General Obligation Sewer Revenue Bonds is pledged for that purpose. In the Lease the Borough will also agree to charge and collect during the term of the Lease sewer rents and charges which will be sufficient (a) to pay all fixed rentals payable under the Lease, (b) to pay the aforesaid operating expenses and debt service and (c) to provide a margin of safety of not less than 10% of the sum of (a) and (b). In the Lease the Borough will also agree to pay as additional rental any balance of the sewer rents and charges collected by the Borough remaining after provision for payment of Items (a) and (b) above.

Under the Indenture securing the Bonds, the Authority will pledge all of its receipts and revenues from the sewer system (as defined in the Indenture) as security for all of the bonds issued and to be issued under the Indenture. The Authority will assign to the Trustee all of the rentals and other payments becoming due and payable under the Lease.

The Report of Kidder, Peabody & Co. sets forth certain provisions of the Lease and the Indenture, but reference is hereby made to the documents themselves for a complete description of the terms and provisions thereof. Copies of the Lease and the Indenture will be available for examination for limited periods of time upon inquiry of Kidder, Peabody & Co., 2142 Fidelity Philadelphia Trust Building, 123 South Broad Street, Philadelphia 9, Pennsylvania, or of Messrs. Morgan, Lewis & Bockius, 2107 Fidelity Philadelphia Trust Building, 123 South Broad Street, Philadelphia 9, Pennsylvania.

The Bonds are to be issued subject to the unqualified approving legal opinion (which will be delivered to the purchaser free of charge) of Messrs. Morgan, Lewis & Bockius, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, Bond Counsel, stating, in substance, inter alia, that under the Municipality Authorities Act of 1945, as amended, the Bonds, their transfer and the income therefrom, including any profits made on the sale thereof, shall at all times be free from taxation within the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania but that this exemption does not extend to gift, estate, succession or inheritance taxes or any other taxes not levied or assessed directly on the Bonds or the income therefrom; and that, under existing statutes and decisions, interest on the Bonds will not be subject to income taxation by the United States; and subject to the delivery of a certificate at settlement that there is no litigation pending affecting the validity of the Bonds.

By order of Stroudsburg Municipal Authority.
JACKSON L. KERLIN,
Secretary
Stroudsburg, Pa.
December 30, 1953.

Eisenhower Faces Battle For Program Just One Year After Taking Office As President

By Raymond Wilcove
Central Press Correspondent

Washington — President Eisenhower faces an uphill battle to obtain enactment of his legislative program when Congress reconvenes Jan. 6, hardly a year after he took office.

The injection into the national scene of the Harry Dexter White spy case has embittered the Democrats, upon whom the President must depend in many cases for support.

The Republican attack upon former President Harry S. Truman has made it more difficult for Democrats to vote for important administration measures which they would ordinarily support.

Yet without their backing, such important measures as extension of foreign aid and the reciprocal trade law and expansion of the social security program may go down to defeat.

Mr. Eisenhower requires Democratic support on these and other major measures he is advancing for two reasons: (1) the close party division in both the Senate and House, (2) the antipathy of many Republicans for some administration policies.

During the first session of the 83rd Congress last year, President Eisenhower received more Democratic than Republican support on some of his key measures. Without the minority's aid, they would have been defeated.

The Republicans control both Houses, but their margin is small in the House and non-existent in the Senate. The lineup in the House is 219 Republicans, 215 Democrats, one Independent.

Strange as it may seem especially in a congressional election year, the President may have to rely upon some Democratic stalwarts to help him get his program through.

In the House, the key figure will be Rep. Sam Rayburn, of Texas, former Speaker and now Democratic floor leader. In the Senate, the President may have to seek the aid of Senator Lyndon Johnson, of Texas, the minority leader, and of such potent Democratic figures as Senator Walter F. George of Georgia and Senator John J. Sparkman of Alabama, the latter his party's 1952 vice presidential nominee.

Eleven important matters await action in 1954 by the closely-divided 83rd Congress. They are:

1—The St. Lawrence Seaway and Power Project—The President advised Canadians on his recent visit to their country he hoped Congress would act favorably on this.

2—The so-called Bricker Constitutional Amendment—This would curb the President's treaty-making powers and is opposed by the administration.

3—The $275 billion Debt Limit—The President wants it raised, possibly to $290 billion. Congress is reluctant.

4—Taxes—Corporation and excise taxes are scheduled to go down in April. With the budget unbalanced, the administration may ask that the reduction be postponed or new taxes voted.

5—Social Security Levy — The social security payroll tax is slated to go up Jan. 1 from 1½ to 2 per cent on both employer and employe. About $800 million a year is involved. The President has asked the increase be postponed.

6—Social Security Expansion — The administration favors this, but there is strong opposition within the President's party.

Additional matters are:

7—Hawaiian Statehood—Admission of Hawaii as the 49th state is a "must" for the administration, which promised it. Southern Democrats are opposed.

8—Reciprocal Trade—This New Deal law expires in June. There are strong Republican demands that tariff barriers be raised rather than lowered, despite the President's stand for increased trade. This is a crucial issue on which the administration probably can not win without Democratic votes.

9—Foreign Aid — Strong demands from both parties for sharp reductions. Some Republicans, and Democrats, favor terminating it.

10—Taft-Hartley Labor Law — The President has promised to revise it somewhat. His recommendations will be submitted in January.

11—Farm Price Supports — A burning political as well as economic issue on which party lines may fall. The administration faces hard going on this key legislation.

Legion Post Membership At New High

Roseto — Martocci - Capobianco American Legion Post 750 has reached an "all-time high" in membership, according to post commander Anthony Farino.

Farino made the announcement last night. The post's membership now stands at 276, Farino said, as opposed to 262 in 1953.

The new high in membership is due to a concerted drive begun in October, the commander said. State Legion officials had asked a five per cent increase in membership for the post in 1954.

Last night's total puts the post one member ahead of the State-established quota, Farino noted.

Every indication at present points to a membership of "more than 30" by October, 1954 when the annual drive ends, Farino declared.

Food Industry Told It Should Cut Price Spread

New York (AP) — If America is to maintain and improve its high standards of living, the entire food industry must continue its efforts next year to narrow the spread between farm and retail prices, according to president Ralph W. Burger of the Great Atlantic & Pacific Tea Co.

He noted in a year-end statement yesterday that "in our own stores we have been able to reduce overall food prices 3½ per cent since December, 1952."

Free Bridge Ordered Open Pending Hearing

Milford Citizens Protest; Temporary Restraining Rule Issued Against Commission

Scranton (AP)—Federal District Judge Albert L. Watson yesterday issued a temporary restraining order to prevent the Delaware River Joint Toll Bridge Commission from closing a free span near the new two million dollar toll bridge between Milford, Pa., and Montague, N. J.

The old bridge was barricaded at 10 a.m. yesterday and no traffic was permitted to cross it. Last night, it was still closed.

Alexander R. Miller, bridge commission chairman, said the free bridge had been "closed to protect the safety of the traveling public."

The order came a few short hours after the new bridge, which will charge a 25 cent per vehicle toll, was opened.

Residents of the area are protesting the toll charge and asked that the free span be kept open.

The court set next Monday afternoon for a hearing to show cause why a permanent injunction should not be issued.

Commission Chairman Miller took note of the citizen protest during his short speech at yesterday's dedication of the span.

He said that revenue realized from vehicles using the new bridge will not pay for its construction. Funds from other toll bridges were used to pay for this one, the chairman said, and the money must be returned.

Toll Span Dedicated At Ceremony

Milford—A three-year project to connect the shores of Pennsylvania and New Jersey with three toll bridges in Pocono Mountains region reached a climax yesterday with the dedication of the new 1,150-foot toll span between here and Montague, N. J.

Constructed at a cost of $15,000,000 the three-bridge project ordered by the Delaware River Joint Toll Bridge Commission got underway Oct. 15, 1951 at Portland. It was there that the first bridge was opened Dec. 1. Second and longest of the spans at Delaware Water Gap was dedicated Dec. 16 and yesterday's ceremony here concluded the undertaking.

Commenting on current litigation by Portland-Columbia residents to keep the Route 46 free bridge south of Portland open to travel, and the last-minute injunction by petitioners here to halt demolition of the Milford free span, Alexander R. Miller, commission chairman, termed the dismantlings necessary to insure financial liquidation of the new spans.

Miller told some 200 persons assembled in the middle of the $2,000,000 bridge that a traffic survey disclosed only 50 per cent of the overall cost of the new bridge here could be realized under present traffic conditions, and for that reason the old bridge had to go.

He said the same was true in Portland where the survey showed with 3,000,000 vehicles crossing there annually, the tariff could not be realized without closing the Route 46 bridge. Here, he said, it was revealed operations would fall about 10 per cent short if the move wasn't made.

Miller explained a covenant in bonding agreements for financing the three new bridges limits competing toll and free bridges to a distance of 10 miles. He also said that the spans, now limited to traffic because of the small numbers of vehicles which normally cross the river, would be paid for by traffic on the larger bridges where traffic is heavier. "It's a case of the strong helping the weak," he explained.

While residents and visiting dignitaries waited on the Pennsylvania side for the noon ceremony, bridge officials closed the free span to traffic, sending all vehicles over the new bridge.

One Miller cut the gold tape strung across the two-lane bridge here, traffic began to flow freely. First to cross from Pennsylvania was Mrs. Minnie Tupack of Tafton, Pa. Meanwhile another car was headed toward Pennsylvaina, driven by Sussex County Senator-elect George Harper.

Among those who spoke at the bridge were State Sen. Alfred Littell, Sussex County, N. J.; Russell Eschbach, Pike County commissioner; Major H. H. Allen, of the J. E. Greiner Co., consulting engineers for the commission; William Wilson, the commission's chief engineer; T. S. Stevenson, U. S. Bureau of Public Roads; Boyd Bach, Bethlehem Steel Co. sales manager, and Judge Fred W. Davis.

Introduced by Miller were Sen. M. F. Crowe, Assemblyman August Metz, Sen.-elect Harper of New Jersey; Douglas Rutherford, assemblyman-elect of Sussex County; Clarence Little, Sussex assemblyman, and other county and borough officials of Pike and Sussex Counties and Milford and Montague.

One of the principal speeches was given by Frank C. Hilton, secretary of property and supplies for the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, the official representative for Gov. John S. Fine. Sen. Littell was spokesman for New Jersey in the absence of Gov. Alfred E. Driscoll.

Arthur B. Howe, president of Pike County Association was presiding officer for the bridge dedication. Rev. Robert Huddleston offered invocation and Rev. David J. Sweet, benediction.

Following the dedication the group went to the Tom Quick Inn for a luncheon. John C. Warner Jr., president of the local bank and president of the Pennsylvania Bankers Association, was toastmaster.

Rev. Sweet offered invocation. Warner presented scissors used in cutting the ribbon to Miller, commission chairman for 10 years and member 13 years. Warner said the occasion was the first time Miller ever officially opened a span.

Warner called the event "one of the biggest days in the history of Pike County" and lauded the commission for its work. He also introduced Burgess Stroh and other local and county dignitaries.

Sen. Littell termed New Jersey "the corridor through which people of Pennsylvaina and New York pass" and said for this reason his state took the initiative in building modern highways.

Hilton applauded the commission "for providing progress" and commented that the three bridges will prove a decisive outlet to the peoples of metropolitan New York and New Jersey "if horrors of war ever come to our shore." He termed construction in the interest of internal security.

Traffic moved across the bridge without charge until midnight last night, when the toll rates went on. Special commutation books are available for $1, a book of 20 tickets good for a year. Basic passenger car rates are 25 cents. Tolls for heavier vehicles range to $1.

Temperatures Drop To -30

By The Associated Press

A blast of bitter Arctic air moved into states along the northern border of the United States yesterday.

Temperatures in Minnesota dropped to 30 below zero. Many cities in North Dakota, Wisconsin and Michigan also recorded below zero readings.

The biting cold swept eastward from North Dakota to central New York state. A light snow preceded the cold as far east as the New England states.

The frigid air mass split up before reaching Western Pennsylvania, one section veering to the south and the other to the north. Light showers changed to snow flurries in the Pittsburgh district as the colder air moved in. A low of 20 degrees was forecast.

Farm Prices Turn Upward

Washington, (AP)—The Agriculture Department reported yesterday that farm product prices increased 1.2 per cent during the month ended Dec. 15.

This upturn reversed four consecutive months of decline but still left prices about 6 per cent less than a year earlier and about 20 per cent below the record high set in February, 1951.

The mid-December prices also were about 5 per cent below those prevailing last January when the Eisenhower administration took office.

Recent Plant Layoffs Total 53,000 Persons

By The Associated Press

At least 53,000 workers have been laid off their jobs in industry and railroads throughout the country in recent weeks or face unemployment shortly.

Latest available official figures, as of November, show the national total of unemployed then was up only 10,000 from 1952.

The current layoff figures were collected in an Associated Press survey yesterday. Most of the layoffs appeared to be of the long-term type. Prospects are dim for many of these who hope to get back on their old payrolls shortly. There are openings in other fields, however. Newspapers are carrying column upon column of "help wanted" classified ads.

Total unemployment, as of November, was listed by the U. S. Bureau of Labor Statistics as 1,428,000, compared with 1,418,000 in November 1952.

The number of workers in all gainful occupations this November was 61,925,000. Of these, 16,711,000 were in manufacturing industries and 2,956,000 in railroads.

President Eisenhower Tuesday outlined a federal manpower policy destined to channel more defense contracts into areas "where there has been a large amount of unemployment."

A majority of about 300 economists attending a forum in Washington this week agreed that the country is having an "orthodox recession," mild but general, and predicted that the business slump would continue through 1954.

George Meany, president of the American Federation of Labor, in a New Year's statement said there is "no indication that the rising tide of unemployment will be reversed" in 1954. He added: "There is but one word which describes employment conditions for the new year: uncertainty."

No Paper Tomorrow

The Daily Record, in observance of an annual custom, will not be published tomorrow —New Year's Day.

Publication will be resumed Saturday, when The Record will carry a complete summary of happenings on the local, national and international fronts.

Oil Tankers Collide In Fog; Five Killed, Four Missing

Wilmington, Del., (AP)—Two tankers bound from Texas to Philadelphia collided in the fog-bound Delaware River yesterday, killing five of 11 crewmen who either jumped or fell overboard.

The bodies, clad only in shorts and life preservers, were recovered from the swirling upstream tide. Coroner C. Everett Kelley said the men died from exposure.

Four men were listed as missing and presumed dead by the Coast Guard, Army Engineers and other agencies who rushed to the scene —about 6½ miles south of Wilmington and 25 miles south of Philadelphia.

The Atlantic Refining Co., owner of both tankers, said its 10,600-ton ship, Atlantic Dealer, inbound from Port Arthur, Tex., crashed into the 19,000-ton Atlantic Engineer, anchored two miles below New Castle, Del. The Atlantic Dealer also was seeking a safe anchorage to wait out the dense fog.

Capt. Clifford Bennington, skipper of the Dealer, told Police Chief Jesse Walling at New Castle that "there were several explosions and then flames leaped up as high as a five story building."

Despite the fire, neither vessel was damaged so seriously it couldn't continue up the river once the fog cleared and the tide changed. Both tankers steamed toward Philadelphia to unload their oil and gasoline and put in for repairs. The Engineer was loaded with 223,000 barrels of crude oil and the dealer with 123,000 barrels of gasoline.

Vietminh Troops Attack Three French Bastions

Hanoi, Indochina, (AP) — The armies of Moscow-trained Ho Chi Minh—equipped and advised by Red China—are apparently determined to make 1954 a "year of decision" in the 7-year-old Indochina war.

There were strong indications yesterday that Ho Chi Minh is going to risk everything in an all-out attempt to strike a crushing blow at the French Union forces or at least make the situation look so bad that he might gain a negotiated peace.

The Communist-led rebels attacked three French strong points in northern Laos and, amid patrol clashes, closed in on the fortress of Dien Bien Phu, farther north in neighboring Viet Nam.

Here Is Simple Method To Have Safe Homecoming

Chicago, (AP)—Police traffic Chief Michael J. Ahern offered this simple formula yesterday for a safe homecoming of New Year's Eve motorists:

One—Carry a self-addressed stamped envelope in your pocket.

Two—After the first or second drink, put your car keys in the envelope and drop it in the nearest mailbox.

Three—Call a cab or hitch a ride with someone who hasn't had to mail his envelope.

51 Escape Death In Plane Crash

Vancouver, B. C. (AP)—Fifty-one persons aboard a crippled Royal Canadian Air Force transport escaped tragedy yesterday in a crash-landing at the Vancouver international airport.

The four-engine North Star had turned back after engine trouble developed 45 minutes out of Vancouver on a flight to Edmonton.

The big plane carried 43 passengers, including two women and two children, and a crew of eight.

The plane, riding on three engines, flipped over on the runway and skidded off into a field alongside. A wing was torn off.

An RCAF official said most of the passengers suffered minor cuts and bruises and were shaken up but none was seriously.

Slot Machines Out

Boise, Idaho, (AP)—Slot machines go out of Idaho when 1954 comes in at midnight tonight. After seven years of legal operation, the machines, along with punchboards and similar devices, will become outlaws.

Driscoll Signs Water Measure For Delaware

Trenton, N. J., (AP)—Gov. Alfred E. Driscoll last night signed a water bill designed to end litigation between New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania over rights to drinking water from the Delaware River.

The bill, sponsored by retiring State Sen. Alfred B. Littell (R-Sussex) was approved under emergency rules by both Houses of the Legislatures Dec. 21.

Driscoll said he conferred with Gov. John Fine of Pennsylvania on the bill Tuesday, but gave no details on the meeting.

(Pennsylvania and New York State must approve the legislation before it becomes effective).

The main provisions of the bill:

1. New York could increase its withdrawal of water from the Delaware from 440 million to 800 million gallons daily, but must maintain a flow in the river of not less than 1,150 million gallons a day—by releasing sufficient water from its reservoirs in drought seasons.

2. New Jersey would get 100 million gallons a day from the river through the Delaware and Raritan Canal, without being required to build a reservoir to compensate for the diversion.

3. Pennsylvania may build a dam in the river at Wallpack Bend, Bushkill, opposite Sussex County. New Jersey has the option of participating in the yield up to 30 per cent by paying a proportionate share of the cost of the dam.

Harrisburg, (AP) — Gov. John S. Fine said yesterday that approval by New Jersey Gov. Alfred E. Driscoll of a new law regulating the Delaware River water supply "removes the last serious barrier to the complete development of 'Delaware Valley, U.S.A.' "

"Without an adequate water supply, the future growth of this area would be seriously restricted," Fine said in a statement.

Earlier yesterday, State Sen. Joseph J. Yosko (D-Northampton) renewed his plea for public hearings on the whole question of division of the Delaware River water supply.

Yosko made his plea in a letter to William G. Schnader, Philadelphia legal counsel for Fine's special Pennsylvania Water Resources Committee which restudied the program first mapped out by the Interstate Commission for the Delaware River Basin.

The committee came up with a plan differing sharply from that of Incodel. It won the approval of Fine, however. The New Jersey legislation passed by a special session of the assembly at Trenton, follows generally the lines of the Water Resources Committee.

Hoax Prompts Man To Seek Home In Tree

Hamilton, (AP)—Ontario provincial police yesterday pieced together the strange story of a man who lived in a hollow tree for months because someone told him he was wanted for a murder that was never committed.

The story came out in police court when Stanislaw Wisiewski appeared on a vagrancy charge. Magistrate John E. Robinson remanded him for a week for mental examination.

Wisiewski was arrested after two boys on a hunting expedition in suburban Barton township noticed a pair of boots protruding from a hole at the base of a large tree. They challenged the owner of the boots and out came the man. The boys fled and told police.

Constables found that Wisiewski once worked in a Hamilton hospital doing odd jobs. Someone told him the police were after him—that he had killed a woman.

Wisiewski disappeared from the hospital sometime last October, took to the fields and found the large hollow tree which he made his home. He placed burlap bags inside, drove in spikes so he could climb up and look around without being seen, and lived on food obtained from district farmers.

Agrees With President

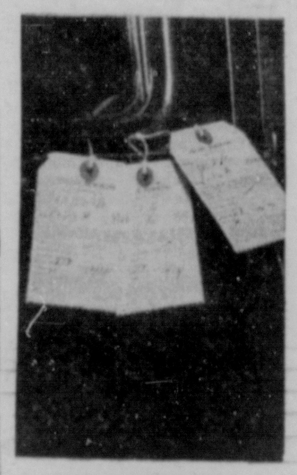
Washington (AP) — Democratic Sen. Edwin C. Johnson of Colorado yesterday endorsed President Eisenhower's plan to withdraw two Army divisions from Korea, suggesting the same thing be done in Europe.

DOUBLE TROUBLE . . .



TRIPLE TROUBLE . . .

QUADRUPLE TROUBLE! Two tags dangle from car door of Atty. Elmer D. Christine in Courthouse Square (top). Three adorn car of Lawrence Clugston, 532 Wallace St., Stroudsburg, on Seventh St., (center). Three flutter from door handle of a New Jersey car on S. Sixth St. (bottom) while still another had been removed by owner and placed inside the car. A nickel was in Christine's meter but hadn't been turned up. A penny was in Clugston's. There was no money in the New Jersey man's meter. (Daily Record Photos)

Fine Raised; Police Shifted By Burgess

Parking tickets by the gross fluttered from cars throughout Stroudsburg's meter district yesterday as an unannounced crackdown began.

The change in parking meter policy was ordered by Burgess Hal H. Harris.

Some of the results:

One — Some cars received as many as four tickets . . . at the rate of one every few hours.

Two — Overtime parkers found they suddenly had to pay 50 cents instead of the 25 cents charged for the last 14 years.

Three — The first ticket cost 50 cents but the second cost up to $1.

Four — Police were told not to turn up the meter when the red violating flag showed . . . so if a coin had been left in the meter and the handle wasn't turned, the car owner got a ticket anyway.

There was still another change —in the duty hours of some of the police force.

Burgess Harris put night officers on day duty, and former day men on the night shift, but declined to discuss the changes.

There had been no statement by Harris or any people officers that the established routine was about to be changed. Police received their orders yesterday morning to carry out the burgess' new instructions starting immediately.

Three officers began doing just that. They patrolled the meter district and shortly began their day-long writing job.

By noon Main St. was buzzing. By 3 p.m. the buzz had a waspish sound.

One citizen looked along a row of cars and commented sourly, "Looks like Flag Day."

At 3 p.m. in only a portion of the meter district there were 32 tickets hanging from car door handles, (Main from Fifth to Eighth, and the meters within the Seventh-Sarah-Sixth Sts. horseshoe).

As the day wore on a few of the cars began to pick up tags . . . one . . . two . . . three . . . even four . . . as officers returned to recheck every few hours.

Annoyed parkers wanted explanations. "New policy," explained the officer. They finally began suggesting that people with tickets take them to the police station to "get it straightened out."

Questioned at his office in the municipal building, shortly after he returned from a late afternoon inspection of his "new policy," Burgess Harris said there was "no need for any story."

Then he added, "It was a bad situation which needed correction, that's all." He indicated he meant especially Sixth and Seventh Sts.

"I'm always gracious," he said. "I've been gracious for 14 years."

Burgess Harris said the parking meter ordinance specifies a minimum $1 fine for overtime parking.

Asked who set the fine at 25 cents, he said, "I did. Fourteen years ago, just to be gracious and nice."

Harris said he ordered police to hang another ticket on any given car for every two hours it was in violation.

The first ticket would cost the violator 50 cents, he said.

What would the second ticket cost?

"It depends on the circumstances," the burgess said.

"What did the second ticket cost today?" Harris was asked.

"I haven't run into that today," the burgess said.

Asked what made him decide to order the "new policy," Harris repeated only that "it was a situation which needed correction" and that there was no specific thing which brought it on.

Last night Police Chief James F. McConnell said he didn't know how many tickets had been written during the day.

"All I can say is, it was a great number."

McConnell said that on a typical day, such as yesterday might have been, an average of around 50 tickets might have been written under the "old policy."

Burgess Harris, contacted to ask how many tickets had been written during the day, said:

"Don't make a story out of this. No need for that. It's a matter between me and the police. You don't have to go into details.

"I'm running this town. And I'm running it for the benefit of the taxpayers, not for any newspaper. I'm going to put a stop to these chisters."

1953 Lynch-Free

Tuskegee, Ala., (AP) — Tuskegee Institute recorded 1953 as another lynch-free year yesterday, but said mob violence is no longer a "valid index" of race relations, and a new formula will be used in the future.

Celebrations Ushering In New Year Tonight Range From Parties To Watchnight Services

The New Year will be welcomed here tonight amid varied forms of celebration, paramount being the traditional watchnight services in area churches where prayers of thanksgiving for 1953 will precede devout wishes for a peaceable and successful 1954.

Thousands are expected to join in the celebration marking the advent of a new year with house parties, festive ceremonies in local clubs and cafes, and New Year's eve film showings in theaters.

Police are among those not expected to relax tonight. They will have extra patrols on the highways to guard innocent motorists against the hazards caused by the fellow who forgot to make his last drink coffee or tea.

For many it will be the start of another long weekend, with scores planning to travel to distant places and usher in 1954 with their families.

It also will start the finale of vacations for hundreds of area school children who are due back at their desks next Monday morning.

Stores will feel the last-minute surge of holiday business today when customers begin stocking up for the weekend, and other peel off the greenbacks for beverages, alcoholic and otherwise. For many it will mean the opportunity to catch up or surpass the 1952 gross sales and spell success or failure for the cash register.

A few industrial plants in the region already are closed for year-end inventory, and their hundreds of workers began signing up this week at the state unemployment office for subsistence. After this weekend the majority of plants will return to normal production and workers will go back on the jobs.

Banks in the county will be open Saturday morning, as will the postoffices which will maintain their regular schedule with windows manned until 1 p. m. and rural and city deliveries on schedule.

Monroe County Court House will be closed Saturday. So will the East Stroudsburg office, Pennsylvania State Employment Service.

State liquor stores will close at 6 tonight and be open the regular hours on Saturday, closing at 9 p. m.

Department of Public Assistance office in Stroudsburg will be closed all day Saturday.

LT. GOV. M. W. VAN BILLIARD, fourth from left, is pictured above presenting the gavel of authority to Dr. C. W. Dupee, new president of Stroudsburg Kiwanis Club at yesterday's meeting. Those in the group left to right, are: A. F. Everitt, secretary; John E. Watt, treasurer; B. Taylor Lacey, past lieutenant governor; Mr. VanBilliard; Parke W. Kunkle, retiring president; F. S. LaBar, past lieutenant governor; Dr. Dupee, and Detleff A. Hansen, vice president. (Daily Record Photo)

Dr. C. W. Dupee Installed President Of Kiwanis Club

Dr. C. W. Dupee, of East Stroudsburg, was inducted as president of the Stroudsburg Kiwanis Club for the year 1954 at the Penn-Stroud Hotel yesterday afternoon. Lt. Gov. Mitchell W. VanBilliard, of the 17th Division, officiated.

The other officers follow: Immediate past president, Parke W. Kunkle; vice president, Detleff A. Hansen; secretary, A. F. Everitt, and treasurer, John E. Watt.

The board of directors for the coming year who were also inducted include Dr. H. C. Cryder, J. B. Dunkelberger, Elwood Hintze, E. H. Laesser, J. H. Stoner, H. L. Sutton and H. G. Tucker.

The new board, officers and directors, will meet next Monday afternoon at 5 at the Penn-Stroud Hotel for their first session.

Parke W. Kunkle, the retiring president, gave a brief resume of his term in office and expressed his appreciation of the cooperation given him by the committee and club members. He was presented with a large leather traveling case in appreciation of his services.

Lt. Gov. VanBilliard, of Bethlehem, complimented the club for its various activities and high standing in the division and outlined the important part the directors and committees play in the success of a service club. J. H. Stoner, on behalf of the club, presented the honored guest with a Eghter with his initials engraved on it.

B. Taylor Lacey, of East Stroudsburg, and Frank S. LaBar, Stroudsburg, past presidents and past lieutenant governors, were presented and Herbert B. Crane, also a past president, who has been in ill health, was welcomed.

The fourth quarterly birthday party was staged for 31 members whose natal days came during the last three months. The decorated cake was sent to the Monroe County General Hospital for the patients.

A letter of appreciation was read from Harold W. Leininger, of Allentown, formerly of Stroudsburg, informing the club he had recovered from his illness and is now regularly employed.

Get-well cards were signed by the club members and sent to Robert R. Hellmann and John R. Lesoine, who are patients at the Monroe County General Hospital.

Merle C. Ostrom and Dr. Earl Willhoite conducted the song period.

Retiring President Kunkle welcomed two visiting Kiwanians, Emil Gastich, of Long Island City, N. Y., and James Philipson, of East Orange, N. J., and also John Willhoite, of Stroudsburg.

Our shop will be closed from Dec. 18 to Jan. 4. Reliable Auto Radiator Co.—Adv.

The New Year

Tomorrow we enter the new year 1954, but before we do and before we make that traditional "New Year's Wish," it is good to pause and review what has happened to us in the Pocono Mountains during the past year.

We have everything to be thankful for. Every parent with a 'teen-age son must give thanks that a shooting war ended in Korea. While no peace of a substantial nature followed, respite was given and a measure of the uncertainty for youth was removed.

This pause gave all of us a chance to re-assess our values, our plans and revise our projects more practically and effectively.

Generally, all of us have prospered. There has been no sudden deflation in our employment, our general economy. We have maintained our position in both instances with the rest of the nation and shown to advantage over many regions.

There were no failures in the civic and welfare efforts. Pocono Mountains citizens again met their community responsibilities.

Material improvements of a regional nature such as $15,000,000 worth of bridges to syphon traffic across the Delaware River in three spots spanning the Eastern front of the Poconos were completed and opened, and plans for the Northeastern Extension of the Pennsylvania Turnpike approached the bidding stage.

There were no epidemics, even polio did not raise its ugly head as high as it did sometimes in the past.

Somehow there was a general release from pressure in all our hearts and endeavors. We did it easier when we tackled major problems in our region. All of us can find and apply the same factor to many personal happenings and achievements in our lives.

For all of this we must give thanks to God Almighty.

The New Year's wish?

It could only be that we again have the guidance and aid of His Divine Providence during 1954.

Shame of a Nation

It should not be necessary again to remind people that it is sheer idiocy to go out and kill themselves on the streets and highways of the nation. But with the shameful display of wanton disregard for life exemplified in the towering Christmas holiday accident toll it is obvious that the reminder can never be repeated often enough.

There was ample warning before the holiday that should be the most joyous of the year. But it was turned to tragedy in too many homes, as it has in past years. Eager-eyed children, whose faces shone with anticipation of Santa's visit, were transformed to tear-stained anguish in too many homes where a loved one had forgotten to be careful.

We have hung up a shameful record of slaughter.

Behind this portrait of national massacre is the twin backdrop of speed and drink. Despite all the warnings; despite the gory history of accidents and their causes, drivers got behind the wheels of their cars and abandoned all regard for themselves and for others. They broke all the rules, and many of them died because they believed rules were made for the other fellow. They thought it couldn't happen to them. But it did, and to innocent victims of their falacious reasoning.

Whether the grisly accident record of the Christmas holiday season will have the salutary effect of bringing motorists to their senses during the New Year's holiday this week is unhappily doubtful. There still are too many fools who believe that it can't happen to them.

The Once Over

—by H. I. Phillips

New Year Greetings

Welcome, Nineteen-Fifty-Four . . .
What a job you've got in store!
Take a seat; you're hardly in,
Yet you've had one "on the chin";
Infant through you are, it's clear
You've a cauliflower ear;
Kid, you don't look in the pink—
You forget to duck, I think.

II

Once your coming was a pipe;
You could be the gentle type.
Fresh, unscarred and gay and glad (Back before the world went mad);
Once upon a time you could
Enter feeling pretty good,
Hear the horns and festive words
And not moan, "It's for the birds!"

III

All you needed was endurance—
(Now you carry life insurance!)
Once you came in slight attire—
Now you're costumed for barbed wire;
You could fly in freely maybe . . .
Radar now is "must stuff," baby;
Geiger Counter? ABSOLUTELY!)

IV

Kid, I tooted extra wildly
Went all out, to put it mildly,
Treated you with throat quite gritty,
Yet I knew you wanted pity;
I could see, in this connection,
You had one big need . . . PROTECTION!
Once the world left cares and pains out . . .
NOW IT'S SET TO KNOCK YOUR BRAINS OUT!

New York is to permit shorter taxis after years of argument . . . They will use less gas taking a customer out of his way . . . We understand that when stuck in a shorter cab in crosstown traffic your patience seems longer for some reason . . . Elmer Twitchell, an autoist who has been knocked around by taxis for years, welcomes the shorter and lighter stock cab with ghoulish glee . . . "It will make the fight even," he declares, "and give me a chance to knock hell out of a taxi for a change" . . . Gotham has a new police commissioner, Francis Adams . . . The answer when he asks a prisoner, "Know who I am?" is obviously, "I don't know you from Adams." . . . The Knights of Columbus purchase of the Yankee Stadium will assure more "knight" baseball . . . Former Police Commissioner Monaghan of New York is now Czar of harness horse racing in New York State and we hear the season will open with a "Monaghandicap" . . . Mr. Monaghan stepped directly from a squad car into a trotting sulky . . . Henry Fonda and John Hodiak are flawless in "The Caine Mutiny" but Lloyd Nolan as the tyrannical commander steals the show . . . Here's one of the novelty hits of theatrical history: a drama without a woman in the cast, no action whatever and the entire story told through a naval court inquiry . . . Funniest gag on the slowdown in business is Al Birnie's "Even people who don't intend to pay are not buying anything." . . . John L. Lewis leaped into the New York waterfront situation and is teaching his eyebrows to swim . . . We wanna hear John sing, "I Cover the Waterfront," assisted by a King Cole orchestra . . . Crack of other prisoners as Mossadegh arrived in the hoosegow: "This is gonna make you hysterical." . . . Oddest name among show business women comics: Hermione Gingold . . . Sounds like something out of ancient Greece and modern Bronx . . . Sonja Henie announces she is divoreing her second husband to whom she has been married a little over three years . . . Conditions grew icy fast . . . This sort of knocks in the head the old idea of dreams come true when a girl lets a boy carry her skates . . . Dick Lee, former public relations chief for Yale, takes over as the new mayor of New Haven at 37 and we hear he is working on a plan to develop an elm with blue leaves . . . Lee, a top man at Yale and now head of the city government, never went to college . . . Graduated from public schools, he became a reporter, got elected as an alderman at the age of 22 and has been going places ever since . . . Speaking of the Elm City there's a dentist there named Dr. HERTZ.

GRANDFATHER'S CLOCK

First Congress Measures Deal With Expiring Laws

Washington — The first detailed installment of the legislative program President Eisenhower is mapping out for the coming session of Congress is now in the hands of Republican congressional leaders.

This initial enumeration covers only important laws which will expire in 1954 unless they are re-enacted.

Later lists will deal with the new measures the President hopes to put through. Both categories were discussed in general terms at his recent strategy conferences with the GOP chiefs.

Particularly significant in the first installment is the disclosure that no decision has yet been made on two highly explosive issues:

The 20-year-old Reciprocal Trade Act which expires next June 12.

The temporary $5-a-month increase in federal old-age assistance that the Truman regime instituted to meet soaring living costs. This provision expires next September 30.

On December 7, this column reported that Speaker Joe Martin was telling colleagues the famed Trade Act will be renewed in order to avoid a disruptive tariff battle within the GOP in an uncertain campaign year. Martin explained this shelving would be temporary, and that the Administration does not intend to permanently junk the law.

According to Martin, new legislation covering all aspects of the tariff problem is contemplated for the 1956 Congress.

White House insiders say the old-age assistance question is still under consideration because it is part of the overall social security problem. The Administration's program on that is still in the formative stage, and until it is completed nothing will be done on the $5-a-month matter.

Heavy Calendar — Most of the expiring laws relate to veterans' benefits and emergency defense measures.

With a few notable exceptions the President wants them extended for another year.

His chief detailed recommendations in addition to the two previously listed, are as follows:

| Statute | Date of Expiration |
|---|---|
| Authorize the federal government to construct temporary defense housing; also to grant aid for community facilities and services in critical defense areas. | June 30, 1954 |
| | Action Requested |
| To insure mortgages on privately financed housing at military installations. | Extend one year |
| | June 30, 1954 |
| Preference to veterans for admission to public housing projects. | Extend one year |
| | June 30, 1954 |
| Federal aid for school construction in critical defense areas. | Extend one year |
| | June 30, 1954 |
| Direct home loans to veterans. | Allow to expire |
| | April 30, '54 |
| Rent control in critical defense housing areas. | Allow to expire |
| | April 30, 1954 |
| Preference for veterans in purchasing or renting new housing. | Recommendation later |
| | Dec. 31, '53 |
| Industrial Mobilization Renegotiation Act. | Extend one year |
| | June 30, '54 |
| Authority to President to expedite contracts. | Extend one year |
| | June 30, 1954 |
| Emergency powers to the Federal Civil Defense Administrator to control highways, communications, etc., in the event of enemy attack. | Extend one year |
| | Dec. 31, '54 |
| Authorize the 3 armed services to construct military installations for defense purposes throughout the world. | Recommendation later |
| | October 2, 1954 |
| Tax exemptions for servicemen in Korea. | Recommendation later |
| | March 15, 1954 |
| Final filing date for $1,600 to disabled veterans for purchase of automobile. | Extend one year |
| | June 30, 1954 |
| Authorize the President to distribute surplus agricultural commodities for emergency relief to friendly countries. | Extend one year |
| | June 30, 1954 |
| Administration of mandated islands in the Pacific by civilians — instead of naval officers. | Extend one year |
| | June 30, 1954 |
| Authorize the Federal Reserve Board to purchase up to $5,000,000,000 in government securities direct from Treasury or in open market. | Extend one year |

More Important To Stabilize Dollar Than Lower Taxes, If No War In '54

A Year Without Shooting

This can be said for 1953: It was a year that ended without a shooting war, except in Indo-China, where the war has become hot again. In these troubled times, disturbances were abundant but not shooting. Korea remained a seat of disorder, but prolonged truce talks continued throughout the year and led to nothing. The talk was plentiful; the results were trivial. The State Department has not yet learned that Soviet Russia uses even talk as a weapon of war.

True, a slight outbreak occurred between the Jews and the Arabs, the Italians and the Yugoslavs. Kashmir remains a danger spot and the relations between Indai and Pakistan continue antagonistic. But in 1953, fewer people were killed in wars to most of which they were related without their direct consent.

The United States lost in a measure its position of world leadership. The nations of the British Commonwealth, particularly Great Britain, Canada and India, asserted a greater degree of political independence, although Great Britain continued to accept financial and other economic aid from this country. In France and Italy and nearly every other Western European country, neutralist movements of massive dimensions developed as a response to the challenge of prospective war. Actually such movements were aimed more at the United States than at Soviet Russia as these countries were supposed to be allied to the United States and partly dependent upon its bounty.

In Latin America, neutralism became a serious menace. President Eisenhower sent his brother, Milton, on a trip to Latin American countries to study the situation first hand. It would appear that in some of these countries, particularly the Argentine, Milton Eisenhower's ministry was of value to the United States. The President also sent the Vice President, Richard Nixon, on a trip to Asia. The results of Nixon's trip are not yet known.

In Latin America, Communism reared its ugly head, a Marxist state coming into existence in Guatemala and in British Guiana. The British killed off the Marxist state in British Guiana with excellent ruthlessness, but Guatemala is as Marxist as Communist China. The same forces are moving into Honduras and Costa Rica. The evidence is clear that the Roosevelt "Good Neighbor Policy" was a flop in these countries and that while the United States was fussing all over Europe, it neglected its front door. The spread of Marxism is to be anticipated in other Latin American countries to which the Kremlin has devoted its energies for more than two decades.

The absence of a shooting war gave the military authorities in the United States the opportunity to review and revise our military plans and policies. Atomic warfare has altered the strategy and logistics of war just as the use of gunpowder produced vast changes in its time. The nature of war is determined by the character of the weapons employed and the means of producing and conveying those weapons. Under Admiral Arthur W. Radford, our military policies are being revised to meet changing factors and conditions. This will undoubtedly result in the reduction of military manpower, the increase in planes in the Air Force, and submarines in the Navy. In a word, our military establishment is being made over from a sentimental to a practical operation. I use the word, sentimental, in the sense that the infantrymen, who have generally controlled the Army, over-emphasize foot-soldiers despite new conditions.

Should no shooting war occur in 1954, it ought to be possible to balance the budget, which could help to stabilize the dollar and lower taxes. It is even more important to stabilize the dollar than to lower taxes, because the advance of the value of the dollar can overcome a high tax rate. In 1953, the American dollar was worth about 50 cents. At the beginning of the Eisenhower Administration, George Humphrey, Secretary of the Treasury, announced a sound fiscal program, which he has not been able to carry through to any degree in 1953. It is hoped that he may achieve much of it during 1954, if the country can avoid a shooting war. If to that is added a reduction in foreign aid and the elimination of waste in the Executive Branch of government, the value of the dollar may be sufficiently increased to restore confidence in its future.

A Happy, Healthy, and Thrifty New Year to all!

Looking At Life

—by Erich Brandeis

That column I wrote the other day about the woman from Muleshoe, Texas, who complained that life was very dull in her town, certainly brought a flood of comment from readers all over the country.

But I think the most interesting one came from Cape John in Nova Scotia.

"Life isn't dull in OUR town," wrote the lady and enclosed a clipping. "Maybe it's because we use our IMAGINATION up here.

"I suggest that people who live in small places where 'nothing ever happens' use THEIR imagination.

"Imagination is a magic carpet that takes you anywhere, in no time at all, at no expense whatsoever."

I read the clipping. It proved, indeed, that folks can have the most interesting experiences without ever leaving the kitchen range or getting out of their slippers.

Up in Nova Scotia the phantom ship of the Northumberland Strait is sailing the seas again, the local paper said, her slender masts spouting fire, and ablaze from stem to stern.

Residents of the village swear that they have seen the ship several times in one week. Mrs. Aldon Langille was the first one to see her. She looked out of the window one night when the Strait between the mainland and Prince Edward Island was windscuffed and choppy.

She told her neighbors about it and soon the story spread. Two days later nearly all the residents of Cape John watched the blazing vessel gliding up the Strait. She was visible for an hour, then disappeared in the dark of the night.

"It has to be seen to be believed," the villagers say.

Some people claim, of course, that the phantom ship is an optical illusion. Others say that it is the ghost of a Scottish immigrant ship that started out for Nova Scotia and became lost in a storm.

But whatever it is, whenever anyone comes too near her, she vanishes immediately, as several sea captains from the nearby town of Pictou will testify. They set out to catch the Phantom—but when they came close, she vanished into thin air.

Mariners believe that the appearance of a phantom ship presages a severe storm, although after this last appearance the weather was bright and sunny.

You'd be surprised what fun you can have if you will only use your IMAGINATION.

Read a simple story about an adventure, a trip, a celebrity wedding or anything exciting, in your newspaper or favorite magazine.

Then close your eyes and start on your imaginative journey.

You become the traveler's companion on his trip. You go tiger-hunting in Africa or you cut your way through the South American jungles, or you climb Mt. Everest.

Or, if you prefer, imagination could have made you a guest at Milton Berle's recent wedding and you might have tasted of his champagne and of his caviar. Why not? There were 1,000 guests present, so why not you?

The possibilities are endless. Bon Voyage to you!

Route For Northeast Extension Of Turnpike To Be Decided

Mid-January Indicated As Decision Date

Harrisburg, (AP)—The Pennsylvania Turnpike Commission hopes to decide its route for the proposed 115-mile northeastern extension of the state's toll road by mid-January.

Commissioner David Watson said yesterday that members should have the final report from their consulting engineers by Jan. 11.

Holding up definite plans for the section of dual highway to run from the present turnpike, at a point east of the Susquehanna River, up to the New York State border are a couple of uncertain stretches in the anthracite coal regions.

"There appear to be two stretches in that area that our engineers apparently are not satisfied with," Watson said.

The northeastern extension was approved by the 1951 General Assembly. Its construction will be financed, like all other stretches of the toll road, by bonds issued by the Turnpike Commission.

Watson said the exact mileage and terminal point of the northeastern extension will depend upon what New York state authorities do about joining it with their New York throughway.

The anticipated terminal point is expected, however, to be in the vicinity of Binghamton, N. Y., a junction point with another proposed leg of the Pennsylvania Turnpike to run from a point west of the upper Susquehanna River eastward to the upper Delaware, which was approved by the 1953 Legislature.

Meanwhile, the commission's top priority project—the Delaware River Extension running across Montgomery and Bucks County—is proceeding apace.

That 33-mile section is expected to be finished by early autumn in 1954 if weather conditions hold up. That will be some weeks ahead of the original schedule.

The Delaware extension will mean a 360-mile four-lane concrete highway running from the western border of Pennsylvania to the eastern border at the Delaware River.

Plans call for linking the Pennsylvania Turnpike with the New Jersey Turnpike via a new bridge over the Delaware. The state of New Jersey announced recently that the legal way has been cleared for construction of the bridge, expected to span the river just above Bristol.

Surveys also are continuing for construction of a proposed Erie extension of the turnpike from the Pittsburgh area to Erie County.

PRINCIPALS AT YESTERDAY'S luncheon in the Tom Quick Inn, Milford, following dedication of the $2,000,000 Milford-Montague bridge are shown here. Included are Major H. H. Allen of J. E. Greiner Co., consulting engineers; Leslie Brown and Dr. Russell Stone, New Jersey members of the Delaware River Joint Toll Bridge Commission; T. S. Stevenson, U. S. Bureau of Public Roads; John C. ## Weather To Turn Colder; 'Snow Flurries' Forecast

The weatherman straddled the fence yesterday—he didn't say yes; he didn't say no.

After taking a searching glance at his instruments and a couple of long looks at the grey skies he still came up with a conservative guess for New Year's weekend weather.

For Eastern Pennsylvania, said his official forecast, it would probably "turn colder" tonight. There would also be "some snow flurries" in the mountain regions.

Temperatures are expected to stay down near the freezing mark or below.

How much snow might be expected, the weatherman couldn't say. Nor could be say what, exactly, constitutes a snow "flurry."

The forecast offered little promise, one way or the other, to local residents who might be contemplating a trip out of the county.

Just about the only well-known authority willing to commit itself to a solid "yes or no" last night was the "Old Farmer's Almanac," considered by many a usually reliable source.

Said the "Almanac": For December—"Raw and dull all month with nothing very exciting or harmful."

For January: "First ten days will bring cold storms. Then it will be windy and boisterous until the January Thaw about the 23rd. Last week will be bitter cold."

Lacking assurance or discouragement from official U. S. Weather Bureau forecasters, local residents might do well to take a second glance at the sky lest they get lost in a hurry in a flurry.

CLU Postpones Meeting Date

The regular meeting of the Central Labor Union has been postponed from this weekend to Sunday, Jan. 10.

Meeting was scheduled for this Sunday. It will be held at the CLU clubrooms in East Stroudsburg.

$300 Damage In Collision

Damages totaled an estimated $300 in a two-car collision at 4:35 p.m. yesterday on Sarah St., in Stroudsburg. There were no injuries.

Stroudsburg police said Mrs. Dora M. Mader, 30, East Stroudsburg RD3, was going east. She stopped at a stop sign, then started to drive across the intersection and collided with the car of Donald Predmore, 27, Swiftwater, police said.

The right front fender and door of Predmore's car were damaged, as were the left front fender, bumper, radiator and grille on the Mader car.

Vocational Ag Teachers To Meet

Area vocational agriculture teachers will meet Thursday night, Jan. 7, in the office of Wilmer Frisbie, vocational agriculture supervisor.

Future Farmers of America county officers will meet at the same time.

Notice To Water Consumers

Water bills for fourth quarter, 1953, are now due and should be paid on or before Dec. 31st.

Monroe County Water Supply Co.

Motor Club Membership Totals 1,891

The Pocono Mountains Motor Club now has a record enrollment of 1,891 members.

The total figure reached its highest mark in history last night when the Board of Governors elected 21 additional new members.

Mrs. Cynthia Watt, secretary-manager, reported the Christmas membership campaign of the club was successful with 51 renewals and 37 new members enrolled.

Mrs. Watt was authorized to attend the 1954 annual secretaries' and managers' conference of the Pennsylvania Motor Federation, to be held at Harrisburg Feb. 12 and 13.

Gerald M. Anderson's resignation as a member of the board due to pressure of business, was accepted with regret.

The board voted to mail copies of the traffic survey made last Spring by J. E. Johnston, AAA traffic engineering manager, Washington, D. C., to all club members. Many suggestions were included covering traffic in the Stroudsburgs as well as environs. It was carried in The Daily Record at the time.

There was a material drop in road emergency service the past month due to favorable weather conditions. There were only 10 local calls and 12 foreign, costing $93. The cost the preceding month was $190.

The new members elected follow:

Stroudsburg: Miss Jeannette E. MacLeod, Hans Ewe, Robert E. Banks, Mrs. Peggy Anderson.

East Stroudsburg: Mrs. Edna Whitmore, Wilmer Warner, Stanley S. Smith Sr., Mrs. Caroline Corson, Miss Myrtle Angle.

Buck Hill Falls: Louis H. Harvison, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur R. Dana, Mrs. Rosa H. Anderson, Miss Agnes McGinley; Canadensis, Rodney Shoesmith Sr., Charles B. Kimmel.

Roseto: Joseph F. Martocci Jr. and Nicholas J. Martocci.

Delaware Water Gap: James M. Stacey; Echo Lake, Klaus R. Wojak; Bushkill, Mrs. Marcia DeRocco.

Board members present were: R. LeRoy Dengler, president; A. F. Everitt, George H. Costenbader, M. E. Leffler, G. P. O'Neill, H. A. Ahnert, F. S. LaBar and Mrs. Watt, secretary-manager.

12 Justice Commissions Not Lifted

Twelve men re-elected or newly elected as justices of the peace in Monroe County will be unable to conduct business of that office until they pick up their commissions at the recorder's office and take the oath of office.

If the commissions are not picked up by Jan. 15, they become void and the justice-elect loses his post, according to Recorder Floyd Butz.

The 12 are Arthur L. Yetter, Smithfield; John A. Brislin, Stroud; Margaret Dyson, Tunkhannock; Francis B. Widdos and J. S. Knauff, Paradise; John McCole, Middle Smithfield; A. Richard Snyder, Hamilton; J. T. Hauser, Delaware Water Gap; Vance C. Megargle Jr., Barrett; Nathaniel Gruber, Polk; and John R. Lesoine and Edward F. Metzgar, Pocono Township.

Court Grants Five Decrees In Divorce

Five divorce decrees have been handed down by President Judge Fred W. Davis, the office of Prothonotary James Gould said yesterday.

Divorced were:

Mildred V. Christman, 605 Ann St., Stroudsburg, from William R. Christman, 18 Roller St., East Stroudsburg.

Louise D. Smith, 4 Oakland Ave., East Stroudsburg, from Howard E. Smith, 121 Lee Ave., Stroudsburg.

Mildred Frogge, 206 E. Brown St., East Stroudsburg, from Lovala Frogge, Hampton, Fla.

Marion Morley, Stroudsburg, from Maurice D. Morley, Ballston Springs, N.Y.

Loretta E. Smith, 38 Knapp St., East Stroudsburg from John W. Smith Jr., Foxtown Hill, Stroudsburg.

Organization Of PTA Scheduled

Brodheadsville—An organizational meeting for the new Parent-Teachers Association at Chestnuthill School will be held Thursday, Jan. 14, at 8 p.m., in the school building here.

Mrs. James G. Kitchen, county PTA president, will address the group, according to Mrs. Marie Schultz, temporary chairman.

Regional Churches To Hold Watchnight Services Tonight

A number of area churches plan watch night services for tonight, so members can pass the old year away with prayer and hymns.

Some of the churches which have scheduled such sercices are:

Mountainhome Methodist Church, Rev. Harold A. MacMurray, 11:15 p. m., to 12:05 a. m.

Kunkletown St. Matthew's Church, union service for Lutheran and Reformed congregations, starting at 11 p. m.

Berean Mennonite Brethren in Christ Church, S. Sixth St., Stroudsburg, Rev. Earl M. Hosler, 10 p. m., special music, prayer and praise.

Newfoundland Moravian Church, Rev. Frederick J. Fulmer, love feast at 10 p. m., Watch Night service 11:30 p. m.

Stroudsburg First Pentecostal Assembly of God, Rev. J. Russell Cairns, candlelight service, 10:30 p. m.

Stroudsburg Methodist Church, 11 p. m.

Stroudsburg Pilgrim Holiness Church, Rev. Edward T. Houston, 10 p. m.

Roseto Presbyterian Church, Rev. Starzer.

Ackermanville Evangelical United Brethren Church, 10 p. m.

Bangor Salem Evangelical United Brethren Church, Rev. A. M. Herman, 10:30 p. m.

Salvation Army Citadel, 78 S. Courtland St., East Stroudsburg, 11 p. m., with Capt. Charles Baker speaking on "Return to the Old Wells," and on the Army's spiritual crusade for 1954. Plans will be made for the mid-Winter camp meetings Jan. 8 through 24. Special music and a prayer session will mark the new year's beginning. A praise meeting will be held at 8 p. m. with Capt. Baker speaking on "The Object of Our Affections." Refreshments will be served between meetings.

Debate Adjourned

United Nations, N. Y., (AP)—The Security Council, still divided over what to do about Israel's Jordan River power project, voted yesterday to adjourn debate on the issue until the new year.

In Grateful Acknowledgment

As another year passes, the Monroe County Water Supply Company extends its congratulations to all its customers on the accomplishments of the past year. While experiencing the greatest drought in its history of more than half a century, it is a matter of pride that few customers have been inconvenienced by the general water shortage and only those, who in late years built their homes beyond reach of our service. Even this small deficiency is being provided for by the installation of a new and large additional supply main from the distributing reservoir to the main town. This new main, which has been installed to connect with the new Phillips St. line, will be completed in early summer, all the pipe being already on the ground and only waiting favorable weather for completion.

While many towns have been out of water, Stroudsburg has been well supplied, and of great importance the main reservoir has at all times been filled and ready for service in case of a disastrous fire. Fortunately the reservoir supply was not called upon.

We are truly grateful for the fine co-operation of the public in conserving the water supply and trust our efforts in the public interest will be appreciated. HAPPY NEW YEAR.

Four Youths Enlist In Marine Corps

Four Monroe County youths have enlisted in the U. S. Marine Corps, according to S/Sgt. James E. Wills, non-commissioned officer in charge of the Corps Recruiting Sub-Station in the Stroudsburg Postoffice Building.

Enlisting this week were:

Reginald A. Flowers, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Flowers, 810 Church St., Stroudsburg.

Richard D. Storm, 18, of 89 Prospect St., East Stroudsburg.

Lewis P. Fish, 17, son of Mrs. Virginia Fish, Bushkill.

Arthur Garris Jr., 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Garris Sr., Bushkill.

The men will report to Marine Corps Recruit Depot at Parris Island, S. C., this month to begin their "boot" training. The ten-week instruction period includes training in drilling, inspections and teamwork.

On completion of their boot training the youths will be promoted to the rank of private first class and receive ten days leave to visit their families before reporting to new stations for duty.

Letters To The Editor

The Daily Record welcomes Letters to The Editor. The subjects discussed and the opinions expressed are strictly those of the writer and not necessarily the opinions of this newspaper. All letters to The Editor must be signed with a bona fide address given. Such signatures and addresses will be withheld if the writer desires.

To The Editor:

Stroudsburg, as everyone knows, has one of the finest Police Departments in the country. Countless times a year you hear strangers and people from other nearby towns hand out praise for our Police, as being friendly, courteous and yet efficient.

I certainly for one, and from what you hear on the streets, think many others agree heartily with "The Devoted Stroudsburg Resident's" letter that appeared in this morning's Daily Record.

It would seem greatly remiss if the Department's now fine morale were seriously impaired by misuse of seniority rights, inequality in pay, or insufficient remuneration.

Let us think very seriously before we run the possible chance of wrecking the fine Police Department we now have.

Check Crooks Milk America Of $400 Million Yearly, Fleecing People Of Modest Means

By Grover Brinkman
Central Press Correspondent

Washington—A lot of dough—400 million! Yet that's the annual "take" the check forger gets from the American public. The estimate is conservative, and the amount is growing each year.

"Well, at least it doesn't concern me!" you say. "I'm a little fellow, and my checking account is small. Crooks never bother folk like me!"

Sorry, you were never more in error! Check crooks victimize people of modest means far more often than they do the wealthy. That's because small checks are less likely to be suspected than those for large amounts.

That check you cashed yesterday was one of more than 60 million cashed by Americans every banking day in the year. If you are careless, that check you will write tomorrow may wind up in the hands of a check artist who will make you a poor man overnight.

In America $150 is handled in checks for every dollar in cash. Checking accounts for the man in the street have become commonplace only since World War II, but total of checks written today is four times as great as in 1939.

Along with this tremendous upsurge in the use of checks has come an ever-increasing army of crooks seeking a fast buck through forgery and counterfeiting.

Check fraud is now the fastest growing crime in the country! The $400 million these crooks get from us each year is a sum greater than our annual fire loss.

There are six principal types of check fraud: Altering the payee name; raising the amount; altering the date; counterfeiting existing checks; concocting fictitious checks, and forging signatures, either of the drawer or endorser.

Check raising is, for the victim, one of the most dangerous forms of swindling. The check itself and the signature are both genuine. The crook has merely raised the amount. Sometimes it is hard to prove you have been victimized.

Take, for example, the case of the Chicago contractor, whose check was raised from $27 to $27,000. He was even suspected of the crime. It took him years to prove his innocence, by which time both his health and his business were ruined.

The unfortunate man became so distressed that, in the final act of the tragedy, he shot and killed his wife, his young son, and himself. Too late his innocence was proven!

Many check raisers obtain the raw material of their craft by stealing checks. Guard your mailbox—check crooks will not only steal your checks but your bank statements and canceled checks so that they can learn how your bank account stands and how you draw your checks and sign your name.

Your check book too, is valuable. A swindler can quickly turn it into cash. Only recently, a maid in St. Louis stole blank checks from her employers, forged their signatures and used stolen charge account cards as identification in cashing the checks. When her employers woke up to the use, they were $3,000 poorer.

Altering the payee name was a ruse often used by one Jacob Sackstein. Although crippled by arthritis so he could hardly write, he succeeded in clipping banks for $25,000. He would grab letters from the piles stacked on mail boxes in the lobbies of busy office buildings during the late afternoon rush and alter the names on checks thus secured.

Morgan Barber company, for instance, became Morgan Barberes Cole. Theo. Browne Pharmacy became Theo Browne Bhasnaego. Some of the names he chose came right out of Dickens and W. C. Fields.

The Sackstein case also demonstrates the necessity of demanding adequate identification before cashing checks for strangers. Sackstein took out fishing licenses in the name of the payee of his stolen checks and used these for identification. He even pulled the stunt three times in the same bank the same day, using three different licenses!

Date alterations have been used to cash "stopped" checks. One check, originally drawn in 1946 and on which payment was stopped, was successfully cashed three years later simply by altering a single figure.

Development of a genuine safety paper, which can be purchased only in final check form, is a big stumbling block to today's check-raisers. As soon as the paper is tampered with, the word "Void" appears.

Modern check writing equipment and protectors are also a big help. However, people still write checks with pencils, make them payable to "Cash" or "Bearer," and do dozens of other careless things in issuing their checks.

The origin of checks as we know them today is uncertain, but they probably began with the Bills of Exchange used by Lombardy merchants of the Fourteenth Century to avoid the hazards of transporting gold. By 1880 checks were in wide enough usage to attract crooks all over the world.

Forgery, in early England, generally ended by the culprit being hanged in the public square. In 1817, the Bank of England "stretched the necks" of no less than 142 forgers—but it failed to stop check forging.

Check crooks know we're innately careless in our check writing. That's why they're so successful. That's why we're the victims!

Harold Edwards Moves Offices

Harold C. Edwards, Stroudsburg attorney, opened new law offices yesterday afternoon.

For the past 38 years, Edwards has been practicing law in his offices at the Stroudsburg Security Trust Co. building. Yesterday he moved into new offices at 700 Monroe St.

Edwards graduated from Bucknell University in 1915, then began studying law in the office of W. B. Eilenberger and Harvey Huffman, Stroudsburg.

When Hoffman died in 1938, the firm became known as Eilenberger and Edwards. Mr. Eilenberger died in April, 1940.

Fellow attorneys and courthouse officials were on hand between 4:30 and 6 p.m. yesterday to mark the opening of the new office.

Treasury Position

Washington, (AP)—The position of the Treasury Dec. 28: Cash balance, $4,959,203,448.23; budget receipts, $25,804,556,771.77; budget expenditures, $33,957,918,806.95; budget deficit, $8,153,362,035.18; total debt, $274,848,540,621.14.

Latin Lover Rubirosa Weds Babs Hutton

New York (AP)—Dime store heiress Barbara Hutton, one of the world's richest women, was married late yesterday to her fifth husband, Latin lover Porfirio Rubirosa. She is his fourth wife.

Shortly before the wedding, the bride referred to her vast wealth and, with tears in her eyes, asked of reporters:

"Do you think anyone will give him credit for loving me because I'm myself?"

An unbidden ghost at the simple, 10-minute Park Ave. ceremony was the blonde vision of actress Zsa Zsa Gabor, now playing a night club stint more than 2,000 miles away in Las Vegas, Nev.

Miss Gabor claimed Tuesday that Rubirosa blacked her eye in a fit of temper when she gave him the gate, but still implored her as late as 24 hours ago to marry him. Zsa Zsa said he offered to ditch Miss Hutton, almost at the altar.

Less than an hour before her marriage Miss Hutton, pale, blonde and shaky, met the press and bitterly turned aside questions about Zsa Zsa.

"I'm terribly sorry, I don't know her," the 41-year-old Woolworth heiress said. "I happen to be a lady. I'm terribly sorry."

Rubirosa, tall, gallant and 45, interrupted angrily to denounce Zsa Zsa for picturing him as a rebuffed suitor who landed in Miss Hutton's arms on the rebound.

Miss Hutton, whose fortune is estimated at some 40 million dollars, became a citizen of Rubirosa's native Dominican Republic Tuesday night, as a prelude to their marriage.

It was her second switch of allegiance. She renounced her American citizenship some years ago to become a Danish citizen during her second marriage to Kurt Haugwitz-Reventlow, the father of her only child, 17-year-old Lance Reventlow.

The Dominican consul general Dr. Joaquin Salazer, performed today's marriage ceremony at his Park Ave. home. A handful of close friends and relatives looked on.

Mrs. Wixted Sells House In Barrett

Mrs. Helen Wixted, Brooklyn, N. Y., sold a Barrett Township residence, according to deeds on record yesterday at the office of Recorder Floyd Butz.

The property, adjoining land of Robert N. Moses, was purchased by Mr. and Mrs. Carl A. Texter, Mountainhome.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Euchler, Pocono Township, transferred to William Freed Jr., Quakertown, Pa., a Pocono tract on Sullivan road.

A Middle Smithfield Township tract on the Bushkill-Marshalls Creek road was bought by Mr. and Mrs. Arthur L. Yetter, Smithfield Township, from Mr. and Mrs. Harold J. Smith, Middle Smithfield Township.

Other transfers:

Marie R. Jachens, St. Petersburg, Fla., to Nan Brock, Tobyhanna Township, a Naomi Pines property.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth O. Bond, Chestnuthill Township, to LeRoy S. Shupp, that district, a Chestnuthill tract on Route 115.

Hamilton Township School District transferred to Mr. and Mrs. Jay F. Starner, Allentown, the Saylorsburg schoolhouse and an acre of ground on Route 115, for $1,650.

Let's assure them a bright future! Support your schools this year!

It's a bumper crop of babies America will produce this year! And when these toddlers, 8,000,000 strong, are ready for the classroom, are our schools going to be prepared to receive them? Are we going to have the buildings, teachers, books and supplies necessary to assure these future citizens of the kind of education they deserve?

If we are—then we've got to pitch in now! Tomorrow may be too late. Put at the top of your New Year's Resolution List a promise to support our community's schools! Remember—better schools are your responsibility! Don't gamble with our nation's future. Your children need schools! Our schools need you!

WISHING ALL OUR FRIENDS A HAPPY NEW YEAR

Here comes 1954 . . . a bouncing, beaming, happy-go-lucky youngster, bright with the promise of 365 brand new days. May the joy that surrounds his arrival signalize the deep and abiding happiness he holds in store for you and yours. May the high hopes with which you greet him be richly fulfilled by his performance. And when, in his turn, he bows off the scene, may his memory long be cherished as one of the very best years of your life

Just Between Us

—By Bobby Westbrook

Sometimes columns, instead of being written, just happen. There I was trying to think of some pleasant way to end an old, and somewhat frenzied, year of columns. Something different than wishing you all "Happy New Year". Then lo and behold, the column walked right up to me—wearing a purple hat with a perky purple veil and a matching scarf at her neck.

For this is the story of a woman who made her own New Year and right in the middle of September, too, and of a woman who has found a proven antidote for grief. Grief can be a poison, you know, and a powerful one Aunt Polly discovered after her husband's death.

If you don't know Aunt Polly, the rest of her name wouldn't matter. But most of you do know Aunt Polly—she has friends and family and interests galore, so it isn't the usual story of a widow with no outside reserves to call upon. She'd banked enough good will to last a lifetime.

Aunt Polly she was to one of the first Girl Scout Troops in the county, and she told the best ghost stories—stories which Girl Scouts now growing grey still tell to their children.

When her own children were well up in school, Aunt Polly went back to college—for her own enjoyment and enrichment, for fun.

During the war, she was the spark plug of the Serviceman's Canteen at the station which fed so many soldiers, and brought grateful letters from many a battlefield.

To this day, there is never a birthday or anniversary of a friend or a friend's child or a friend's grandchild that goes uncheered by a card from Aunt Polly.

Yet all that wasn't strong enough medicine, she discovered. It needed a new and powerful drug—a new challenge and a new need to be filled.

Well, it so happened that in the community where she spent the summer, the American Legion and the service clubs and other interested groups had banded together to do something about the retarded children—the ones with epilepsy and cerebral palsy or perhaps severe mental deficiency.

What they needed was a teacher—and there was Aunt Polly with her teacher's training, her years of experience with Girl Scouts and children and grandchildren, and her own deep feeling of community service. Aunt Polly and those whose need was so much greater than her own made an irresistible combination.

So there she is busy as a beaver—teaching the children, being a blessing to their parents, taking courses in a nearby college for the highly specialized work, and now home for Christmas as perky as Spring itself.

New Year's Day for most of us means resolutions on a new and better year. But when you're like Aunt Polly you make your own New Year and a new life, too, if need be, without waiting for a new calendar.

Miss Yost Engaged To Harry Price

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Yost of the Lackawanna Trail, announce the engagement of their daughter, Katherine Ann, to Harry E. Price, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Price of Cresco.

Miss Yost, a graduate of Stroudsburg High School, is employed as a secretary by the Pennsylvania Department of Highways.

Mr. Price, a graduate of Barrett High School, served two years with the U. S. Army in Germany. He is presently employed by William Evans as an electrician.

No date has been set for the wedding.

Skating Party Is Scheduled For New Year's Eve

Young people of Grace Lutheran Church, including a cooperative effort of the Crusaders' Class and the Lutheran Youth Fellowship, are planning a New Year's Eve skating party at Carmen Rink at Minisink Hills, with skating beginning at 8 and continuing until 12:15 a.m.

Rev. William F. Wunder and several couples of the Crusaders' Class will serve as chaperones and a general invitation is extended to all teen-agers of the area to attend this skating party, which is open to the general public.

Plans are being made to hold a brief service of prayer as the Old Year dies and the New Year comes in, beginning several minutes before midnight. All skaters will join hands in a huge circle around the rink while prayer is offered to God in Christ for past blessings and seeking His continued guidance and help in 1954.

Jones, John Cowling, Wesley Jones, Russell E. Kneebone, William Brown, and their guests, Ann LaBar, Mildred Amy, Mrs. Rose Pipher.

Teen-Age GOP Club Members At Holiday Dance

The Teen Age Republican Club at their holiday dance last night at Wyckoff's Recreation Rooms managed to combine in their decorations Christmas, and New Year's and the Republican Party. A lighted Christmas tree was decorated with tiny elephants with sequin eyes. Colorful bunches of balloons and serpentine on the ceiling also dangled elephant cut-outs.

There was dancing to the music of Rudy Ainspac's Rhythm Four, with specialty numbers, including a Mexican hat dance, the bunny dance and other special numbers.

Lowell Fellman was master of ceremonies for the entertainment, which featured a solo, "Blue Moon," by Charlotte Bach; a dance by Nancy Fellencer, as a godmother complete with magic wand and green stars. Mary Frances Frankenfield danced two solos in costume, one a Russian dance and the other, "The Skater's Waltz." Terry Bartholomew and Lowell Fellman played several instrumental numbers.

New members of the teen-age club welcomed at the dance included Jere Viechnicki, Sue Dimmick, Betsy Peeney, John Verwey, Ann Holdorff, Sylvia Youngkin, Henry Jordan and Bill Waring.

Adults who assisted in serving refreshments included Mrs. Russell Custard, founder of the club, and Mr. Custard, Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Rake, Mrs. Helen Hanson, Mrs. Amzi Altemose, Mr. and Mrs. Angelo Vianello, Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Cramer and Sal Garisto.

Miss Eckman Is Bride Of Pvt. Altemose

Gilbert. Miss Joanne Ruth Eckman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Eckman, of Gilbert, became the bride of Pvt. Carl Dewey Altemose, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Altemose of Effort on Christmas Day.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Alton P. Albright, pastor of the Reformed Church at the parsonage in Gilbert at 2 p.m.

The bride wore an aqua street-length dress and a corsage of pink roses.

Following the ceremony a wedding supper was served at the home of bridegroom, featuring a centerpiece of a decorated four-tier wedding cake. Guests at the supper included Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Eckman and sons, Gary, Larry and Dale, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Altemose and daughter, Betty and sons, Jimmy, Martin, Russell and Ernest Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Robert Altemose and daughters, Mary and Pearl, Glenn Shupp, William Everitt and the guests of honor, Pvt. and Mrs. Carl Altemose.

The bride is a graduate of Chestnuthill High School, Brodheadsville and is a member of the Salem Evangelical and Reformed Church, Gilbert. She is pianist in the Primary Department of the Sunday School and also teaches a class. She is employed by the Nova Sportswear Co., Brodheadsville.

Mr. Altemose attended Chestnuthill High School and is a member of St. John's Reformed Church, Effort. At present he is stationed with the U. S. Army in Fort Benning, Georgia.

Family Reunion At Wagner's

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wagner had a family reunion at Christmas time at their home in East Stroudsburg. In addition to those shown in the five generation picture above, their guests included Mr. and Mrs. Richard Snyder of Penn State, and William Wagner.

Eastern Star Entertainment Is Announced

The annual Christmas party of the Monroe Chapter No. 99, Order of Eastern Star was held recently in the Masonic Building, East Stroudsburg. The program had been arranged by Mrs. Bessie Morman, Associate matron, and featured songs, recitations and instrumental numbers, and a Santa Claus with gifts for the guests.

Mrs. Morman welcomed the guests. Billy Tallada gave a recitation, "Santa's Suit"; Bonnie K. Besecker sang "God Is Love"; and Connie Burrows presented The Dance. Joan Dorshimer gave a recitation and Nancy Forry demonstrated baton twirling. Carol Dorshimer sang "Away in a Manger" and Bruce Forry sang "We Three Kings."

A recitation, "Something's Wrong" was given by Sylvia Tallada; and another "The Snow Man" by Jackie Sue Kintner. Following selections by the Pocono Male Quartet, Mrs. Morman gave a reading, "Let's Keep Christmas" and the program closed with a group carol.

Pianist was Miss Bessie Gardner. After Santa Claus had distributed the gifts, which included a chocolate Santa Claus, the Pocono Male Quartet sang several numbers and Bennie Besecker sang "Frosty the Snow Man" as a favor to Santa Claus.

Refreshments were served by the hostesses, after Mrs. Morman had thanked all those who took part.

Recuperating

Mrs. Martha Miller, of 39 South Courtland St., East Stroudsburg, who has been ill with virus pneumonia since December 16 is now improving.

Miss Ida Lee, Philip Bell Engaged

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson D. Lee, of 828 North Fifth St., Stroudsburg, announce the engagement of their daughter, Ida, to Philip Bell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Blair Bell, of 620 Main St., Stroudsburg.

A miscellaneous shower was given Miss Lee last night to honor the occasion. Present for the party were Colleen Campbell, Shirley Adams, Jane Ann Marshall, Anna Belle Leffelaar, Bertha Learn, Mrs. Elsie Leffelaar, Mrs. Wilson Lee, and the guest of honor, Ida Lee.

Invited but unable to attend were Carol Campbell and Marie Garis.

Bangor Eve Parties

Four organizations are holding New Year's Eve parties. The Exchange Club is having a family night square dance and buffet lunch at the Blue Valley Farm Show building, while the Elks, Veterans of Foreign Wars and American Legion are holding dances at their own headquarters.

Program For Dames Of Malta Features Children

The big meeting rooms of the Malta Temple were filled to capacity with guests and decorated elaborately for the annual Christmas party of the St. John's Sisterhood, Dames of Malta held recently.

Mrs. Fannie Barnes was chairman of the program which featured a welcome by Queen Carrie Slutter; duets "White Christmas" and "Winter Wonderland" by Douglas Metzgar and Brenda Metzgar; "Away in a Manger", by Susan and Paula Warnick; solos, "Mama Kissing Santa Claus", Stevie Andre; another by Susan Stevens; and "Silver Bells" and "I Believe" by Bill Serfass.

Joan Cracolici sang a solo "Rudolph" while Martin Cracolici played a cornet solo "Silent Night."

The recitations included "Christmas Wish," Sara Cyphers; "Santa's Vacation," Joan Beseeker; "Too Young," Robert Morman; "Santa Claus" Gary Agins; and a story three legends told by Mrs. Bessie Morman. In addition there was a piano solo by Pauline Cyphers; a Christmas dance by Kathy Shaw and the Skater's Waltz by Patricia Ace. There were also group carols, and the appearance of Santa Claus with gifts.

Refreshments were served by Marguerite Wagner and the members of her committee.

Engagement Announced In Wind Gap

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Oaten, of Broadway, Wind Gap, announce the engagement of their daughter, Amelia Oaten to Richard K. Young, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Young, of Water St., Wind Gap.

Miss Oaten is a graduate of Pen Argyl High School and is attending Churchman Business College. Mr. Young is attending Spring Garden Institute, Philadelphia, and is employed by Colonial Motors in Philadelphia.

Parents Are Named

Pvt. Walter J. Hartman, whose engagement to Miss Beverley Ann Fullerton was announced yesterday, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Hartman of Stroudsburg, RD 1. Their names were inadvertently omitted from the story of the engagement.

The Wyckoff Shopper

Where were you twenty-five years ago today at 4 o'clock in the afternoon? Chances are you haven't the slightest idea. But Bud Altemus remembers well. That was the date and the hour when Laura Snyder and he were married at Milford, surrounded by a large group of well-wishing, school-day buddies. Horace Heller, now editor of The Daily Record was there . . . so were Henrietta Bogart, (Mrs. Marty Baldwin) Bromell (Doc) Ace, and Allan Keiper.

Bud reflected on these things yesterday as he sat in my office awaiting a telephone call from New York. His wedding day was quite an eventful one, he recalls, with only one cloud on the horizon. It seems the State of Pennsylvania had decreed that all cars must bear a brand new inspection tag for the coming year, or be off the highway by midnight. His car lacked this tag; so did the cars of his friends, and the wedding reception was to be held in the mountains at The Elvin.

That's why all the guests hurried back to town after the ceremony and, tuxedos and evening gowns notwithstanding, made the trip to and from the reception in the back of a LAUNDRY truck. Wonder if that's why Bud's philosophy is "Everything'll come out in the wash," and "there aren't any troubles that can't be ironed out?" Anyway—here's to another twenty five years. We'd all be happy to see the silver turn to gold.

* * *

Did you notice the new head on the Wyckoff Shopper column today? Russell Williams, whose Annie works in our Tea Room, designed it, I'm told, so that we'd be right up to the minute. 3-D, you know. I like it, and hope that you do. Thanks, Mr. W! . . . At the moment it's almost impossible to walk through the hallway from the employees' lounge to the main store, without tripping over a red barn or putting one's foot through Buttermilk Falls. Not that any of us mind. It isn't often we have the privilege of seeing so much beauty and ingenuity collected in one spot. From what I've seen, I'm inclined to say that the art show, opening here Saturday, will be the best ever. Walter Wyckoff tells me there will be at least as many paintings as last year, and possibly more. Also, that a number of new artists are represented. Judging will take place Monday, and on Tuesday morning we will bring you a first hand report during the regular Wyckoff broadcast. In the meantime, come in Saturday and see for yourself just how YOU think the judges should decide . . . As I've been telling our radio listeners, a daily visit to Wyckoff's is imperative now for all thrifty shoppers. We're preparing for our February inventory, you know, and there are many useful and lovely items in every department marked down for clearance. Not everything is advertised, remember, so there's plenty of opportunity at Wyckoff's for real bargain hunting . . . Which reminds me that before I put a final period to the column, there's another very important message from Wyckoff's—HAPPY NEW YEAR. If we had our way, the months ahead would contain everything you dream of and desire. The year would resemble a giant cornucopia spilling over with good things. That's the closest I can come to expressing all that's in my heart.

Cavaliers Blast Lehighton In Invitational Tournament 53-38

Slatington Opposition For Title

Slatington — East Stroudsburg Cavaliers trampled previously undefeated Lehighton last night in Lehigh Valley League Invitational Basketball Tournament play here.

Final score of the game was 53 for East Stroudsburg—38 for Lehighton. The Cavaliers will play Slatington Saturday night for the tournament championship, now 8-1 in the tourney.

It was the season's biggest comedown for a team of Lehighton's stature. The team had played and won seven straight games only to show distinctly dull prowess last night in a game which was marked by one-sided scoring from start to finish.

The East Stroudsburg quintet, sparked by brilliant scoring from forward Don Herman and center Bill Pensyl, made its marks without let-up, increasing the lead over their opponent in each quarter.

Herman accounted for 19 of the 53 points. Pensyl dropped another 17 points through the basket.

The Cavaliers set a commanding lead in the opening quarter with 15 points to their credit. Lehighton managed only 9 points in the first quarter.

In the second quarter, East Stroudsburg scored another 11 points to Lehighton's additional nine, leaving a halftime score of 26 to 18.

The Cavaliers again increased their lead in the third quarter. Scoring 16 points, the Eastburgers brought their total to 42. Lehighton again came through with only nine points, for a tally of 27.

Final quarter scoring gave both teams 11 points. Despite last-minute vigor, however, it was a colorless showing for the Lehighton team, ballyhooed as heavy scoring and undefeated.

Officials in the game were Honzo and Kuba. East Stroudsburg tried a total of 23 foul shots, making 13 of them good. Lehighton tried 16 and made half of those.

In the first game played last night, Slatington tripped Northampton by a score of 60 to 56.

Results of last night's games pair off Slatington and East Stroudsburg for the championship trophy in the tournament.

The game to decide the championship will be played Saturday night.

Before last night's victory over Lehighton, the East Stroudsburg Cavaliers had split a 50-50 season, winning three games against three losses.

PIAA Records Major Membership

Harrisburg, (AP) — The Pennsylvania Interscholastic Athletic Assn. yesterday recorded the biggest enrollment of schools in its 47 year history.

Barely a half dozen representatives of member high and junior high schools attended the last annual meeting. Mark Funk, PIAA executive director, placed the membership at 1,091.

Boxed Best

"I fought the best," Carter often tells patrons. "And when I got through with them, they were still the best."

Officials of the British Columbia game commission estimate that 1,600 moose were killed by hunters during the 1953 season.

Australia Wins Davis Cup From United States When Rosewall Defeats Seixas

Melbourne, Thursday, (AP)—Ken Rosewall, a 140-pound artist of the courts, enabled Australia to win the Davis Cup from the United States for the fourth successive year today when he defeated Vic Seixas, 6-2, 2-6, 6-3, 6-4, in the deciding singles match of the challenge round.

The final count was 3-2 for the Australians and it means that the Americans will have to take the long trek down under again next December in quest of the coveted cup—the symbol of world tennis supremacy.

The Australians won three singles matches, while the best the Americans could do was take the doubles and one singles.

Rosewall, one of captain Harry Hopman's 19-year-old wonder kids, made a stirring comeback before a sellout crowd of 17,500 at the Kooyong Stadium, after being benched in the doubles. He dropped the second singles test to Tony Trabert and Hopman feared using him in the doubles.

But this was not the same Rosewall who suffered a bad case of stage fright the first day. He was composed as he took everything the 30-year-old Philadelphian could throw at him and returned it with no trouble.

Del Flanagan Turns Slugger, Stops Saxton

Minneapolis (AP) — Del Flanagan unleased a flaming finish last night to gain a 10-round split decision over deadpan Johnny Saxton, No. 3 welter weight contender, before a national television audience.

Flanagan, long noted as a jab artist, turned slugger in the closing rounds to wipe out a lead which Saxton's blistering body punches had built up during the middle sessions.

Both fighters weighed 149¾.

Referee Johnny Deotis gave 98 points to Flanagan and 93 to Saxton.

Judge Britt Gorman scored it 97-95 for Flanagan. Judge Johnny Stanton scored it 94-92 for Saxton.

Under Minnesota scoring, round winners get 10 points and the loser a lesser number.

U.S.-British Golf Camps Will Play

New York, (AP)—The proposed 36-hole challenge match between the American PGA senior champion and the top senior player of British professional golf will be played in England, July 3 and 4, Fred Corcoran, PGA promotion director, said yesterday.

Corcoran said he had received assurance from the British Golf Writers Assn., that the writers would ballot to designate a British representative.

The match will be played on the eve of the British Open championship.

The American champion will be crowned at Dunedin, Fla., during the 14th U. S. PGA senior championship, Jan. 28-30. No comparable tournament is played in Britain.

Corcoran also said the low eight scorers at Dunedin will constitute an official PGA senior team and that negotiations are under way for an international senior team match between the United States and Canada next summer.

Batavia Quits

Batavia, N.Y. (AP) — The board of directors of the Batavia Clippers, a charter member of the Class "D" Pony Baseball League, voted last night to suspend operations and return the franchise to the league.

Shoemaker In

Arcadia, Calif. (AP) — Blanked in the first five races, jockey champion Willie Shoemaker hit the winner's circle in the last three races at Santa Anita Park yesterday to bring his record total of the year to 484.

Pocono Mts. Court Teams Play Monday

Pocono Mountains Basketball League last night settled their circuit make-up and cleared the decks for action by six teams starting Monday night.

Meeting in Bartonsville Hotel, the league approved the addition of a team from Lake Harmony to replace Moscow which withdrew to join a league operating closer to its home base. Clinton Getz set up the new entry.

Newfoundland, which had not answered the league call by last night, was dropped. Tobyhanna, already in the league, substitutes in the league schedule for Newfoundland.

League officials said all referees have been selected and approved. All schools where games will be played have approved dates for use of their courts.

Single games will start at 8 p. m. and doubleheaders will begin at 7:15 p. m.

Monday night the schedule calls for:

Tobyhanna at Pocono Lake, 8 p. m.

Tannersville vs. West End at 7:15 p. m., and Gray Chevrolet vs. Lake Harmony at 8 p. m., both at Pocono High School, Tannersville.

Mantle Twins In Mickey's Footsteps

Commerce, Okla.—Mickey Mantle's kid brothers, Roy and Ray, are making sports history, too. The 17-year-old twins, a banner football year behind them, are playing basketball, the third sport in which they star for Commerce High School.

Whether the youngsters will follow their older brother into professional baseball is a question only the future can answer. Last summer both played in a semi-pro league. Ray, a first baseman, batted over .400. Ray, an outfielder, hit better than .300.

The brothers played important roles in winning eight Commerce High trophies, including championships of the conference and district.

Commerce's Tigers, with Roy and Ray in the halfback positions, ran off with the football title again this year as they led their mates to 10 straight victories.

Speedy like their older brother, the Mantles were long distance scoring threats and accounted for the bulk of Commerce's touchdowns.

"I think they could be good college football players if they don't turn to pro baseball," says their coach Marshall Ishmael.

As for baseball, Ishmael recalls that during one tournament game Roy hit four homers and Ray three.

Both boys have some of Mickey's attributes—speed, power and strong arms.

Some folks who have watched the versatile twins in action wonder if they aren't too inclined to other sports to give baseball the concentration needed to develop their talents.

One qualified observer pointed out that they don't seem to take to the sport as did Mickey, who couldn't be kept off a baseball field.

Several big league scouts reportedly have looked over the Mantles. It seems certain, however, that should they try pro baseball, Mickey's influence would steer them into the Yankee system.

Roy and Ray are bigger than Mickey. Whereas Mickey is stocky, the twins are of angular build, six feet one, and still growing. Roy weighs 180, Ray about 176.

Their greatest admirer probably is Mickey himself. During the football season he came to the practice field to watch their drills and attend as many games as he could. He recently left a Springfield, Mo., hospital where he underwent knee surgery, in order not to miss an important contest. He hobbled there on crutches.

Sometimes Mickey's fame makes it tough for the twins who are constantly in the spotlight. They're the targets for a lot of barbs and ribbing from opposition crowds when their teams play on the road.

"Take them back to Mantleville," is the cry from the hostile stands.

Sammy Lee, Diving Champ Named Top Amateur Of '53

New York, (AP)—Major Sammy Lee, two-time Olympic platform diving champion who has not competed in a single national championship this year, yesterday was awarded the James E. Sullivan Memorial Trophy as the outstanding amateur athlete of 1953.

Lee, born of Korean parents in Fresno, Calif., is attached to the 121st Evacuation Hospital in the suburbs of Seoul, Korea as an ear-nose-throat specialist.

Lee received 247 first place votes of the 631 cast by a nation-wide tribunal of sports authorities. On a 5-3-1 point basis, the 33-year-old graduate of Occidental College amassed a total of 1,676 points.

Mrs. Patrick Keller McCormick of Los Angeles, who scored a springboard-platform diving double in the '52 Olympics finished second with 94 firsts and 1,045 points.

Charles Capozzoli, the New York Athletic Club's young distance runner, was third with 123 firsts and 990 points, followed by James McLane of Yale, an outstanding distance swimmer for 10 years, with 83 firsts and 734 points.

Pass Master Laments Its Passing

Dallas, — The man who brought the forward pass into the Southwest Conference as a standard offense is a little sad these days. He's sorry to see passing apparently losing out in college football.

Ray Morrison, who coached for 40 years, used all styles of offenses but preferred the single-wing. "This is still the finest offense of all if you combine some of the features of the T with it," he says.

That passing is leaving the Southwest Conference is shown by the figures. Only one member of the conference Texas A&M averaged 20 passes per game in 1953. Time was when a Southwest Conference team would throw as many as 40 a contest.

Rice, which tied Texas for the championship, averaged 13.5. Texas averaged only 12.

It was back in the 20s that Morrison used the forward pass as a regular weapon. Up to that time the pass was never used by a team on its end of the field and seldom employed except by a team that was behind and then only in the final minutes.

Thomas Signs

Pittsburgh (AP) — Frank Thomas, 24-year-old slugging outfielder of the Pittsburgh Pirates, signed a 1954 contract yesterday. He is the first Pirate regular to come to terms.

Wake Forest's demon Deacons staved off a desperate rally by North Carolina State in the closing minutes to defeat the Wolfpack, 86-79, and capture third place honors.

Duke set a blistering pace that wore down the Middies in the final period. Guard Rudy D'Emilio paced Duke with 24 points before fouling out in the last quarter.

SPORTSMAN'S DIGEST By hal sharp

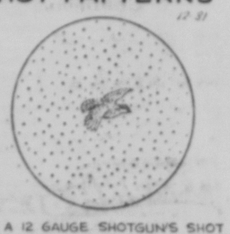
DIFFERENCES OF 12, 16 AND 20 GA. SHOT PATTERNS



IS A 12 GAUGE SHOTGUN'S SHOT PATTERN LARGER THAN A 20 GAUGE'S? THE ANSWER IS NO! IF 12, 16 AND 20 GAUGE SHOTGUNS ARE BORED FULL-CHOKE AND HIGH VELOCITY SHELLS ARE USED, THE DIAMETER OF THE SHOT PATTERNS WILL BE THE SAME FOR ALL GAUGES!

THE MAIN DIFFERENCE LIES IN PATTERN DENSITY: A 12 GAUGE HAS 279 SIZE-6 PELLETS TO A 16'S 251, OR A 20'S 223 (HIGH VELOCITY LOADS). DIFFERENCE IS SLIGHT BUT IT REDUCES THE 16'S RANGE 5 YDS; A 20'S, 10 YDS.

Maryland Remains Touch-Down Favorite Despite Condition Of Quarterback

Miami, Fla., (AP)—Maryland remained a one-touchdown favorite yesterday to defeat Oklahoma in the Orange Bowl despite the questionable condition of quarterback Bernie Faloney.

But the opinion was general that the odds will be slashed before game time.

Observers around the Maryland camp doubted that Faloney, who directed the Terrapins to 10 straight victories and the national championship, would be of any use to the team, despite trainer Duke Wyre's report yesterday that he "definitely is not out of the Orange Bowl game."

Faloney's injured knee gave way Tuesday in a dummy scrimmage, without a hand being laid on him, and there seemed no reason to believe he could last under attack.

Oklahoma's coach Bud Wilkinson was in good spirits for the first time since he came to Miami as he gave his light, fast sooner teams a final drill.

Georgia Tech Has Second Bowl Drill

New Orleans (AP)—All the roads may lead to Rome but the coming Sugar Bowl football game is proof that there is no such agreement on the method of getting a team in shape for a postseason struggle.

Georgia Tech, for instance, has had only one full practice session since Dec. 19 and today Coach Bobby Dodd sent his charges through a light session on a practice field near rain-splattered Tulane Stadium.

At Biloxi, Miss., Art Lewis of West Virginia, directed the Mountaineers in another of the drills he has held everyday except one since the team arrived on Dec. 20.

Owls Coach Objects To Heavy Odds

Dallas (AP)—Jess Neely brought his dashing Rice Owls to town yesterday and tartly intimated that the sports writers must be off their rockers in establishing his team the favorite by three or four touchdowns over Alabama in the Cotton Bowl.

Alabama, which has been here since Sunday, and Rice both held workouts yesterday afternoon.

Duquesne Now Holiday Champs

New York, (AP)—Unbeaten Duquesne surged from behind on the performance of 6-foot-7 Dick Ricketts last night to gain a nerve-tingling 66-61 victory over fired-up Niagara in the championship final of the Madison Square Garden Holiday Basketball Festival.

LaSalle defeated Brigham Young 74-62 for third place and Manhattan scored a 64-58 victory over St. Louis for fifth place.

Jockey Fine Golfer

Miami—Jockey Star Ira (Babe) Hanford is restricting his exercise to golf until the Hialeah meeting this Winter. Hanford won Hialeah's first annual Flamingo Golf Tournament two winters ago and was runner-up last season. He was the first apprentice to win a Kentucky Derby—on Bold Venture in 1936.

Hendrickson Resigns

Raleigh, N. C.—Horace (Horse) Hendrickson has resigned as head football coach at North Carolina State.

Michigan Touchdown Favorite

Pasadena, Calif. (AP)—The hard work slowed down but pregame excitement began to mount on the Rose Bowl front yesterday as fans by the thousand trooped in for the Michigan State-UCLA game on New Year's Day.

The teams, Michigan State, co-champions with Illinois in the Big Ten, and UCLA, champions of the Pacific Coast Conference, went through brisk but routine drills.

As is generally the case, this fortieth Rose Bowl game still stacks up as a close affair to figure.

The bright green and white of Michigan State is the one-touchdown favorite.

Gator Bowl To Be High Scorer

Jacksonville, Fla. (AP) — Texas Tech and Auburn are best known for their high-scoring offenses, and victory in the Gator Bowl Friday may hinge on which can throw up the toughest defense.

Coaches Dewitt Weaver of Tech and Ralph Jordan of Auburn have been spending a lot of time in workouts on maneuvers designed to put a crimp in the other's explosive split T attacks.

Czech Champ Turns Down Indoor Race

New York (AP) — Emil Zatopek, Czechoslovakia's triple Olympic champion, has declined an invitation to run in indoor track meets in the United States this winter.

After learning that Zatopek, winner of the Olympic 5,000, 10,000 meter and marathon titles at the Helsinki games, would compete in the New Year's Eve street race at Sao Paulo, Brazil, the Amateur Athletic Union cabled an invitation for him to return via the United States and to run here.

Yesterday a reply was received from the Ceskoslovanska Obec Schokaustredi Lehke Atletiky, the organization governing track and field athletics in Czechoslovakia, which said:

"Thanks but regret invitation not acceptable. Zatopek not competing on indoor tracks."

SPORTS ★ SPUTTERINGS

By Walter L. Johns
Central Press Sports Editor

Detroit—As Otto Graham, quarterback of the Cleveland Browns, jogged on the field before the start of the pro football championship game here, the public address announcer in Briggs stadium chanted:

At quarterback . . . Otto Graham . . . No. 14 . . ."

But that wasn't all. He added a line:

". . . The leading passer in the league."

After the game, and you know what happened in the struggle, Graham, a dejected figure, told newsmen:

"I was lousy and I admit it. I just couldn't control the ball."

The Browns were favored to win the game. And, since they didn't, it's easy to find fault. Especially when one had a nickel or so in a friendly wager.

In the overall picture of the game let it be said the Lions won and they had the better team this day.

The Browns made mistakes. Paul Brown made mistakes. He calls the plays.

It seemed to us, sitting in on the proceedings from a baseball viewing angle, that Graham, "the leading passer in the league," didn't throw enough.

He didn't throw to his ends, like he has so many times in past successes. He didn't throw to the ends and back running to the sidelines. He didn't throw to receivers faking outside and running toward the middle. He didn't throw spot passes.

His record was bad, probably one of his worst performances, in the passes he did attempt. And it's true that Chick Jagade did rip the Lion line to shreds in his bursts up the middle. But the Browns, with Graham in the pocket, are a passing team. They've won many of their games with their aerial attack.

Our only point is, if you don't throw, you have to rely on the ground game for yardage and the Cleveland ground game isn't that good.

Graham threw just 15 times and George Ratterman, who got in the game only momentarily, once. It's true that Graham was not hitting, but at least he might have kept trying.

On the other side, Bobby Layne, who had himself a fine afternoon, threw the ball 25 times, which wasn't exactly par for the course either.

We're no coach and it's easy to second-guess. But with so much at stake and with the Browns trailing throughout most of the game it appears that their one big weapon was the aerial game. And this despite the prepared Lion defense against it.

We certainly would have like to have seen more of it.

The championship game was one of the hardest-fought battles we've ever witnessed. Two fine teams gave it all they had, and, at times, more than they should have.

Punches were thrown all over the place. The tackling was vicious and the line play was rugged.

Which, we suppose, is the way it should be. After all, this was for the championship and one has to give it all he has in a game of this caliber.

The Lions won like champions. They came from behind in the true style of the best in any sport.

Coach Buddy Parker did a fine job, all season. And, winning his second pro title in a row, he has proven it was no fluke.

Perez, Gallarado To Meet In Rubber Match At Garden

New York—It will be the rubber match between those two crowd pleasers, Lulu Perez and Dave Gallardo when they meet for the third time Friday night (January 1st) at Madison Square Garden in a ten rounder to be nationally telecast and broadcast.

This scrap between two outstanding featherweights will start at 10 p.m. EST, and will be seen over the NBC television network and heard over the ABC radio network.

It will be the third time in four months that these two boys have fought for television and radio audiences. In their first meeting, Larrupin' Lulu Perez scored a technical knockout over Gallardo when he opened a bad cut over Gallardo's left eye. When they met just a month ago, Gallardo took the fight by a unanimous decision.

Twenty-year-old Lulu is sure he can do it this time, and if he does, it will probably be by the kayo route. He's the harder puncher, but Gallardo shades Perez in experience. Perez had won 23 straight until he lost to Gallardo. It was only his second loss in a ring career which shows him with 33 wins, with 19 knockouts.

Gallardo, 23-years old, holds the feather title for California. He has had 65 fights, winning 47, eight by knockouts, with 14 losses.

Martin Picks Michigan State, West Virginia, Oklahoma, Rice, Texas Tech As Victors

By Whitney Martin

New York (AP) — Gene Sarazen, the galloping golfer, has a theory about putting, to wit: "miss 'em quick."

That is, he has only scorn for the players who take five minutes to line up the shot, surveying it from all angles and all positions, getting the wind direction, caressing the grass, studying the barometer reading and worrying about what they had for breakfast.

Gene just walks briskly to his ball, takes a quick squint, and lets go. And with more than average success.

That's a long approach to today's subject, which is bowl football games, but we cite Sarazen's theory because we feel it applies to picking football winners. If you're going to miss 'em, miss 'em quick.

The more you study rival teams the more confused you get, and you're liable to wind up picking both teams to win, or sitting on a fence declaring neither team possibly can win.

Anyway, here's the way we'll see 'em quick.

Rose — Michigan State over UCLA.

Sugar — West Virginia over Georgia Tech.

Orange — Oklahoma over Maryland.

Cotton—Rice over Alabama.

Gator — Texas Tech over Auburn.

Sun — Mississippi Southern over Texas Western.

Tangerine — Arkansas State over East Texas State.

Cigar — La Crosse State over Missouri Valley.

Salad — Fort Ord over Great Lake.

We realize that some of our choices are rated underdogs. Maryland, for instance, generally is favored over Oklahoma, and Georgia Tech is given the nod over West Virginia. But Oklahoma and West Virginia are our sleepers. We picked them quickly and still stick to them, win or lose.

We have great confidence in Oklahoma's ability to rise to the occasion, and believe the Sooners will cook up some kind of a pass attack for this occasion. Their aerial game has been rather pathetic to date, although in most of their games they didn't need one.

They lost to Notre Dame in a game which the Irish rate the toughest of their schedule, and they were tied by Pittsburgh, a much better team than its record indicates.

We believe the Oklahoma line can match that of Maryland, although there is a question of depth. Maryland has manpower galore, but with one platoon football that isn't so important.

West Virginia admittedly played a weak schedule, but it trounced Pittsburgh soundly, and the players have the added incentive of trying to show the world they aren't overrated. Pappy Lewis has supreme confidence in his athletes, and the players we met don't look like guys to be pshed around.

Michigan State is generally favored over UCLA, and should be the Spartans are a hard running team with an amazingly diversified offense which we don't believe the UCLA defense, staunch as it is, can stop.

Rice also is a hard running team which, on the day it played Cornell undoubtedly ranked with the best.

Alabama offers stubborn resistance, but if it is stout enough we'll be very much surprised.

We are fairly confident of our selections of Texas Tech and Mississippi Southern, but are in something of a dream world concerning the others. That is, if we picked 'em right, we're just lucky.

Anyway, there they are, and we'll guarantee only that we don't change our alleged mind before Friday.

Today's Players Are Better, And Also Gentlemen

Oxford, Ohio, (AP)—Walter Smokey Alston, new manager of the Brooklyn Dodgers, believes present baseball players not only are better than the old ones but are gentlemen.

"They are not the rough characters they once were supposed to be," he told the Oxford Kiwanis Club. Alston, who lives in nearby Darrtown, added:

"They come to us out of high schools and colleges and are gentlemen from the start."

Teams Switch In Y Court League Plans

Two teams are involved in a current swtch in operations within the Young Men's Christian Association-sponsored basketball league.

Announcement was made last night that Frailey's Insurance team has switched its membership from the Y League to the Pocono Mountains Basketball League.

Replacing the Frailey quintet on the Y roster is the team sponsored by Biggs' Restaurant, according to John DeVivo, coordinator for the Y League.

Teddy Stevens is manager of the Biggs team. Gene Woodling is manager of the Frailey team.

Action in the Y.M.C.A. League begins on Thursday, Jan. 7.

Estimated Tax Declaration Due Jan. 15

A reminder was issued to taxpayers by District Director of Internal Revenue Joseph J. Lawler that Jan. 15 is the final date for the filing and payment of the declaration of estimated income tax for 1953.

At the same time Director Lawler announced the list of points within Monroe County where taxpayers may file a declaration or an amended declaration of estimated income tax.

All persons who in 1953 received any wages not subject to withholding—for example, pay for agricultural labor or domestic service—or any income from dividends, interest, rents or gain from property transactions or from a business or profession, in excess of $100, provided his total income is expected to amount to $600, or more, are required to file.

Jan. 15 is the final date on which farmers may file and pay on their estimated taxes. However, if farmers file their final income tax returns on or before Jan. 31, 1954, and pay the total tax at that time, they need not file a declaration.

Wage earners and salaried employes whose income is entirely subject to withholding taxes by employers have until March 15 to file their income tax returns.

Representatives of Lawler's office will be at the following Monroe County locations on the dates shown:

Mount Pocono, public school, Jan. 14, 15, 26 and 27; Swiftwater, postoffice, Jan. 21, 22; Stroudsburg, postoffice, Jan. 4 to 8, inclusive.

Pike County—Milford, courthouse, Jan. 12, 13, 28, 29.

Wayne County—Newfoundland, public school, Jan. 19, 20.

Monroe County Scheduled To Take Part In Two-Hour Civil Defense Test Jan. 27

Monroe County will take part in an Eastern Pennsylvania area Civil Defense test Jan. 27.

The two-hour test will revolve around a tactical "incident" scheduled to occur in Reading.

There will be no halt or interruption of civilian traffic during the exercise, said CD Co-ordinator Fred W. Davis of Stroudsburg.

Aim is to test communication and control center operations, with the drill following the same general pattern as the one staged in October, when Philadelphia was the scene of a theoretical attack.

This time Reading will send out calls for aid. Replies will be based on actual figures and facts about the CD set-up within each participating county.

Keynotes of the test will be radio and telephone communications both county-wide and area-wide.

Legion Post Raises $400 For Family

Bangor—Officials of the Martocci-Capobianco American Legion Post of Roseto have announced that $400 has been raised in a drive to aid the needy family of a deceased member—and World War Two veteran—Daniel Cistone, 29, who died a little more than a month ago.

A spokesman said that citizens of Roseto responded generously to the door-to-door campaign started Dec. 13 by the legionnaires.

The family consists of the mother, Mrs. Pearl Cistone, and four children—three girls and a boy. The boy, Dennis, 7, is the oldest.

Post Commander Anthony Farino, of Bangor, said that the money will be used to defer some of the expense of household repairs, of which the family is in dire need. Farino also said that it is planned to secure volunteer labor from among the legionnaires to help with these repairs.

People of the surrounding area and the Slate Belt Apparel Contractors Association have provided the family with necessities during the last month—and more particularly during the holiday season.

St. Peter's EUB Church Gives Program

Saylorsburg—The annual Christmas program was given at St. Peter's Evangelical United Brethren church. Recitations were given by the following children: Tommy Toth, Shirley Gower, Sandra Kresge, Dian Toth, Paul George, followed by singing a carol.

Recitations were given by Clark Bartholomew, Harvey Heller, Sandra Landry, Nancy Berwick, Marcella Landra, Nina Bonser, Darlene Frable and Charlot Neal played accordion duets. Gladys Kresge sang Christmas carols with Mrs. Ford Warner accompanying her on the piano. Mrs. Warner also played the organ during the program.

"The Other Wise Man," by Henry Van Dyke, was put in pantomime by the youth of the church, with Rev. Harold Ulmer, narrator. The following young people took part: Kenneth Arnold, Teddy Koopman, Nicky Koopman, Larry Christian, Berne Warner, Carolyn Frable, Gail Shaffer, Jack Eckley, Dale Bartholomew, Nancy Heller, Barbara Brands, Eleanor Kresge, Mary Brands and Mary George. A treat was given Sunday school members.

Portland

Place Orders Now For Trees To Be Planted Next Spring

By A. Norman Dietrick
SCS Technician

Tree planting is probably the most effective and most permanent of all the soil and water conservation practices. Once the initial work of planting is completed, about all nature asks of us is protection from fire and grazing. In a few short years a dense cover is formed to protect the soil and trap the raindrops where they fall.

Certainly no one would suggest tree planting on good cropland. On the other hand there are thousands of acres of steep, unproductive land where trees are the only logical and safe crop.

Many of these steep fields which are now contributing nothing but the damaging effects of excessive run-off should never have been cleared in the first place. The least we can do to correct past mistakes is to help nature return these areas to woodland.

Planting plans should be made now, and orders for spring delivery of tree seedlings should be placed soon. This is true whether trees are purchased from a commercial nursery, from the State, or procured through the Monroe County Soil Conservation District.

The district furnishes a limited number of trees to farmers who are cooperators. Last spring 28 district cooperators planted 35,000 trees. An additional 48,000 trees, secured from the State, were planted by 33 Monroe County land owners according to reports furnished by the district forester's office.

No estimate can be made of the number of trees bought from commercial nurseries, but numerous cases are known.

Good examples of the results that may be expected after 15 to 20 years may be seen on the Louis Spring farm near Bartonsville, or the Clyde Detrick farm near McIlhaney. Both farms are in the district program.

Anton Zeidler, who resides with Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Haney on Foxtown Hill, is spending the Christmas-New Year week visiting his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. P. Frey.

Christmas greetings from Mrs. Olive Irwin of Rockaway, N.J. carried the news that her brother, Stewart Lash, who with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. Lash, his brother Fred and sisters Olive and Mildred lived in Water Gap when a boy, had died in November. He resided in Rochester, N.Y.

Councilman apd Mrs. Phil Farber and son Phil have closed the Cherry Valley Inn for three months and will spend some time in Florida.

Mrs. Edythe Glebe spent the Christmas holiday at Pocono Manor, with Arthur Feindt and Miss Anna Feindt. Mrs. Glebe is back in Water Gap after three months in Stroudsburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Ned A. Cyphers spent two days in Trenton, N.J. visiting their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Cyphers and their three grandchildren.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Raymond Rinehart of Philadelphia, have spent a week in the Gap visiting Preston Rinehart and Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Rotzel.

Justice of the Peace Joseph Hauser has been a surgical patient in the East Stroudsburg General Hospital.

Sandra Denise Jaggers came home to Water Gap the Saturday before Christmas, which was an event in the Jaggers household; for Sandra, when born Nov. 28, was an incubator baby. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Jaggers Jr., report that she now weighs 6¾ pounds and "is getting there."

Ralph M. Meyer, antique dealer, and his sister, Miss Dorothy Meyer spent Christmas in Fanwood, N.J. with their nephew and niece, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence C. Meyer, and their children.

Mrs. G. V. Ancker, writes to her friends from Riverside, Calif., where she has been living for a year after several years of travel throughout the United States and Mexico. Her son, Rev. Mitchell Ancker (who served his first pastorate at the Gap Presbyterian Church and married a Water Gap girl Miss Eleanor McKelvy), has been serving a large church in Chicago, Ill., for quite some years. About two years ago he received a Doctor of Divinity degree from the University of Chicago.

If Water Gap people miss seeing the grey cat, Silvers, strolling about the home of his owner, Mrs. H. W. Brodhead, it is because he spends all his time under his four-foot Christmas tree. After an investigating paw touched its branches and a quivering nose sniffed its fragrance Christmas morning, Silver settled down in a box lid under his tree and leaves it only to eat his meals.

Dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Meixelf were Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Kunkle and Ronnie Metzgar of Stroudsburg RD, Mrs. Adele Forquer and Donna Jean Forkquer and Joseph Kline of Trenton, N.J. Those who enjoyed a social time with the Meixells over the weekend were Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Meixell, Gary and Lois Meixell of East Stroudsburg, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Cunningham and Jane Cunningham of Irvington, N.J.; Mr. and Mrs. Allen Kunkle, Judy and Bruce Kunkle of East Stroudsburg RD; Nevin Kunkle, Clifford and Linda Kunkle of Stroudsburg; Mrs. Pearl Haney and Martha Haney of Bartonsville; Mrs. Violet Shaw and Patty Shaw of Stroudsburg; Mrs. Peter Metzgar and Sandra Metzgar of East Stroudsburg; Mr. and Mrs. Donald Finkser, Harold and John Finkser of Mt. Bethel; Mr. and Mrs. Norman Pipher of Bangor. In addition to these out-of-town guests a dozen friends and neighbors joined the holiday group at Meixell's.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Terrant and children Linda and Bobby, of Houston, Texas, spent several days with the Robert Beehlers after a Christmas visit with Mr. Terrant's family in Plainfield, Conn. Mr. Beehler and Mr. Terrant served together in the U. S. Air Corps. The Terrant family was present at the christening of the Beeher's daughter, Lana Key, at St. John's Lutheran Church on Sunday, Dec. 27.

Mrs. George Bush celebrated her birthday on Christmas.

Mrs. Richard Grebs, of Bethlehem; Mrs. Elsie Besecker, of Tannersville, Mrs. Fred Walters, and Mrs. Haviland Heller of this place, spent Monday in New York City. While there they visited Radio City and witnessed the Christmas pageant.

Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon Evans of Bethlehem visited local relatives on Saturday night and Sunday.

Mrs. Clyde Beehler was a Sunday night supper guest of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Beehler. Other callers at the Beehler home during the evening were Mrs. Claude Metzgar, Mr. and Mrs. David Besecker and family and Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Metzgar and family of Analomink, and Mr. and Mrs. George Bush, of Chipperfield Drive.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Grebs and daughter Sharon and son Rickey, of Bethlehem, visited relatives here on Sunday.

Here is a pleasant little game that will give you a message every day. It is a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add 2. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left hand corner of the rectangle and check every one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figure give you.

Your Horoscope Today

By FRANCIS DRAKE

March 21 to April 20 (Aries)—Some unattractive vibrations for those of you who will not fight back, or who have a defeatist attitude. Remember, some of the greatest men have gained their stars despite incredible obstacles.

April 21 to May 20 (Taurus)—Some gains indicated in work, artistic and professional matters, social service and friendship. Be your gay and persuasive self, maintaining that certain reserve that intrigues.

May 21 to June 21 (Gemini)—Day is responsive for those affairs that tend to improve one's personal manner, home and social life. Maintain a cheerful outlook. Your 1954 could be a year of great satisfaction.

June 22 to July 23 (Cancer)—Gains in the making through others' kindly and unsolicited generosity. Especially favored now: real estate, banking, sound investment, manufacturing, organizing.

July 24 to August 22 (Leo)—Both personal and business matters have a slightly upward trend. Be alert, get an early start, work hard for just rewards. 1954 holds many hidden benefits for the worthy.

August 23 to September 23 (Virgo)—By noon you should be rolling along to a fine finish. Just what you'd wish for. Relax tight reins. There are good times ahead.

September 24 to October 23 (Libra)—Inspirational, exciting and friendly rays for the willing and energetic today. Full steam ahead now—but with caution as watchword. Watch a tendency to over-spend or take on more than can handle.

October 24 to November 22 (Scorpio)—Mildly stimulating. This should be enough for Scorpio natives. That old "root of all evil"—money—isn't on the favored list but routine and family interests are.

November 23 to December 22 (Sagittarius)—You can be right up front and contributing heavily from your resourceful mind. Top effort will bring fine rewards and personal satisfaction.

December 23 to January 21 (Capricorn)—Business and professional achievement possible now—If you double efforts. General interests, including romance, social affairs favored. News will contribute interest.

January 22 to February 20 (Aquarius)—Evenly balanced influences suggest careful survey now to attain full benefits. Be undisturbed at petty annoyances; live above them; you must be of higher mind.

February 21 to March 20 (Pisces)—Plenty on the fire today. Keep cool, calm and collected. Big point: differentiate well between the essential and the non-essentials. Concentrate on the former.

YOU BORN TODAY are most practical and self-reliant; at times self-conscious, backward in putting forward your ideas, plans — not that you cannot follow through or haven't the knowledge, but through fear of ridicule, comparison. A deep thinker, sometimes impulsive, you can achieve much if you will maintain a steady pace and cultivate your talents. You have fine organizing ability and, on the road to success, you more past obstacles quickly. Genial, often witty, you could ge a great speaker, lawyer, entertainer. Avoid overwork, questionable associates. Birthdate of: Charles Edward Stuart, the "Young Pretender."

Sgt. Stephen J. Turr, Son Of Poplar Valley Couple, Dies In Service In Korea

Sgt. Stephen J. Turr, 20, died Dec. 14 in Korea where he was serving with an artillery battalion.

He was a resident of Stroudsburg RD 1 prior to entry into the service in February, 1952. He was sent to Korea in July, 1953.

Sgt. Turr was the son of Stephen J. and Myrtle Turr, Poplar Valley. He was educated in the Butler, N. J. school system. He enlisted in the Army at the Allentown recruiting station and received his basic training at Fort Bliss, Texas.

In addition to his parents he is survived by three brothers, Lunn, Victor and Danigl; and one sister, Linda May, all at home; and his grandmother, Mrs. Florence Ott, Newton, N. J.

Sgt. Stephen J. Turr

The body will be returned here for burial. Funeral arrangements will be announced at that time.

Cause of death of Sgt. Turr was not relayed to the family by the Defense Department in its telegram-notification.

HAPPY NEW YEAR

A wonderful New Year is ahead for all of us . . . the more promising because 1953 was so richly endowed with rewarding experiences. Here in our organization we have worked diligently to bring the newest, most exciting merchandise to you, your family and your home, and you have responded with confidence in our leadership, and appreciation for the courteous, personal service so long a part of our tradition.

Today . . . as we look forward to another fruitful year, let us extend to you, our many friends and customers, sincerest wishes for a plentiful and happy 1954 . . . with the pledge of 365 days dedicated to serving you to the best of our ability.
